TENNESSEE MISS IS HONOR GUEST

Mrs. L. O. Ralston and Misses Ruth and Hazel Ralston Are Hostesses.

TURNBULL ROMANCE OUT

Childhood Sweetheart Days.

A smart affair of yesterday was the tea given by Mrs. L. C. Ralston and her daughters, the Misses Ruth and Hazel Ralston, in honor of Miss Charlotte Patten, of Chattanooga, Tenn Clusters of brown-eyed Susans, combined effectively with branches of brightly colored sumach, adorned the drawing-rooms and hall, and the tea table was arranged with the yellow table was arranged with the yellow blossoms and asparagus ferns.

Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. Claud Jones, Miss Gwylin Jones, assisted by Miss Ruth Johns, Miss Helen Haseltine and Miss Maud Bateham. Stationed at the punchbowl in the library were Miss Mildred Moulton and Miss Dorothy Sharp. About 70 fashionably attired guests called during the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. ing the afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Ralston was charming in a handsome gown of white silk Chinese mandsome gown of white slik Chinese crepe, claborately embroidered, embel-lished with filet lace.

Miss Patten's gown was much ad-mired it was a handsome white char-meuse with overdrape of embroidered

Miss Hazel Ralston wore a chic gown of apricot crepe brocaded with crystal bend trimming. Miss Ruth Ralston was attractive in pastel green crepe de chine, with bod-ice of silk shadow lace.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority will give a luncheon Saturday at Hotel Oregon in the banquet-room at 12:30 o'clock.

The marriage of W. H. Turnbull. son of Mr. and Mrs. James Turnbull, of Portland. and Miss Alice Southworth Mack, of Chicago, which will take place October 2, is the outcome of a romance extending since childhood.

Mr. Turnbull until recently was affillated with the Portland branch of Armour & Co., and made his home here, but now is with the main office of that company in Chicago. Miss Mack is a striking brunette, talented and accomplished. She is prominent socially in Chicago, where the marriage will take place at the home of her parents. place at the home of her parents. James Turnbull, father of the prospective bridegroom, is resident commercial agent in Portland for the Nickel-Plate Rallroad.

Members of Westminster Presbyte rian Church are to hold a reception in the church for the pastor, Rev. Henry Marcotte, and his bride tonight, to which all of their friends are invited.

Roseburg, Or., Sept. 23.—(Special.)
—A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clemens, in Edenbower, when their daughter, Miss Elsie, was married to A. W. Nelson, of Jamestown. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Paul J. Lux and was witnessed by members of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson left here tonight for Newport, where they will pass a week. They will then proceed to Canada and thence to Jamestown, where they will reside permanently. Mrs. Nelson joined her pagents here about eight months ago, having here about eight months ago, having formerly lived in North Dakota, Mr. Nelson is a mail clerk on the Northern Pacific Railroad, and makes his head-quarters at Jamestown.

Miss Thelma Park, 698 Irving street, Miss Thelma Park, 698 Irving street, celebrated her sixth birthday September 22. Those attending the party were Little Margria and Evelyn Rossiter, Vernon and Dorth Carson, Wenona Dement, Elnor and Daley Bellamy, Jean Davis, Theodore and Helen Kinney, Jean Rasch, Harold, Kenneth and Lester Robinson, Helen Holms, Thelma Park, John Davis, Helen Rosenthal, Miss Alice Dement, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. C. Bills, Mrs. V. Kolb, Mrs. L. Penne, Mrs. P. Park, Mrs. B. Ballou, Mrs. L. Sedgast, Mrs. L. Rossiter, Mrs. C. Carson, Mrs. G. Dement, Mrs. A. Robinson, Mrs. G. Rasch, Mrs. T. Kestly.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Goodman left today for their annual fishing trip and

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Goodman lett today for their annual fishing trip and will be gone about three weeks.

