

The Oregonian

Entered at Portland, Oregon, Postoffice as Second-Class Matter, October 3, 1881. Subscription rates—In Advance: (BY MAIL) Daily, Sunday included, one year $10.00...

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, SEPT. 12, 1913.

DEATH OF MAYOR GAYNOR.

The death of Mayor Gaynor, of New York, removes a man whose ability and personal qualities gave him a larger place in the eyes of the American people than is usually held...

BEATING THE STANDSTILL.

The Maine election speaks for itself. The Oregonian is rebuked by a Democratic contemporary for attempting to deceive the public as to its real attitude...

THE SCHOOLROOM DRAWL.

Some of our more thoughtful contemporaries have been lamenting in recent editorials the decay of reading aloud. It is remarked facetiously...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

which has been in cold storage in Philadelphia since 1906 and 40,000 pounds of game which has been stored since 1911. The withdrawal of that food from the market and its final destruction was not simply a wise precaution...

FIRST GET THE BRIDGE.

The Columbia River bridge project ought not at this time to be jeopardized by a controversy over the approach, or approaches, from the Oregon side. The Oregonian is indifferently...

THE JOYS OF OLD AGE.

The esteemed Ashland Tidings philosophizes with serene sagacity upon the blessedness of old age. "We're not at all convinced," it observes with tempered confidence...

BEATING THE STANDSTILL.

The Maine election speaks for itself. The Oregonian is rebuked by a Democratic contemporary for attempting to deceive the public as to its real attitude...

THE SCHOOLROOM DRAWL.

Some of our more thoughtful contemporaries have been lamenting in recent editorials the decay of reading aloud. It is remarked facetiously...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

drawal of ships from Pacific Coast west traffic to carry troops to South Africa. It is estimated that that war cost the farmers of the Pacific Northwest $4,000,000 in higher freight...

FIRST GET THE BRIDGE.

The Columbia River bridge project ought not at this time to be jeopardized by a controversy over the approach, or approaches, from the Oregon side. The Oregonian is indifferently...

THE JOYS OF OLD AGE.

The esteemed Ashland Tidings philosophizes with serene sagacity upon the blessedness of old age. "We're not at all convinced," it observes with tempered confidence...

BEATING THE STANDSTILL.

The Maine election speaks for itself. The Oregonian is rebuked by a Democratic contemporary for attempting to deceive the public as to its real attitude...

THE SCHOOLROOM DRAWL.

Some of our more thoughtful contemporaries have been lamenting in recent editorials the decay of reading aloud. It is remarked facetiously...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

of the ritual murder story Nicholas swallowed it whole and set the entire legal machinery of the empire at work to convict Bellis. In the first place, a special detective was sent to Kieff to catch up a suitable framework of the case...

FIRST GET THE BRIDGE.

The Columbia River bridge project ought not at this time to be jeopardized by a controversy over the approach, or approaches, from the Oregon side. The Oregonian is indifferently...

THE JOYS OF OLD AGE.

The esteemed Ashland Tidings philosophizes with serene sagacity upon the blessedness of old age. "We're not at all convinced," it observes with tempered confidence...

BEATING THE STANDSTILL.

The Maine election speaks for itself. The Oregonian is rebuked by a Democratic contemporary for attempting to deceive the public as to its real attitude...

THE SCHOOLROOM DRAWL.

Some of our more thoughtful contemporaries have been lamenting in recent editorials the decay of reading aloud. It is remarked facetiously...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

WAY TO SOLVE LIQUOR PROBLEM Education and Supervision With Law Enforcement is One Recommendation. CORNELIUS, OR., Sept. 10.—(To the Editor.)—With great interest I have been reading the different articles in the Oregonian regarding the traffic in liquor...

FIRST GET THE BRIDGE.

The Columbia River bridge project ought not at this time to be jeopardized by a controversy over the approach, or approaches, from the Oregon side. The Oregonian is indifferently...

THE JOYS OF OLD AGE.

The esteemed Ashland Tidings philosophizes with serene sagacity upon the blessedness of old age. "We're not at all convinced," it observes with tempered confidence...

BEATING THE STANDSTILL.

