KOESTNER IN FORM

Is Going Like Whirlwind.

Williams Leads League With Only Few Points Advance Over Mc-Credie's Premier Flinger--Krapp and Hagerman Now Going.

KRAPP AND HAGERMAN ARE UN-BEATEN BY SEALS. Krapp and Hagerman have not been beaten by San Francisco this year, but of all the other Portland Coast twirlers, Higginbotham appears to be most effective. He has wen five and lost two. The figures showing how the rival flinging corps stack up for the year follow: Portland vs. San Francisco.

the Northwestern League. Speck's record to date is 11 wins and seven defeats for an average of .611.

Williams, of Sacramento, and West, of Portland, are still the leading pitchers in the Coast League. Williams had his winning streak broken last week, but his record is still good, 13 wins and six defeats. West has won 16 and lost eight.

Portland has five pitchers well over the .500 mark and Krause, a sixth, is just one game below it. Higginbotham ranks next to West and now Hagerman has passed James. Hagerman and ranks next to West and now Hagerman has passed James. Hagerman and contract the punch?

The same referee will rule.

The puzzling thing about McAllister is that as an amateur he was rated a knocker-out. As a professional he has retained speed and cleverness and proved his courage under punishment.