One of the most important events of the season in the Rogue River Vailey will be the wedding of Miss Ruth Holloway, daughter of Mrs. William Lee Holloway, to John Crouse Banks, of Portland, on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 15, at the Holloway ranch home, south of Medford. About 100 invitations have been issued. Mrs. Gerge Boone Carpenter will be matron of honor. Ribbon girls will be Mrs. A. Conro Fiero, Miss Dorothy Connor, Mrs. P. W. Hamill, Mrs. Stewart Patterson, Mrs. Stanton Griffis, Miss Marjorie Harvey, of Chicago. George B. Carpenter, of Medford, will be best man and Jack Morrill, Sprague Riegel, of Medford, and Carl Wernicke and William Lyons, of Portland, will be ushers.

Mrs. E. K. Beskman is at her cottage in Gearhart for a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Murton and family, Lucile, Clarence and Ethelwynne returned from Gearhart Park this after passing a delightful Sum-

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Phinney, of Seattle, will leave the first of next week for a two months' trip abroad. Mrs. Phinney was formerly Miss Daisy Perkins, of this city.

Complimenting her sisters, Mrs. A. J. Castendick, of Spokane, and Mrs. Arthur A. Phinney, of Seattle, Miss Jeanette Perkins was hostess at a charming luncheon Tuesday. A pretty color scheme of pink was carried out

PRIZE-WINNERS AND OTHER DAHLIAS AT SHOW WHICH CLOSED YESTERDAY.

PRIZE DAHLIAS IN VASES ATTRACTED ATT ENTION.

HANDSOME NEW VARIETIES SHOWN BY LOCAL EXHIBITORS.

bond to keep an orderly house were given, it would not insure protection to his client. Judge Cleeton replied

mune from police interferen

Constitutional Doubt Removed.

hold it constitutional.

Counsel for the defense had urged in be conducted in an orderly and lawful manner, saying to the court that the police have continued to harass Mrs. Olcese in the past and even though a Olcese Case.

MAY BE TAKEN

This client. Juage Cleaton replied that from the evidence presented in the case it was shown plainly that the house has been conducted in an unlawful manner in the past and that Mrs. Olcese would have to show good faith in her effort to improve the standard of the house before she could hope to

Defense Charges That Police Are Prejudiced, but Court Holds

In a long opinion delivered by County Judge Cleeton at the opening of court yesterday morning, the constitutionality of the abatement statute passed by the 1913 Legislature was upheld and Louise Olcese enjoined from using the premises at 85 and 87 North Second street for immoral purposes. Un-til the decree is signed Mrs. Olcese will-not be disturbed. After that the nul-sance which the court found has existed at the place must be abated or the property will be sold by the state, proceedings in all cases possible and to avoid criminal action if the desired re-sults could be obtained by the abatement proceedings. Counsel for Mrs. Olcese objected to the bond insuring that the place will

Rare Flowers Shown at Successful Exhibit.

NEW BLOOMS MAKE BOW

Beauties of Every Color, Tint and Judge Cleeton said that he had looked into the constitutionality of the statute, which had been questioned by the defendant and that he must Size Are Lauded by Visitors at Show - Growers Send Displays From Other Cities.

counset for the detense had urged in argument made last week that the testimony of the polleemen was unsatisfactory in that the officers are prejudiced against Mrs. Olcese and have been for a long time. The court held that unless the defense could show a motive that would cause the polleemen to perjure themselves in an effort to persecute Mrs. Olcese has The dahlia show, which closed last night, has gone into history as one of the greatest successes of the season. The attendance was large, the interest effort to persecute Mrs. Olcese, he would give the same credence to their testimony that he would to other witenthusiastic and the dahlias shown cago to attend the regular meeting were of rare varieties and of marvelenthusiastic and the dahlias shown ous coloring. Many new blooms made nesses. This motive, the court held, had not been shown. their bow to the public and these were the center of attraction. Mrs. Charles Mastick, whose dahlias received the highest number of awards, has a large color scheme of pink was carried out through the dining-room and living-room. Covers were laid for 12. Three tables of bridge were played during the afternoon. Mrs. Castendick will leave for her home in Spokane early in October.

Board Meeting Is Halted.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Governor West having been summoned as a witness in the preliminary hearing tomorrow of Oswald Hamsel, slayer of Judge Frank J. Taylor, of Astoria, the meeting of the Emergency fund to carry on his vice crusades, was postponed from tomorrow until Saturday.

Governor West was instrumental in having Hansel placed in the State Invance Asplum, and warned Judge Taylor that the man had a grudge against him.

