

PARADE AT SALEM COVERS 4 BLOCKS

Oregon Capital Holds Biggest Labor Day Celebration at Selah Springs.

WEST IS ONE OF SPEAKERS

L. H. McMahon, P. H. D'Arcy and Governor Attend Basket Dinner Picnic Following Spectacular Demonstration in City.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Governor West, L. H. McMahon and P. H. D'Arcy were the speakers today at Selah Springs.

The parade in the city in the morning covered four blocks. It was led by the Salem military band, the fire department automobiles containing city and state officials following. The parade started at Union and Commercial streets and disbanded at Commercial and Trade streets. Every union in the city was largely represented.

A float of the plumbers' union contained joints, pipes, plugs and every device used in the business. The typographical union was well represented, its members, in two, covering about two blocks and carrying long ropes, upon which was suspended banners containing the label. Probably the best-represented organization was the carpenters' union, the members wearing their regulation uniform.

Tinners, electrical workers, teamsters, barbers, pressmen and ironworkers were in line. A special train conveyed the union men to the springs, where a basket dinner was served.

UNIONIST FEARS IMMIGRANT

Leader Says European Riffraff Is Menace to United States.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—The Labor day celebration today eclipsed those of the past. The parade was large, all the participants being afoot. Two bands and two fire and drum corps were in line. Charles Taylor, State Federation of Labor secretary, was the orator. He traced labor problems from the time the children of Israel "struck" as a result of Pharaoh's cruelties to the present day. He enumerated labor's achievements in Washington, calling attention to the eight-hour day, workmen's compensation act, women's eight-hour day, safety device laws and other immigration, he said, should receive attention now, the bars being down to the riffraff of Europe, while industries were protected by tariff.

"Until American laborers shall have protection from the murder-teaching, flag-cursing, government-hating revolutionaries, our civilization is at stake, our homes imperiled and our standards threatened," he concluded.

FAIRVIEW PROGRAMME VARIED

Many Portland Persons Go to Labor Day Celebration.

Sports of all kinds, games, fancy drills, music, refreshments and a big dance were the features of a celebration of Labor day held at Fairview, Ore., of that place and a large number of persons from Portland. The outing, which was unique in many respects, was held under the trees in the picnic park.

Portland participants in the affair left on trains over the Oregon Water Power line early in the morning and remained at Fairview until late in the evening. The day was given over to athletic contests and games in which prizes were given. In the evening a dance was held.

OLYMPIA'S PARADE LARGEST

Tono Joins Washington Capital in Labor Day Celebration.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Tono joined with Olympia in the celebration of Labor Day. The largest parade ever seen in the capital, including several floats emblematic of the industries represented by various unions, passed through crowded streets. Judge Claypool delivered an address.

In the afternoon sports were held at Athletic Park before a crowd of 2000. Olympia defeating Tono in the ball game, 5 to 3. State offices generally were closed for the day. The celebration was busy preparing for the Board of Equalization meeting tomorrow.

Parade Eliminated at Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 1.—For the first time in many years Labor day passed without a street parade, the unions deciding to save the money they would have spent for floats and uniforms and spend it in entertaining the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor here in November. A big picnic was held in one of the suburban parks, in which Acting Mayor Robert B. Hesketh, vice-president of the International Cooks and Waiters' Union, took a prominent part.

Grays Harbor Unions Celebrate.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—With fair skies, Labor day passed auspiciously in Aberdeen, where all labor organizations of Grays Harbor and the surrounding territory celebrated. Following a street parade, E. P. Marsh, president of the State Federation of Labor, made the address. In the afternoon a programme of sports and dance were held. A ball concluded the festivities tonight.

DAY SCHOOL BEGINS WORK

Large Registration Expected at Christian Association.

Educational work in the day schools of the Portland Young Men's Christian Association will be resumed today. There will be no formal opening exercises at this time, the annual educational rally being scheduled for September 22, when the night schools begin their session.

E. C. French, educational director, has returned to his desk after an extended illness. He says that the outlook for the educational work was never better than at present. There has been a large advance registration and the association is better equipped than in the past. The faculty has been strengthened since last year and considerable equipment has been added. Among other additions, the association has acquired new fittings for the electrical laboratory, making it possible to teach the course one year.