The Maine election speaks for itself. The Oregonian is rebuked by a Democratic contemporary for attempting to deceive the public as to its real attitude...

THE SCHOOLROOM DRAWL.

Some of our more thoughtful contemporaries have been lamenting in recent editorials the decay of reading aloud. It is remarked facetiously...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

MORE AS TO DUTY ON GRAIN BAGS "Fairplay" Thinks We Should Be Pleased by Relief in Part. PORTLAND, Sept. 8.—(To the Editor.)—The writer apologizes for a careless reading of the editorial on grain bags which appeared in the Oregonian...

FIRST GET THE BRIDGE.

The Columbia River bridge project ought not at this time to be jeopardized by a controversy over the approach, or approaches, from the Oregon side. The Oregonian is indifferently...

THE JOYS OF OLD AGE.

The esteemed Ashland Tidings philosophizes with serene sagacity upon the blessedness of old age. "We're not at all convinced," it observes with tempered confidence...

BEATING THE STANDSTILL.

The Maine election speaks for itself. The Oregonian is rebuked by a Democratic contemporary for attempting to deceive the public as to its real attitude...

THE SCHOOLROOM DRAWL.

Some of our more thoughtful contemporaries have been lamenting in recent editorials the decay of reading aloud. It is remarked facetiously...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

Half a Century Ago

From The Oregonian of Sept. 15, 1863. The order issued by the Secretary of War to prohibit the exportation of cattle has been rescinded so far as this Coast is concerned. Hereafter the people of this Coast can get beef from Puget Sound without resorting to smuggling or war.

The following named gentlemen have been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon: E. P. Russell, Jacksonville; J. F. Watson, Douglas County; J. J. Walton, Lane County; L. N. George, Linn County; Messrs. Bellinger, Knight & Applegate, Marion County; J. Lacy, Clackamas County; D. W. Lichtenhan, Multnomah County; J. S. Reynolds, Wasco County. The examining committee were Gov. Gibbs, W. W. Page and S. Ellsworth.

A grand Union meeting at Pioneer City, Idaho Territory, was held on Saturday, August 29, which was called to order by W. R. Keithley. H. D. Martin was called to the chair by W. R. Keithley who was chosen secretary.

In the year 1863 there were 187 stations and five jacks in the State of Oregon.

Contracts have been awarded to the following parties for furnishing supplies to the Unmilitary Indian reservation: Ladd, Reed & Co., Falling; Hatt, W. H. Mead & Co., H. W. Corbett, Baum & Bro., Alex. Dodes, J. L. Parish & Co., A. M. & L. M. Starr, Lord & Co., Henry Law, Eifel, Neil & Co. and W. P. Burnham.

Wesley's war drama has arrived in the city and will be produced at the Columbia River immediately. After returning from that trip it will be exhibited in Portland, Salem and other places in the Valley.

There is a great demand in this city and vicinity for hired female help in families. Good working girls command from $25 to $40 per month. We presume that about 50 girls could obtain permanent situations.

Twenty-five Years Ago

From The Oregonian of September 12, 1888. Indianapolis, Sept. 11.—General Harrison's letter accepting the Republican Presidential nomination was made public today.

Tacoma, Sept. 11.—A mass meeting was held in the opera-house this evening and adopted resolutions declaring Chinese hop-pickers would not be tolerated.

Ellensburg, W. T., Sept. 11.—John B. Allen, of Walla Walla, was nominated for delegate to Congress by the public territorial convention. He received 157 votes. T. J. Humes, of Seattle, received 25 votes; H. O. Dunbar, of Goldendale, 24; Judge George Turner, of Spokane, 23; and Thomas J. Brenta, of Walla Walla, 2.

A force of 14 men has commenced the work of grading E street, East Portland.

Colonel Dudley Evans, formerly of this city, has been appointed general superintendent of the central department of Wells, Fargo & Co.

Commencing today, there will be held at City View Park some of the finest trotting races ever witnessed here.

A lot of elk meat was displayed in front of a market on Morrison street yesterday, which is believed to be the first ever offered for sale here.

Girl Opposes Segregation.