SALEM Or., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Governor West having been summoned as a witness in the preliminary hearing tomorrow of Oswald Hamsel, slayer of Judge Frank J. Taylor, of Astoria, the meeting of the Emergency Board, to consider the Governor's request for an emergency fund to carry on his vice crusades, was postponed from tomorrow until Saturday.

Motions to dismiss two erriminal charges against Mrs. Olcese were filed by Deputy District Attorney's office to bring civil that the man had a grudge against him.

Mattick, whose dahlias received the babated or the property will be sold by the state, unless the cast unless the cast of bring civil states the place must be abated or the Supreme Court.

Wilson T. Hume, attorney for Mrs. Olcese, intimated in open court that the decision of Judge Cleeton will be carried to the Oregon Supreme Court.

Case Is First Prosecution.

This is the first case under the new abatement proceedings have been instituted against of the Emergency for the District Court. Abatement proceedings the method of the District Court. Abatement proceedings of the Emergency for the District Attorney's office to bring civil that the would be the policy of the District States Government to the Clear Lake Irrigation Company, from the Clear Lake Irrigation Company, from the Clear Lake Irrigation Company.

The Clear Lake Irrig

500 Economy Jars Free Today Only

At Meier & Frank's

Call at our Crockery Department today and receive, free, one ECONOMY JAR in either quart or pint size, complete with top and clamp. Distribution begins at 8:30 A. M. and will continue as long as the 500 Jars remain. Only one Jar to any one family - none given to children.

Economy Jars are sold at the following prices: "Economy" Jars-Pint Size, Dozen at 95c "Economy" Jars-Qt. Size, Dozen $1.20 "Economy" Jars-1/2 Gal. Size, Doz. $1.50 that Portland was poorly peliced and that a person could not find one policeman in ten blocks.

They should have had Artic with them. When Artic found that he was lost and that there was no policeman in sight at Sixth and Alder streets, he lifted up his voice and howled.

Straightway policemen appeared all around him. He selected Patrolman Inskeep, and was taken to the police station, where his mother, Mrs. A. W. Wood, living at East Eighth and Burnside streets, later claimed him.

"Crap-Shooters" Are Caught.

four men "shooting craps" on a quiet street corner early this morning and they registered as Henry Gambell, Jess Smith, John Lumpkin and John Savys at the City Jail.

How About Your

A Nicoll-made Fall Suit

General Satisfaction

dinary kind.

Means More-Comfort.

Style and

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Sept. 25 .-Special.)-Patrolman Leullan came on

PATH OF DETECTIVES IS BESET WITH THORNS

Two Budding Disciples Are Free to Pursue Their Own Sweet Ways, Having Parted From Their Jobs After Encounter With Police.

The path of the private detective is not all pleasantness, and this is the story of how two embryo disciples of William J. Burns severed their connection, by request, from the local branch of the detective bureau and the shadower had left at the corner of Sixth and Yamhill streets. local branch of the detective bureau that bears the name of that famous exponent of the devious art of deducexponent of the devious art of deduction.

Howard M. Winter, of 763 Broadway.
Iost his touring car. It was taken from the curb in front of the Yeon building Monday by two young men who rode up on a motorcycle. One of them, dressed as a chauffeur, cranked the car and drove off, the other, in citizen's clothes, following on the motorcycle. This much concerning the loss was related by bystanders.

Then Mr. Winter found that he was to go.

This much concerning the loss was related by bystanders.

Then Mr. Winter found that he was being shadowed. In fact, he knew that he was being shadowed before the car was taken, but he did not complain to the police until Tuesday night.

Sergeant Harms and Patrolman Sinnott went to the corner of Sixth and Yamhill streets. There they met Winter's Car is still missing. It was they were allowed to go.

And this is why William Priest and the other shadower, who said his real hame was Cooper, if they are doing any shadowing in Portland, are doing it on their own time and pay.

Winter's Car Still Missing.

