SALEM, Or., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—The laurels of Benton County, five times winner of the contest for the best county in the State Fair, were lowered today, when Douglas County captured the prize for 1913. Benton was not disgraced, for W. K. Douglas, president of the State Horticultural Board, who was the judge, had a difficult time in determining which county deserved the honor. Long golden ears of corn artistically arranged in a canopy above the booth turned the scales in favor of Douglas after the judge had almost despaired of making a decision. The Douglas County exhibit was gathered and arranged by C. W. Cross, of Seaside. Clackamas county second was second last year, running Benton a close race for the honor, received third prize, Washington county fourth, Linn fifth, Tillamook sixth and Polk seventh.

Germany Have Big Day. This was German day at the fair, and the Germans of this and adjacent counties certainly made the most of it. There were those from the Paterland, those born in this country, but now past a half century in the States, and children of the bourse. The visitors were entertained at lunch by the local German society, and soon after all of them, wearing red and white, were joying the sport at the fair. It was the most successful second day of the association, more than 7000 people having taken advantage of the fine weather to see the great exhibition. Mr. Newell announced after making the county awards that they were made according to the program of the board. He said 15 points had been allowed for field products, 15 for grain, 15 for all orchard products, 30 for fruit, and 10 for arrangement of exhibits.

Benton's arrangement was best, continued Mr. Newell, "but Douglas' remarkable exhibit of corn turned the scale in her favor, not including the corn, the exhibits were of equal merit. Marion Exhibit Magnificent. "Marion County had a magnificent exhibit, but it was not entered in the contest. Because the fair is held here she does not compete, but every year comes forward with an exhibit that is a credit to the county. The judging of cattle, swine and sheep is nearing completion, and the lists probably will be made public tomorrow. The O.-W. R. & N. 475 trophy for the champion cow, and the champion cow was won by A. D. Dunn, of Wapato, Wash., with Imperial 356997. In the gateway cattle class L. G. Wesley, of Freeman, won the championship, with Princess, a cow of the same name, with the honor of the champion cow. The grand champion for a female was won by Delos Wesley, of Freewater, with Princess, a cow of the same name. The grand champion for a male was won by John B. Stump & Son, of Monmouth, with Nobles Dam, a bull of 43 acres.

Gresham Man Wins. W. N. Cleveland, of Gresham, won the prize for the champion Shropshire ewe, and Frank Brown, of Carlton, was awarded the honor of the champion ram. F. A. Koser, of Rickreall, captured the championship for Cotswold rams and also for ewes. R. W. Hogg, of Salem, was awarded the championship for Poland China hogs, and Thomas Brunk, of Salem, for sows. For boars bred by the exhibitor, Herbert Willard, of Dayton, was the winner, and Thomas W. Brunk, of Salem, won the championship for sows bred by the exhibitor. J. W. Fruit, of Brooks, captured the championship for Duroc Jersey boars and sows. G. M. Harvey, of Salem, won the prize for the best boar bred by the exhibitor.

The Jersey cow exhibit at the fair is one of the best I have ever seen," declared Hugh G. Vampelt, judge of them, tonight. "I have attended fairs all over the country in the capacity of judge, and I must say I have seen no better Jerseys than are here. I was here two years ago and am qualified to note the great improvement that has been made in that time. The fair compares favorably with any in the United States and is far superior to most of them. Children's Exhibits Judged. The judging in the children's industrial department, which is one of the most interesting at the fair, started today, the following being the winners in bread and butter: Bread—Class A—Avis Williams, Salem, first runner; Mildred Hazel Edwards, Turner, third; Ralph Hayre, Salem, fourth, and Cleo Gilchrist, Gold Hill, fifth. Class B—Margaret McMahon, Salem, first; Mary Bowne, Aumsville, second; Florence Eigin, Salem, third; Mildred Lynch, Talent, fourth, and Mary Lebowitz, Salem, fifth. Frances Hawley, of McCoy, won the butter contest. The eugenics department attracted large crowds today, and so popular has the department become that the management of the fair has decided to erect new and commodious build-

ALFALFA ON EVERY FARM, IS SERMON

Agricultural Missionaries, on Way to Oregon, Speak to Enthusiastic Crowds.

