Dence Set Almost Fatal to Champion but He Pulls Self Together and Runs Out Second and Third Sets in Easy Style.

NEWPORT, R. L. Aug. 22,-Showing a mastery of tennis technique such as he has not heretofore exhibited on the Casino courts, Maurice E. McLoughlin defeated William J. Clothier here today In straight sets at 6-3, 7-5, 6-4.

The victory by the present champion in the sixth round of the thirty-third tournament of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association eliminated one of McLoughlin's most formidable opponents and virtually assures him a place in the final and championship round next Tuesday. The McLoughlin of today showed the influence and benefit of his play on foreign courts. There was missing the dash and snap which marked his ten-nis when he first swept out of the West, the court sensation of the decade. In its place, however, there was the calmness and mastery of racquet and stroke distinctive of a champion who has gained his laurels only after years of hard play.

Youth Is Calm and Invincible.

Before the attack of Clothier he was calm and invincible, always ready with smash and pass when opportunity pre-sented itself. The same Clothier un-covered would have defeated almost any other player in the present con-

Dazzling Drives Fatal.

The Californian took the second game on dazzling drives down the side lines. Clothier won the third on McLoughlin's errors, but the champion soon made the set 4-1 by swift places. Both players ran in on their service, and Clothier, in the sixth game, proved a stonewall at the net, and in the seventh won on McLoughlin's error. McLoughlin then settled down to work, driving skilifully down the side lines and won the set 6-2. Points first set: McLoughlin ...4 6 5 4 4 5 1 5 5 39 -6 Clothier ...2 4 7 2 1 7 4 3 3 -32 -3 McLoughlin is places, 8 nets, 13 outs, 3 aces; Clothier 12 places, 4 nets, 12 outs.

Ciothier Takes Two Quickly.

The games alternated until the sixth, when Clothler won two games in succession, principally on McLoughlin's outs. The champion seemed unable to carry off his strokes and Clothler had the set almost won with the score 5-3, and 40-love on the ninth game, when McLoughlin pulled himself together. He ran off a series of his famous place shots and brought the game to deuce.

Four times Clothier was within a point of winning the set, but could not was a pitchers' battle in which honors capture the necessary stroke McLoughlin finally won the game and took the next three in rapid succession. Score:

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Quick thinking. clever base running and three hits to-day gave Philadelphia the second game of the series with Chicago 2 to 1. Buck Weaver, of Chicago, paved the way to victory for Philadelphia when he falled to pay attention to the umpires. Murphy flied out to start the eighth, Oldring singled and Eddle Collins did like-wise, sending Oldring to second. Baker flied out and Oldring took third. Collins then singled and stole second, and Weaver, taking Schalk's perfect throw, went to the ground with Collins safe on the base. Oldring remained calm