Winter's car is still missing. It was they were allowed to go.

reference of Sixth and Yamhill streets. There they met Winter's Car is still Missing. Winter's car is still missing. It was a new car, but his regret at its being "lifted" is tempered by his relief at the lifting of the shadow which until late Tuesday night perched above his chamber door or dogged his footsteps. And the young man Sergeant Harms arrested as a possible motorcycle thief? He was able to convince the police that Priest had met him but a few minutes shadower's credentials. A search showed them to be a change of hat and a pocket flashlight. These things so interested the officer that he set out

IS BIG ENOUGH.

He Is Not Against Class B

Club in Portland.

J. Cal Ewing, vice-president of the San Francisco club, is "agin" any expansion of the Pacific Coast League

within the next three or four years.

Mr. Ewing arrived in Portland yesterday from Spokane and will remain here during the rest of the Beaver-Seal series. Mrs. Ewing and daughter, Miss Leila Ewing, accompany the popular Leila Ewing, accompany the popular San Francisco magnate.

"My trip to Scattle and Spokane had no connection at all with any expansion propaganda," said Mr. Ewing. "Mrs. Ewing and myself celebrated our silver wedding anniversary the other day, and we thought a nice swing around the Northwest would benefit oth of us. "So far as expanding the Coast

"So far as expanding the Coast League is concerned, I am against it. We are doing nicely now, after a long pull, and there is no sense in experi-menting until the outlook appears more favorable. Sait Lake, San Diego, Seat-tle and some of the rest of these cities may be all right, but not for us yet awhile."

Asked if he opposed granting a re-newal to the present Portland North-western League club in Portland, Mr.

western League club in Portland, Mr. Ewing said:
"I am not a director, but am generally at the meetings. Now I am not bitterly opposed to a Class B team in Portland, but it's certain that Portland is not drawing up to former years, and, if it is the B team that is cutting in, then the McCredies ought to be the first to realize it.
"While here I intend to do a little While here I intend to do a little "While here I intend to do a little investigating on my own hook, and if I find the B team is not the cause I'll certainly not oppose granting another lease to Nick Williams' crew."

M'MURRAY TO VISIT EAST

O.-W. R. & N. Official Will Attend

Meetings of Passenger Men.

William McMurray, general passenger agent of the O.-W. R. & N. Co., has gone to San Francisco, where he will make an inspection of the exposition grounds before continuing to Chicago to attend the regular meeting of the Transcontinental Passenger Association.

Following the Chicago meeting he will go to Philadelphia to attend the annual meeting of the General Passenger and Ticket Agents' Associa-

Mr. McMurray will be joined in New

Mr. McMurray will be joined in New York by Mrs. McMurray and they will meet there their son, John, who is returning from Europe after winning the swimming championship of Ireland and other countries.

AUTO DRIVER IS SOUGHT

Police Have Few Clews to Person Who Ran Down Richard Dietrich.

The police, with few clews to work on, are trying hard to catch the auto driver who, on Wednesday, left his victim, Richard Dietrich, lying in the street with a bleeding scalp wound two inches long and a face battered beyond recognition, and then sped away without offering any assistance

EWING THINKS COAST LEAGUE ARTIE'S WAILS BRING HELP Francisco Baseball Official Says

> Little Artie Wood, 3 years old, knows how to find a policeman, Several times in the last year fault

Harbor on the Linnton Road. At Nine-teenth and Northrup his motorcycle was run into by the auto coming west than you'll get from the oron Northrup.

Assertion That Policemen Are Hard to Find Disproved by Child.

finding strangers have gone on expeditions to prove to their own satisfaction

$25, $30, $35, Etc.

WILLIAM JERREMS' SONS

108 THIRD STREET

TAILOR FOR YOUNG MEN

Here's a fine luncheon-novelty

Campbell's Pea Soup served in bouillon-cups and topped with a tablespoonful of stiffly-whipped cream. The dainty green-and-white colorcombination is a delight to the eye, just as the tempting flavor is to the palate. A delicacy so inviting to look at and so gratifying to the most critical taste lends pleasing distinction to any meal. Try it at your next ladies' luncheon. Your money back if not satisfied.

21 kinds 10c a can Look for the red-and-white label Gampbella, Soups

The Old Fable— Tells Us That We'll Find Wealth and Happiness at The Rainbow-Next Week You'll Find Happiness in Plenty at

The RAINBOW WATCH SUNDAY PAPERS