BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Portland's Coast League hopes prodded Jack Ryan until he was dirry at ded Jack Ryan until he was dizzy at Recreation Park yesterday, the general impression of 2500 fans being that the Beavers won by a score of 2 to 1. Poor Jack didn't seem to have a thing except a dark tan and a solemn look. You could count the stitches on the ball from King's Heights. The Mackmen whacked out 17 lusty clouts, the hombardment making almost as much noise as Thaw's millions at Matteawan.

Wan.

Concerning the lone Los Angeles tally, drop a letter to Hi West and he'll tell you something about pitching. Hi had a stitch in his arm for three weeks, but he ripped the bastings yesterday and held the visitors up like a bety of highwaymen at work in Sullivan's Guleh.

Kores Will Be Out Week.

The physician was not for West, but for Shortstop Kores. Arthur will be out of the game for a week as a regult of a severe spike gash on his right hand. Howard slid into the Dutchman at second base early in the eighth, and his cleats tore almost half an acre of flesh cif the back of Kores nude flipper. McCormick finished at short.

But that wasn't the only accident which contributed to the odor of iodoform. Harl Maggart stretched the ligaments in his left ankle while running after one of the numerous biffs to the outlying suburbs and Art Krueger held down the center patch the last cougle of stangas. Krueger's debut explains why the Angel hit total shows seven in the box score instead of six. Bill Rodgers was wearing his Christmas clothes and when Arthur banged a drive past second base old tillicum Bill made no attempt to trap it.

But nobody objected to the vaude-ville, because we had 'em licked at that stage, 5-1. And, anyway, when outfielders run their legs off as did Dillon's crew yesterday, they deserve all the donations a charitable public can spare.

Entire Club Hitting.

Eimer Lober, as usual, manipulated ome gaudy performing. "Pop" Dillon oust get more dill every time he must get more dill every time he glimpses his castoff protege. Not sat-isfied with cracking two hits Wednes-day, the blond thatch came back yester. day with three smoking swats and finished with a gorgeous catch in left field that capped the climax. Lober's circus stunt consisted in pulling down, with one hand. Wotell's long foul drive. He crashed headlong into the grandstand in so doing, but hung tenaclously to the leather.

Chadbourne secured three hits in five trips, Derrick three in four, Redgers three in four, Lober three in four and Lindsay two in four. The boys are swiping Ty Cobb's stuff, Ryan's worst inning was the seventh, when five hits tailled four runners.

The series now stands two games for Portland, one for the Angels. Score:

Rodgers pulled off a couple of nifty maneuvers around second. In the third, he knocked down Maggart's single with one hand and seld Moore at third base.

Kaces was robbed of another hit by that pestifierous person, Pare. Littly Pagey has beaten the boys to a half dozen clouts this week by gsychologically wrapping one of the other hand around the globule.

The game started 15 minutes late, owing to the circus. Today's maninee also is scheduled for 3:30 o'clock.

Manager Dillon must have held a grouch against Kyan to leave him in under a 17-hit avainanche. This is the same Ryan who held the Beavers to one run in four or five tames to a row earlier in the year. Portland made up strong for the se-hil, ne-run heating Jack dealt them during that period of depression.
