

Commissioner of Public Safety of Washington Town Is Accused by Wife.

DENVER WOMAN IS NAMED

Five Years of Doubt and Distrus Leads Up to Alleged Proof of "Affinity" Episode - Hotel Clerk Aids Complainant.

Identification by a Portland hotel clerk of a picture of A. A. Brodeck, mmissioner of Public Safety at Evcrett, Wash, led to the issuance of felony complaint against him by District Attorney Evans yesterday, and telegraphic request was made upon the Sheriff of Snchomish County last night by Deputy Constable Hunter.

by Deputy Constable Hunter. The warrant was sent to the Sheriff because Mr. Brodeck, by virtue of his office, is in charge of the Everett police department and some difficulty over his extradition might arise if the arrest were left to his subordinates.

Doubt Covers Five Years.

Five years of doubt and distrust are assigned by Mrs Brodeck, an eiderly, aristocratic-looking woman, now in Portland, as to the cause leading up to the procuring of the complaint. Jointly with her husband she accuses Mrs. Freda Fredlund, a hair dresser, for-merly of Denver, but now said to be in Everett also.

The complainant, who is staying in Portland with a sister, and has en-gaged Attorney Frank T. Collier to assist the prosecution, save that for many years it has been the practice of her husband, 53 years of age, to boast of his attractive powers upon other women. This, she says, naturally gave rise to suspicions, but never until last June did she have more than doubt upon which to act.

Gosalp Starts Exposure.

The alleged exposure finally came through the gossiping of a small city. where, in some manner it became noised about that the Commissioner had telegraphed to Mrs. Fredund at Denver, asking her to meet him at Portland. It was several days after his departure before this rumor reached the wife, and then she set out immediately, armed with a photograph of her husband. On information that the man and woman were at the Annex hotel, she went there, but did not find them reg-istered. She showed the picture to the clerk, who said that it was that of L. Rosein, who, with a woman reg-istered as his wife, had stayed at the hotei from June 11 to June 15 of the present year.

Federal Prosecution Talked. Mrs. Brodeck first talked of instituting a Federal prosecution under the white slavery statute, but she decided that that action would be too severe.

The action taken here yesterday came on the heels and apparently in-dependently, of a suit filed in Everett the day before by F. Fredlund, hushand of the alleged co-respondent, against Brodeck, for $35,000 for the allenation of the affections of his wife. Previous to this there had been frequent bicker-ings between the Brodecks, husband and wife, who separated last May.
