CAUCUS ACTS DENOUNCED

Nebraska Senator Sounds Note of Insurgency, Declaring Binding Rule Has Made Farce of Debate in Senate.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29 .- Republican attack on the tariff bill in the Senate today centered about the provision that would permit civil service laws to be disregarded in employing inspectors, deputy collectors and agents to admin-ister the new income-tax laws. The Democratic majority was charged free-ly with trying to break down the civilservice laws and open up new jobs to "political favoritism." Republican Senators of all factions inited in their efforts to have the civil service extended over to the new employes, but on the closest vote of the day they were defeated, 37 to 32, on an amendment offered by Senator Lodge. Senator Hoke Smith, who defended the bill for the Democrats, declared it was impossible under the present civil-service examinations to get men qualified to administer the income-tax law.

Bright Boys Not Wanted.

"A bright boy out of high school could pass the examination," he said, "but men of 40 or 45, equipped from business experience to do such work, probably would fail."

"Do you think the recommendation of a Congressman would be better than a civil-service examination?" demanded Senator Root.

"I think the judgment of a Congressman would be better in the selection of competent men than this examination they have been conducting," replied Senator Smith. "None of the men who fit as the men recommended by Deputy Collector of Revenue."

As it was left by the Senate, the bill authorizes the Collector of Internal $2000. Revenue and the Secretary of the
