OROVILLE, Cal., Sept. 7 .- (Special.) -A disastrous cloudburst washed away a fortune for Niel West, one of the biggest ranchers in Lassen County, in OFFICERS IN FIELD FEARED biggest ranchers in Lassen County, in a few hours yesterday. It practically ruined a ranch valued at $40,000, destroying the orchard and carrying away three large haystacks and all buildings

Of a band of 75 horses, all were killed but two. Cattle, hogs and chickens were also drowned. All tools and farm implements were carried away and the wreck of one building was recovered at Constantia, 12 miles HIGH RATING NOT COUNTED

West was the only man on the ranch at the time. While working around the house, he heard the roar of rushing waters, climbed on the roof to discover the cause, and thereby saved his life. A few minutes later a wall of water 26 feet high swept over the lower ground, carrying everything in its path to destruction. The marconed man was compelled to hold to his precarlous refuge until 3 o'clock this morning.
