SULZER LIKELY TO TESTIFY FOR SELF

High Court of Impeachment to Resume Trial of Governor Today.

DEALS IN STOCK RECITED

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 28 .- (Special.) -The trial of Mr. Sulzer before the High Court of Impeachment will be resumed at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and it is generally believed that the coming week's sessions may suffice for the presentation of all the prosecution's Should Mr. Sulzer persist in his purpose to take the stand in his own be half, however, the issue is not unlikely to be protracted. That he will do so is now generally conceded.

Chester Platt, the private secretary of Mr. Sulzer, has made application to the court for no less than 50 blank forms of subpenas with which to summon witnesses.

The impeachment managers have succeeded in placing in evidence contributions aggregating not only the $5460 acknowledged in Mr. Sulzer's sworn re-port to the Secretary of State, not only the additional items aggregating $8500 which were suppressed by Mr. Sulzer as alleged in the formal articles of impeachment, but, under the court's ruling permitting the widest latitude. they have already increased the latter figure to $18,200 in checks alone. A complete chain of testimony estab-lishes the fact that Frederick E. Colise to show that, in addition to this connection, there was a speculative account on margins with Harris & Fuller, brokers, and a further account for stock purchases with Fuller & Gray. It is charged that $10,000 went into the Harris & Fuller account, and to Fuller & Gray not less than $17,337.50. Of the sums expended with these firms of bankers and brokers, it is promised by counsel, there will be documentary evi-dence to show that more than $40,000 was not in the form of checks, but in
