Clergyman Declares It Is Inconsis tent to Spend Money for Schools and Jails While Denying Reading of Scriptures.

The question as to whether or no the Bible should be read in the public schools of Portland was revived by Rev. L. K. Richardson, paster of the Kenilworth Presbyterian Church, in his sermon last night, in which he disputed the wisdom of the decision of the School Board in regard to the matter.

"The true educator has a right to demand that the Board of Education re-consider its vote and help the children to be nobler American citizens," he declared.

"I am not alone in saying that a grave mistake has been made, Some of the world's greatest educators, and not merely the sentiments of the so-called minority to which a member of the opposition referred, have fought for the resention or introduction of the the retention or introduction of the Bible in the common schools." Mr. Richardson urged the literary merits of the Bible and said that President Butler, of the Columbia University.

Ex-President Gilmore, of Johns Hopkins, and other prominent educators

Rev. C. C. Poling was the speaker. Ex-President Gilmore, of Johns Hop-kins, and other prominent educators had pleaded for the reading of the Bible publicly on these grounds. Sec-ondly, he held that the moral value of the Bible makes it advisable to have it ment of the race, and maintaining that

Through his inabil-ity to work the family has been reity to work the family has been reduced to poverty and has applied to organized charity for aid. The red tape through which the applicants are made to go disgusts the society crook, who has foresworn his evil ways. When he, however, realizes the abject need of this poor family he resolves to turn one hast trick and devote the proceeds to alleviating their needs. The coup is pulled off at a charity ball. Thereupon Marks, having resolved to reform, delivers himself over to the legal authorities to explate his crimes.