The educational work at the association has gone on throughout the summer without interruption. The large registration, however, always comes in September and this is regarded as the beginning of the association's school year. Last year the registration exceeded 1500 men and women.

the spoons as they ran caused many laughs.

Hardly less funny was the men's egg race. Any man who thinks it easy to run 25 yards with an egg in a spoon should try it. It was pretty hard on eggs, for several impatient racers kicked theirs ferociously when they rolled out of the spoons.

The fat men's race, the three-legged race, and the potato race, all furnished equal amusement. One of the real feuds, however, was the printing ability displayed by a little 10-year-old girl from Beaverton, Nellie Boland, who outran far larger girls and won second prize in the girls' 75-yard race.

Field Management Praised.

Joe Reed was in charge of the programme on the field and much of the success of the day was due to the manner in which he managed the events. A. E. Hall, of the Hod Carriers' Union, made a particularly efficient announcer.

One of the features of the parade was the showing made by the blacksmith's union. Every man was attired in a striking costume of black cap and shirt and brown smitty, with brassy arms bare to the shoulder.

Here is the complete summary of events on Multnomah Field, and their winners:

Summary of Events.

Baseball game, Bricklayers vs. Carpenters' Local, 808, Crossing Washington Street at Sixth. 3—Husky Tag-of-War Team of the Structural Ironworkers, Which Won Championship. 4—Harry Anderson, Manager of Bricklayers' Champion Baseball Team, at Bat. 5—G. dancing was enjoyed in the pavilion at the park.

The only event on the programme that did not take place was the wedding on a telegraph pole. After the first young woman, who had said she would be married in the air that way and win the $100 in cash offered as a wedding present changed her mind about it a few days ago, no one else came forward.

Members of the two unions and their friends held a dance in the Army hall last night, which was well attended.

VETERANS ENJOY PICNIC

SPANISH WAR MEN PASS DAY AT BONNEVILLE.

Shooting Matches, Racing, Dancing and Baseball Contribute to Fun—Hatchery Visited.

Had there been any Spaniards at the picnic of the Scout Young Camp, No. 2, of the Spanish-American War Veterans, held at Bonneville yesterday, they might have imagined that they were of a sudden transported back to Malabon. The biggest part of the picnic was composed of races, in which nearly 50 entered.

ESTACADA OUTING ENJOYED

Electrical Workers' Unions Spend Day in Sports and Dancing.

The Labor Day excursion and picnic conducted by members of Electrical Workers' Union, No. 125 and No. 317, at Estacada yesterday was a big success. Several hundred persons who went to the picnic grounds in the pine special cars provided by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company in the morning or came later by regular trains were well repaid by the good time they had.

There were all kinds of athletic sports and contests, and a total of 121 prizes, donated by Portland merchants, were given away to the winners. There were three or four prizes in every event. In the afternoon any training previous to the picnic.

Helen Salisbury kept up the family honor by winning the girls' race, bringing the second event of the day into that family, father having walked away with the wheelbarrow race.

Edward Mezzner won the race for boys.

Dancing was one of the attractions, and during the entire afternoon there was a good-sized crowd answering the call of Tarpisshore in the big pavilion. The fat men took further honors unto themselves when collectively they defeated the beans' at baseball by a score of 5 to 4 by a regular Beaver seventh-inning rally.

Visits to the falls and the hatchery helped to complete the day. More than 400 persons attended.

SAN FRANCISCO HAS NO PARADE

Long-Established Custom of Labor Day Is Done Away With.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1.—Organized labor departed from the custom of former years and the parade that has been the imposing event of former Labor Day celebrations was not held today. The day was observed with a programme of exercises and games at Golden Gate Park. A celebration of the same kind was held at a park near Oakland by cities around the bay.

Governor Hiram Johnson was the principal orator at the celebration at Golden Gate Park. Mayor James Rolph, Jr., and other municipal officers made addresses.

CARS CROSS BRIDGE TODAY

Broadway and Harriman Viaducts Will Both Handle Traffic.

Cars of the Broadway, St. Johns, Vancouver and Mississippi avenue lines will begin running over the Harriman bridge this morning, the Harriman bridge will be reopened to car traffic, and at the same time other routings announced by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company on both East and West sides will go into effect.

To Cure Salt Rheum and Scaly Skin

A Most Effective Treatment, Quick in Results.

