Pacific Coast League Standings

As it Is Sung in Portland. can you see by the dawn's early light the Wolves cocky pitcher. At Miswitter beat it?

the start of the ninth he was frisking in schools as scarce as a clam when you sat it. BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Curfew hour was approaching, the lowing herd had wound slowly o'er the ien and several hundred faint-hearted fans had departed for their suppers when Al Klawitter, Sacramento pitcher, walked out in front of the right field leachers yesterday and lunged out: 'How'd you like to have me back in Portland?"

"Don't want you." shricked one loyal bug in return, although his heart was faint and sore, for at the time this dialogue occurred—first half of the ninth inning—Klawitter had Portland goose-esged by a 5-0 score.

But, Walt, a Rally's Ahend.

But. Wait, a Rally's Ahead.

It looked very much as if Sacramento was destined to win the second game of the series, but just then Klawitter's wing of Harveyized steel cracked. He had the victory chalked up in his cranium, but not in his arm, or, as we say in Latin, terra firms.

Six terrific clouts the Beavers bapged out in a row. Those six biffs scored six runs—six, count 'em—and Portland came out first best in one of the most sensational and thrilling ninth-inning rallies in local history.

Rodgers and Fisher were the big stars. With Derrick on first, Rodgers thocked a home run over the right field wall, netting the first two runs—his second homer this week—and Fisher er lied the score a moment later on a two-basger with the bases full. Chadbourne drove Fisher in with the winning run.

Lober's Drive Nearly Homer.

Young's low throw to first and hits by Lindsay. Doane and Lober contributed greatly to the remarkable two-alarm display of pyrotechnics, Lobers afrive came within one foot of following Rodgers' over the right-field fence. Two men were on and another homer at that stage would have made it 5 to 5. But the fence-buster filled the hases and gave McCredie a chance to send Fisher out to do a pinch-hitting full drive over third base scored three and enough to the.

ful drive over third base scored three and enough to tie.

Lively succeeded Klawitter on the mound when Fisher strode to the plate. The strategy was unavailing, for they all looked alike at that juncture. Klawitter is charged with the defeat and Krause with the victory. Krause, too, went in as relief man to Hi West. The latter twirled only four innings, cashing in with a score of 3-0 against him.

Krause was nicked for a couple more runs in the sixth on three hits, two errors and a stolen base.

Twenty-eight hundred bugs sat on the edge of their seats all through that terrible ninth, hovering on the brink of expectation and palpitating on the precipice of despair. It must be ad-mitted, too, that there was more pal-pitating than hovering, for up to then the Beavers had not looked like chamacross the field and probably kept Lober's drive from clearing the fence.

The ninth in detail follows: Derrick safe on Young's error. Hodgers drove a home ran, seering Derrick shead of him. Lindsay singled over third. Donne beat out a tag to second and Lober filled the bases with his slam against the fence. Fisher pronged a two-bagger into left, clearing the sacks. McCormick sacrificed Fisher to third. Krause grounded out, Young to Tennant, Young making a nice play. Chadbourne singled over second, scoring Fisher.
