Attorneys Gain Delay Through Court's Failure to Specify

Belief Is Deportation to Vermon Will Be Submitted To Gracefully and That Scene of Legal Battle Will Be Shifted.

SHERBROOKE, Que., Aug. 21 .- Until SHERBROOKE, Que, Aug. 21.—Until Wednesday of next week, barring unforeseen developments, Harry Kendali Thaw will remain in the Sherbrooke jail. On that day he is to be arraigned in the Superior Court on the writ of habeas corpus. Between that time and now his Canadian lawyers hope to perfect plans not to thwart deportation, but to submit to it gracefully to a noint selected by Thaw.

fully to a point selected by Thaw.

This, in brief, was the status tonight of Maticawan's fugitive arrested on Tuesday near Coatleook, Que,, and committed to jall here on a defective warrant. Ignorant of the moves made by his lawyers, Thaw has spent his time pacing the length of the narrow corridor in the Sherbrooke jall, and was not even aware that the writ of habeas corpus in his case was served on the jailer this afternoon and that, but for a timely telephone message, he would have been produced in court today with the bench vacant.

Thaw Ordered to Prepare.

This incident, variously described as a blunder, a cast of absent mindedness and an error due to hurry, arose after and an error due to hurry, arose after Superior Judge Globensky falled to specify in writing that the writ was returnable before him next Wednesday. He had set this date in chambers, but the writ reading "instanter," when served on the jailer, set that official into instant action, and he had called a carriage and ordered Thaw to dress for an outing when a telephone mes-sage from the judge informed him that the latter was leaving for Montreal, not to return here as a circuit judge until next week. Meanwhile, District Attorney Conger.

Meanwhile, District Attorney Conger, of Dutchess County, New York; Deputy Attorney-General Franklin Kennedy, of Albany, and others primarily interested in getting Stanford White's slayer across the border, selzed on the possibility of Thaw's immediate production and sought to find another judge before whom to arraign him. But Mr. LaForre governor of the fall declined. before whom to arraign him. But Mr. LaForce, governor of the jail declined to surrender the prisoner until he had consulted with Sheriff Aylmer. The Sheriff, after reading the writ carefully, said that, while no time for its return was stated, he had understood from the court that Wadnesday was the day and he thought that Thus had the day, and he thought that Thaw had Rumors sprouted meanwhile that the New York authorities were trying to kidnap Thaw; that an automobile was ready to whirl him to the New York line; that an open clash, perhaps in street battle, was imminent. As a matter of fact, the officers from New York were as much surprised as anyone.

They had not believe that she is dead.

It is expected that tonight an extra effort of the Apostolic followers will be made to effect, if possible, the awakening which they have thus far awakening which they have thus far awakening which they have thus far awakening which they have the same to believe that she is dead.

They had protested at postponing the proceedings until Wednesday, but their protests failing, had decided to bide their time, hoping that when arraigned Thaw would be released as a fugitive and promptly snapped up by the immi-gration authorities as an undesirable. Thaw's lawyers said tonight that Thaw's lawyers said tonight that they were well satisfied with the levents of today. They feel now that Thaw's fate, so far as the Canadian authorities may influence it, is practically settled. The departure for Ottawa early this morning of W. L. No one contends that Thaw has violated a single law of the Dominion, unless it be one which provides that no alien may enter Canada without special permit within five years after he has been an inmate of an asylum for the inware.

In the event that such an allen has entered by railroad, the law, it is understood, provides that he shall be transported to the capital of the last state through which he passed prior to the crossing of the frontier. But Thaw did not enter by any train. He came behind a wind-blown horse, and when captured he was nearer Vermont than any other state in the Union. All the immigration authorities have arranged to hold a hearing at Coaticock, the nearest point to the Vermont horder, whenever Thaw may fall into their hands. APOSTOLIC FOLLOWERS FAIL TO EFFECT RESURRECTION.

Coroner Interferes in Chehalis Case and Family Promises Burial of Dead Girl on Fourth Day.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—Faith and prayer had availed naught up to tonight in the case of Mabel Dempsey, whose resurrection was expected today by all the members of the Dempsey household. Coroner Newell, Sheriff Foster and County Attorney Cunningham visited the Dempsey home today. They were courteously received. The family was advised that if the promised resurrection did not occur by 7 o'clock Friday morning either they must bury their dead or the law would step in and take its course.

Mr. Dempsey, father of the dead girl, assured Coroner Newell that if his daughter did not awaken from her sleep today an undertaker would be

Share of Editors' Money Sought.

The University of Missouri also filed suit for an inheritance tax of $4500 on bequests made to editors and managers of the Pullitzer papers. The Pullitzer will set aside a certain number of shares of stock, the income of which was to be paid to the editors and managers. The university attorney contends that, under this clause, more than $88,000 was paid between February, 1912 and July, 1913, and that ultimately the editors and managers of the Pullitzer papers will receive a sum agregating $2,700,000. This estimate is based on actual tables of life insurance companies.

The suits were filed under a statute which imposes a collateral inheritance which imposes a collateral inheritance tax of 5 per cent on all legacies except those bequeathed to direct heirs of the maker of the will. Under the law the University of Missouri is beneficiary of this inheritance tax.
