TENNESSEE MATRON IS LUNCHEON GUEST

Mrs. Allen S. Anderson Gives Smart Affair at Webster-Street Home.

MRS. GILL TO ENTERTAIN

Reception Will Be Tendered Mrs. Jackson Myers, of Honolulu, Wednesday Next-New York Girl Feted at Oregon City.

A smart affair of the week was the informal luncheon presided over by Mrs. Allen S. Anderson, of 172 West Webster street, in honor of Mrs. Webster street, in honor of Mrs. Reeves, from Memphis, Tenn., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Allen. A profusion of asters in shades of lavender, pink and white were arranged artistically about the rooms, and also adorned the table. Covers were laid for Mrs. Roy Armie, Mrs. Fred Allen, Miss Inches, Mrs. Inches, Mrs. Charles Wilman, Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. Harry Plymale, Mrs. Frank Purse, Mrs. L. C. Darlane. After luncheon the guests participated in a drawing contest of songs, which were afterward sung. The prize was won by Mrs. Reeves.

Mrs. John Gill has cards out for a reception to be given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Jackson Myers, of Hono-lulu, on Wednesday, October 8, at the Portland Heights Club.

Mrs. Earl Latourette was hostess at an informal dance last night at her home in Oregon City in honor of her house guest, Miss Marguerite Harding, of New York. The affair was one of the most delightful of the early season, and was attended by a large number of the younger set from Portland.

Miss Constance Piper left Wednesday for New York to resume berpiano studies under the direction of Eugeue Heffley. Miss Piper has given recitals in Portland and in the Spring of this year she gave a big recital in Carnegie Hall in New York. Owing to a bereavement in a near relative's family this summer, a recital planned for Portland was abandoned.

If you ever buy a mortgage, the first thing you'll do is to consider carefully the underlying security; then you'll take into account the names on the paper-the moral security; sometimes the man is more important than the property involved.

In the course of your life you probably invest in clothes enough money to buy a good big mortgage. Do you know anything about the underlying security in the clothes you wear? Does the name and reputation of the maker mean anything to you?

Our suits and overcoats are made to be "giltedged" security; we put our name into them as a guaranty of good faith.

If you knew how much value you would find in our suits or overcoats at $25, you'd start now to buy one.