PORTLAND, Sept. 10.—(To the Editor.)—I see by the Oregonian that there is talk of separating the boys and girls of the high schools. For one I oppose it, for if such should be done the lady teachers would be so cross with us girls that we could not study. If there are no boys around to make them "keep smiling," they are regular thunder clods.

A PUPIL OF HIGH SCHOOL.

Marrying a Man to Reform Him.

"Kate says she intends to marry Mr. Plunka to reform him. 'What is his vice?' 'He's a good deal of a miser.'"

Interesting Features

IN THE Magazine Section OF The Sunday Oregonian

Oregon Girls Making Hay on a Summer Day.—Not all girls are thinking of wearing X-ray gowns and other frivolities. The picture shows three who are useful to say the least.

Life With the Big Circus of Today.—Leone Cass Baer contributes a full-page story with illustrations describing her peep behind the scenes at a big show. The story is written in Miss Baer's usual diverting style.

Colonel Roosevelt draws aside the curtains of the Spanish War. His autobiography is now commencing to brush aside the preliminaries and get into the thick of things. The installment this week deals with preparations for war, and tells how he prepared Admiral Dewey for his part in the battle of Manila.

Lavish American Spenders.—How men and women born with gold and silver spoons in their mouths throw their dollars around with a prodigal hand.

Putting the Sun to Work.—Do you know that solar plants are already at work in the Nile Valley? And that the commercial demand for such plants is developing?

What Makes Men Think a Woman Beautiful?—A psychological study of men and an effort to find out what charms of women they first perceive. A hopeless task perhaps, but interesting nevertheless.

Better Schools Are Coming.—No longer will the teaching of the three R's suffice to satisfy the demands of the American people. A revolution in school methods is now under way.

Doctor for Sick Churches.—A story which tells of the newest profession.

Tips—They Come to $100,000 a Day in New York.—A study of the excesses which the tipping habit has developed in our large cities.

FIRST GET THE BRIDGE.

The Columbia River bridge project ought not at this time to be jeopardized by a controversy over the approach, or approaches, from the Oregon side. The Oregonian is indifferently...

THE JOYS OF OLD AGE.

The esteemed Ashland Tidings philosophizes with serene sagacity upon the blessedness of old age. "We're not at all convinced," it observes with tempered confidence...

BEATING THE STANDSTILL.

The Maine election speaks for itself. The Oregonian is rebuked by a Democratic contemporary for attempting to deceive the public as to its real attitude...

THE SCHOOLROOM DRAWL.

Some of our more thoughtful contemporaries have been lamenting in recent editorials the decay of reading aloud. It is remarked facetiously...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

FIRST GET THE BRIDGE.

The Columbia River bridge project ought not at this time to be jeopardized by a controversy over the approach, or approaches, from the Oregon side. The Oregonian is indifferently...

THE JOYS OF OLD AGE.

The esteemed Ashland Tidings philosophizes with serene sagacity upon the blessedness of old age. "We're not at all convinced," it observes with tempered confidence...

BEATING THE STANDSTILL.

The Maine election speaks for itself. The Oregonian is rebuked by a Democratic contemporary for attempting to deceive the public as to its real attitude...

THE SCHOOLROOM DRAWL.

Some of our more thoughtful contemporaries have been lamenting in recent editorials the decay of reading aloud. It is remarked facetiously...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

FIRST GET THE BRIDGE.

The Columbia River bridge project ought not at this time to be jeopardized by a controversy over the approach, or approaches, from the Oregon side. The Oregonian is indifferently...

THE JOYS OF OLD AGE.

The esteemed Ashland Tidings philosophizes with serene sagacity upon the blessedness of old age. "We're not at all convinced," it observes with tempered confidence...

BEATING THE STANDSTILL.

The Maine election speaks for itself. The Oregonian is rebuked by a Democratic contemporary for attempting to deceive the public as to its real attitude...

THE SCHOOLROOM DRAWL.

Some of our more thoughtful contemporaries have been lamenting in recent editorials the decay of reading aloud. It is remarked facetiously...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels which carry Pacific Coast wheat from Portland to Liverpool will pass through it, carrying 1555 miles, or more than one-third, of the distance through Magellan's Straits...

THE FARMER'S INTEREST IN SHIPS.

The Panama Canal will be open to ships in December. Probably a large proportion of the vessels