DIVERSIFIED PLAN URGED

Ranchers of Washington, Eager for Information, Follow Lecturers to Train-Trip Successful, Says Professor Holden.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—With a zeal nearly equal to that of the famous Whitman missionary band that, nearly 70 years ago, traversed the same country, preaching the Christian faith to the Indians, the agricultural missionary band of Professor Holden, on board a special train, brought the gospel of alfalfa and diversified farming to the farmers of the Touchet and Walla Walla valleys today. Tomorrow the train will cross into Oregon. Four main stops were made—Dayton, Wapato, Prescott and Walla Walla—with 17 separate meetings, and a total number of 2100 people hearing the sermon of "alfalfa on every farm." "This trip is the most successful I have made," said Professor Holden here tonight. "Everywhere people are showing the greatest interest and the speakers have been followed right to the train by farmers who are eager to know all about this new manner of farming and the raising of alfalfa. The farmer of the Northwest is progressive and is ever on the alert for advice that will enable him to increase his profits. I feel that the success of the trip is assured already."

YOUNG MAN MUTILATED

MYSTERY SURROUNDS ATTACK ON YOUTH NEAR MEDFORD. Thrown in Creek After Being Rendered Unconscious, Lad Crawls to His Home.

MEDFORD, Or., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—Mutilated, beaten into insensibility and thrown into a creek, Joe Croft, 19 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Croft, declared he was hunting deer with the cold water and crawled a quarter of a mile to his home, where he gave the alarm and then fainted. Deputy Sheriff Wilson, in the absence of Sheriff William Singler, started out on the case, but at a late hour tonight had made no arrests. Croft declared he was hunting deer and was standing behind a tree just drawing a bead on a buck when he heard a sound behind him, but before he could turn the blow was struck, and when he regained consciousness he was sitting upright in the creek. The young man admitted he had had trouble with a neighbor, but said he knew someone else attacked him. His purse, in which he declared there was $2, was found near a tree by the creek empty, and a club covered with blood was also found. "In the absence of the boy's body had been inflicted with a sharp knife. In spite of persistent questioning by Deputy Sheriff Wilson neither members of the boy's family nor neighbors threw any light on the attack. According to the physician attending Croft he has a fair chance of recovering. It is believed by some persons that a young woman is the cause of the attack."

Dayton was the first stop made today. From Dayton five side trips were made in automobiles to towns and farms in the district. Besides these country trips, two meetings were held at the high school. More than 500 persons heard the addresses at Dayton. Attendance at the country meetings also was large. At Wapato the band met the train and escorted the party to the club-rooms of the Wapato Chamber of Commerce. A separate meeting was held for the children at the high school building. The third demonstration of the day was at Prescott, 25 miles northeast of Walla Walla. Great interest was shown here, farmers following the speakers back to the train to get more information about raising alfalfa. Four meetings were held in Walla Walla this afternoon, at Blalock's farm, Boney School, Walla Walla High School and Whitman College. All were well attended. This evening the Holden party entertained at a banquet given by the Commercial Club. Another meeting was held at the Commercial Club rooms tonight. C. L. Smith, agriculturist of the O.-W. R. & N. Company, speaking at the meeting tonight, said: "The demonstration train and the teachings of men who are conversant with farming conditions have sounded the keynote of prosperity for the Pacific Northwest. This is diversified farming. This means alfalfa and corn, dairying and hog-raising, poultry and beef." Two side trips were made tonight, one to Dixie and the other to Touchet. Tomorrow, when the alfalfa special reaches Oregon, stops will be made at Weston, Athena, Adams and Pendleton.

BIG DEAL AIDS FRUIT CROP

More Than $1,000,000 Added to Value of Yield in Northwest.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—J. H. Robbins, general manager of the distributors, who was in the city today, said that the organization of the Northwest Fruit Distributors will mean the addition of more than $1,000,000 to the value of the fruit crop of the Northwest this season. Mr. Robbins tonight went to Milton to attend a meeting of the fruitgrowers of that section. "The policy of the organization, which is proving to be a successful one, is to keep fruit on a market where prices are increasing rather than on a market where the prices are on the decrease," he said. "Heretofore growers and shippers have done everything in their power to open the season with high prices. The Eastern buyers knew such was the policy of the growers and as a result all of the big buyers were bears on the market until the expected decrease in price started."

Suffered Twenty-One Years Finally Found Relief.

Having suffered for twenty-one years with a pain in my side, I finally have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. The physicians called it "Mother's Pain" and injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new woman. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red bean and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root and I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully yours, MRS. JOSEPH CONSTANCE, Avoyelles Par., Marksville, La. Personally appeared before me, this 15th day of July, 1911, Mrs. Joseph Constance, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact. Wm. Morrow, Notary Public.
