

FARMER INSPIRED BY "HOG SPECIAL"

Good Results Follow Trip of Demonstration Train in Inland Empire.

LIVESTOCK ON INCREASE

Counties of Eastern Washington Are Raising More Corn and Cattle. Ranchers of District Turn to Diversified Farming.

In December last the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Company operated a demonstration train called the "Dairy and Hog Special" through the Touchet, Walla Walla and Yakima valleys, in Washington.

This report has just been received by Traffic Manager Miller and the figures submitted show an increase in the number of dairy cattle and hogs much in excess of expectations. In Columbia County the increase in hogs has been 50 per cent and while the number of dairy cows is not doubled, there are many additional herds. The landowners are buying thoroughbred stock. The largest dairy herd in the county is made up of Jerseys and Guernseys. The farmers in this vicinity also are planting corn in from 10 to 40-acre tracts. One farmer planted no other grain this year. Some of the corn is allowed to ripen, but more is cut for silage.

The landowners along the river all have hogs and most of them dairy cattle. At Walla Walla and Touchet there are more grain farms, but the dairy and swine-growing industries are recognized as important.

Diversified Farming Wins.

Walla Walla Valley is prospering. The report shows, and the men on the land there attribute a good share of their prosperity to the fact that they are engaging in diversified farming. One creamery is turning out 5000 pounds of butter daily. E. C. Burlingame, a prominent farmer, says that this is the greatest dairying and stock-raising country in the world. He is a believer in silage and is building a 150-ton concrete silo. Bert Coyle, who operates a dairy farm three miles west of Walla Walla, has 100 acres of green corn an acre and it cost him $1.75 a ton when in the silo.

At Touchet there are dairy cows and hogs and corn is grown without irrigation.

Attalla is a point where the work of the demonstration men is manifest. Last December there were few cows in the district. Now there are more than 200 dairy cows in the immediate vicinity. One company owns 100 Holsteins, is buying more and also is building a creamery. It will build silos. Land sowed to alfalfa here in 1912 gave a return of nine tons an acre this year. There are 300 dairy cows in the Kennewick Valley and 800 in the district. The creamery is making as high as 12,000 pounds of butter a month and distributes monthly $3500 to 110 patrons. The creamery began operation in March when there were 100 cows in the valley and its first month's churning was 848 pounds. There are 200 hogs in the valley and 300 acres are planted to corn.

Thoroughbred Stock Raised.

There are 500 dairy cows in the Grandview district. New thoroughbred stock is being shipped in by the load. There were 2000 hogs shipped from the district in the past year and more than double the number will be sent out this year.

There is a co-operative creamery at Sunnyside, which has 250 patrons. In the Sunnyside, Outlook, Mabton and Toppanish districts there are 1300 dairy cows. The acreage in corn is estimated at 300 acres. Silos are in evidence here.

There are 250 dairy cows, 2000 hogs and 1000 acres of corn in the Granger district. More dairy cattle, more hogs and beef cattle for feeding is the slogan of the land.

Zillah, formerly an exclusive fruit district, has been converted and dairying, hog growing and corn planting are meeting with favor.

North Yakima is the metropolis of the valley, and the country tributary has notable orchards, large dairy farms and large herds of swine. Here, as well as elsewhere in the valley, diversified farming has taken hold. "The O.-W. R. & N. demonstration train, its lecturers and its literature have done much to make this valley prosperous," said a leading farmer. "The railroad deserves credit, and I, for one, want to express my gratitude to the O.-W. R. & N."

Following are figures of livestock other than here mentioned from assessment made March 1 of each year:

Columbia County—	1912	1913
Yearlings	1,208	1,320
Two-year-olds	148	308
Three-year-olds and over	215	433
Sheep	63,999	23,003

The assessment of sheep is in dispute. The assessor asserts that 150,000 more should be listed.

Centralia Going to Goldendale.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The Centralia Commercial Club is planning to send a big delegation to the next meeting of the Southwest Washington Development Association at Goldendale. The local people will go in a special Pullman to the development meeting, proceeding from there to the Pendleton Roundup. About 20 have already promised to make the trip.

Tan, Red or Freckled Skin Is Easily Shed

To free your Summer-worried skin of its oiliness, muddiness, freckles, blotches or tan, the best thing to do is to free yourself of the skin itself. This is easily accomplished by the use of ordinary mercolized wax, which can be had at any drug store. Use at night as you use cold cream, washing it off in the morning. Immediately the offending surface skin begins to come off in fine powder-like particles. Gradually the entire cuticle is absorbed, without pain or inconvenience. The second layer of skin now in evidence presents a spotless whiteness and sparkling beauty obtainable in no other way I've heard of.

If the heat tends to loosen and wrinkle your skin, there's an effective and harmless remedy you can readily make at home. Just let an ounce of powdered saxolite dissolve in a half pint of water and bathe your face in the liquid. This at once tightens the skin and smooths out the lines, making you look years younger.—Emily Coulson, in Popular Monthly.—Adv.

official court showed that he defeated his opponent, Councilman John Brendell, by a majority of 688.

FORWARD HELD SUICIDE

MOCCLIPS WOMAN NOT BLAMED FOR MAN'S DEATH.