Salt rheum, scaly skin and other itching skin afflictions may be soothed by frequent applications of witch hazel. But the cure must come from the activity of the fine network of blood vessels that make up the skin formation. You should use S. S. S. for the blood. This splendid remedy is a marvel for salt rheum, eczema, lupus, psoriasis and scrofula. Ask at any drug store for a bottle of S. S. S., and you are then on the road to health. The action of this remarkable remedy is direct, positive, certain in its influence. It is one of those rare medical forces which act in the blood with the same degree of certainty that is found in all natural tendencies. The manner in which it dominates and controls the mysterious transference of the rich, red, pure arterial blood for the impaired blood is marvelous. Out through every skin pore acids, germs and other blood impurities are forced in the form of invisible vapor. The lungs breathe it out, the liver is stimulated to consume a great proportion of impurities, the stomach and intestines cease to convey harmful germs into the blood; the bowels, kidneys, bladder and all excretory organs of the body are marshaled into a fighting force to expel every vestige of impurity.

Get a bottle of this famous remedy to-day, and if your case is stubborn or peculiar, write to The Swift Specific Co., 188 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

several of the members and the convention expressed a strong in favor of better and more permanent road construction.

The convention elected J. H. Maxwell, of Eugene, president; W. H. Boyd, secretary; D. P. Whitman, of Oregon City, second vice-president; Nelson E. Willis, of Yamhill, second vice-president; Archie R. Parker, Independence, National delegate; among the speakers at the luncheon were the officers of the convention, Mayor Jones, R. T. McBain, mill manager of the William-Krueger, ex-president of the association; Mr. Berhardt, of Yamhill County, and Mr. Squire, of Salem.

CHARLESTON RANCHMAN SAYS IT IS REMARKABLE

This Opinion of Well-Known Rancher About Plant Juice, Great Vegetable Remedy.

Mr. J. N. Hein, a well-known rancher of Charleston, Kitson County, Wash., who has lived in that section twenty-four years, has the following to say about Plant Juice:

"I have suffered with stomach and kidney troubles for years and have had bladder trouble ever since I came out of the Civil War; for a long time I have been compelled to wear a tube. My rest was broken frequently at night, my stomach was in bad shape and my food would not digest. Almost everything I ate would distress me, gas would form and the bloating of my stomach seemed to affect my heart. I tried everything I could bear of and tried Plant Juice as a sort of last resort. It has worked wonders in my case. I sleep now through the night with my rest unbroken. I do not have to wear the tube any more and my stomach gives me no more trouble. I consider this most remarkable and anyone who has suffered as I have suffered for years will find why I feel I cannot say too much for Plant Juice."

This great vegetable remedy has restored thousands of men, women and children who were discouraged and health and strength. It has no equal as a vitalizer and tonic, as well as a remedy for all ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It clears the blood of all poisons, cleanses the liver, tones up the stomach and soothes the nerves and heals and strengthens weak kidneys or sale at The Owl Drug Co.'s Store.

RESINOL CURED AWFUL PIMPLES

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I had been troubled for the past three years with pimples which completely covered my face and neck. The pimples would come out, fester up and cause me to pick at them, feeling very uncomfortable. I tried most all kinds of facial creams, but with no effect. I tried a sample of Resinol Soap and Ointment and noticed instant relief. I bought Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and began the treatment. After using two jars of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap there was not a pimple to be seen, and now my face is as smooth as if there was never a pimple on it." (Signed) Albert Greenburg, 4167 Frankford Ave. Oct. 27, 1912.

For eighteen years Resinol has been a favorite doctor's prescription and household remedy for itching troubles, skin eruptions, dandruff, sores, piles, etc. Stops itching instantly. All druggists sell Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. For free trial, write to Dept. 16-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Rural Postmen Go On Record as Favoring Permanent Road Construction—McMinnville Chosen Next Meeting Place.

OREGON CITY, Or., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—After electing a full list of officers and fixing McMinnville as the next meeting place, the state convention of rural letter carriers adjourned today.

For two days the association has been at work on problems that confront the carriers in the regular distribution of mail on routes through the country. They have heard discussions of the problems from some of the oldest men in the service and have listened to Paul E. Keyser, the Government's representative at the meeting, as he explained the regulations of the department to the carriers and heard their side of the service.

The Commercial Club entertained the delegates at Gladstone with a luncheon, at which Judge Dumick presided. Speeches on good roads were made by
