HIGH-CLASS IMPROVEMENTS AT HALF COST.
DANDY IRRIGATED TRACT.
If you want a real home and first-class land, you can't afford to overlook this. Here is a fine, new 6-room house, plastered basement, concrete foundation, neatly painted; good well, fine oak trees in yard; just right distance from road; new barn 48x56, with hay fork and track and concrete foundation; poultry-house and other outbuildings; family orchard; 8 acres alfalfa—the kind that goes 10 tons per acre; 7 acres more in miscellaneous crops; 1 acre fine oak timber; running water in creek; main irrigation canal touches boundary line; if you ever irrigated you know what it means to have a big main ditch right where you can tap it. Soil on this tract 20 feet deep—a rich silt. Will grow anything. Here is an ideal home at a price that cannot be duplicated in California. Adjoining unimproved land worth $250 to $300 an acre. This tract, with all these fine improvements, at $280 per acre. Think of it! Water for irrigation so abundant it is running to waste this year. The water right and improvements alone are worth the price of the land. This is just the thing for a dairyman—cows on butter fat payments without any cash down. Small cash payment handles tract; easy terms on balance. Don't miss this one. Call today on