Deputy Sheriff Offers Solution for Garment Being Buttoned Over Wound.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Ernest Forward, found dead yesterday morning in the bedroom of Mrs. Susie Pemberton, at McClips, was not murdered, but died by his own hand, it is said, following an unusually severe case of melancholia, due to the effects of sunstroke several years ago in Arkansas. An investigation conducted yesterday by Prosecuting Attorney A. E. Cross, assisted by Coroner R. F. Hunter and Sheriff's officers, resulted in clearing Mrs. Pemberton from any blame. She is the victim of peculiar circumstances, declares Mr. Cross.

Forward shot himself in the chest. While Forward's vest was buttoned over the wound and showed no bullet-hole Deputy Sheriff Phillips, who called at the house a few minutes after the shooting, says he may have buttoned the vest himself after making a hasty search for other wounds.

Mrs. Pemberton said Forward told her two hours before he ended his life that he had stolen something from his brother's jewelry store. This, it has developed, was the weapon with which he was shot.

Forward was 23 years old. He has not been in good health for years. He has a wife in California and had intended to get a divorce in order that he might wed Mrs. Pemberton, whose former husband has remarried and is living in Portland.

WOMAN DYING FROM BURNS

Attempt to Kindle Fire With Oil Causes Explosion.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. A. M. Myllymaki, a Finnish woman, probably was fatally burned today while attempting to kindle a fire with kerosene. She had started a fire with green wood and poured the oil in the stove. The can exploded, scattering burning oil over her clothing. Others in the house attempted to put out the fire but she ran into the street, and the flames spread over her body.

The house, which was occupied by Capari Hill, also a Finlander, was slightly damaged.

The destruction of the gasoline fishing smack Sunshine, of Aberdeen, by fire and an explosion, off Tillamook Head, Or., Sunday, was reported by her owners and crew, who have arrived here. The three men aboard escaped in rowboats. The loss is $4500 on the Sunshine and about $100 in salmon and cod, besides the men's personal effects. The insurance is $3000. Captain Hanson was blown out of the boat as he bent over the engine. The Sunshine was in charge of Harry Halverson, Ed Hanson and H. Peterson.

Chehalis to Have New Plant.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Harrison & Popin, of this city, will at once engage in the manufacture of an automatic electric controller device, in company with George Schuirman, of Kent, Wash. A small plant will be installed on Market street. It will employ half a dozen people. The intent of the device is to control the electric current for heating and lighting purposes so that any degree of heat may be secured by setting the instrument as desired.

EMPRESS PLAYERS FIGURE IN DOUBLE REUNION.

Portland was the scene of a double reunion yesterday, the Leland, oil-paint artists at the Empress, receiving surprise visits from the Leland family.

Mrs. Leland. Portland was the scene of a double reunion yesterday, the Leland, oil-paint artists at the Empress, receiving surprise visits from the Leland family. The Leland family, including Mrs. W. T. Adams, Leland was born and raised in Ashland, Or. His father, a pioneer of Oregon, superintended the stone construction of Portland's present Postoffice. His mother, Mrs. W. C. Adams, moved to San Francisco several years ago. She arrived from the south yesterday and will accompany her son and daughter-in-law in their trip to San Francisco, where they will fill a week's engagement at the Empress, after closing here. W. T. Carroll, Mrs. Leland's father, is a prosperous rancher with holdings in the San Joaquin Valley. Mrs. Leland is his only daughter.

Republicans in Congress Pick Campaign Committee.

MEETING IS HARMONIOUS

One Representative or Senator Is Accorded Each State—Hawley Named as Oregon's Member of Committee.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Republican Senators and Representatives at a joint caucus tonight chose most of the members of the Republican Congressional committee which will begin work soon on the Congressional campaigns.

Representative, the choice of the state's delegation in the Senate and House, was accorded east state. Six Senators were among those chosen tonight. A number of states were not ready to report, and will announce selections later.

The full committee will probably meet within a fortnight and elect a chairman and other officers and perhaps consider policies.

There was no discussion of policies tonight and everything was harmonious. Senator Gallagher, of New Hampshire, and Representative Green, of Massachusetts, presided. The caucus agreed to a motion of Representative Mann, the House Republican leader, that the Congressional committee be authorized at its discretion to appoint members on the Congressional committee from those states not represented in Congress by Republicans. This would include all of the southern states, except Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia and also Indiana, Colorado and Montana.

The personnel of the Congressional committee so far as elected tonight, follows:

California, Representative Kahn; Connecticut, Senator Brandegee; Delaware, Senator Dupont; Idaho, Representative French; Illinois, Representative Madden; Iowa, Representative Woods; Maine, Representative Guerry; Maryland, Senator Jackson; Massachusetts, Representative Gardner; Michigan, Representative Camp; Missouri, Representative Bartholdt; Nebraska, Representative Kinkaid; Nevada, Representative Roberts; New Hampshire, Senator Gallinger; New Jersey, Representative Browning; New Mexico, Senator Catron; New York, Representative Fairchild; North Dakota, Representative Young; Ohio, Representative Peas; Oklahoma, Representative Mcquire; Oregon, Representative Austin; Utah, Representative Powell; Vermont, Representative
