

COMMITTEES WILL CARE FOR BUYERS

List of Merchants to Provide Entertainment for First Two Days is Named.

ACCEPTANCES COME FAST

Nathan Strauss, Head of Delegation in Charge of Excursion Week, Says Indications Now Assure Large Attendance.

Special committees to have charge of the entertainment features for each day of the buyers' excursion week, September 1 to 5, are being appointed and the list of committees is completed, practically the entire membership of the organization of jobbers and merchants, which is conducting the excursion, will be included. The executive committee will hold a meeting Friday and complete details of plans for the week.

"Replies to our invitations are coming in even better than we expected from the merchants in Portland's trade territory and there is every indication that the result will exceed in magnitude the highest expectations of the organization which launched it," said Nathan Strauss, chairman of the committee, yesterday.

"Enthusiasm among the manufacturers and jobbers in the organization is strong and all are working zealously to make the enterprise successful in every respect.

Headquarters Are Planned.

"In addition to the acceptances that are pouring in at the headquarters of the Commercial Club, manufacturers and wholesalers are making continual reports to me of messages received personally from their out-of-town customers, announcing their intention of taking advantage of the excursion week rates and refund provisions. All strongly represented in Portland next week by visiting merchants."

Mayor Albee will be asked to make the address of welcome to the visitors at the reception which will be given in their honor at the Commercial Club Monday night.

Definite arrangements have been made to establish headquarters for the week in one of the ground-floor rooms of the Commercial Club building, for the purpose of registration, information, validating tickets and other business that may be necessary in conducting the affairs of the excursion week.
