

Market Has Again Started to Climb.

There were moderate arrivals of country produce this morning and generally steady prices.

CROP ESTIMATES ARE CUT

Shipments of Fancy Sumatra, Bought by Local Roaster in Europe, Will Arrive Soon on Royal Mail Liner.

The Royal Mail steamer Den of Crombie, due here from Europe early in October, brings a shipment of fancy Sumatra coffees, purchased in Amsterdam by a Portland roaster and importer.

Lack of sailing vessels, in insurable condition, in the East Indian to New York trade has made the fancy Sumatra market advance from 1 1/2 to 2 cents per pound in the past six months.

Present prices on coffee in general would seem to be as low as we will see this crop year, but there is still hope that no great advance will occur and that the market will remain about today's level.

ROP BUYING IS NOW MORE ACTIVE Growers are holding firmly at All Points on Pacific Coast.

Hop buying was more active yesterday, but no increase in price was reported.

Under tone in wheat market weak. Limited amount of club bought at 79 cents. Couse Grain Fight.

The feeling in the wheat market is still weak, but dealers find it difficult to buy in the country at lower prices.
