LEM WOON HEARS FATE

NOVEMBER 14 EXECUTION DATE SET FOR CHINESE.

Alleged Slayer of Lee Tai Hoy Protests His Innocence and in Vain Asks Court for Mercy.

Still protesting his innocence but without a change of expression and with a full realization of the effect of the words, Lem Woon, known also as Lum Suey, yesterday heard Fri-day, November 14, named as the day of his execution as penalty for the murder of Lee Tat Hoy, whom, it is charged, the Chinese killed more than six years ago. Sentence was passed by Circuit Judge Cleeton. Woon was accompanied into court by Seld Back, Jr., a Portland Chinese merchant, who acted as interpreter.

When Judge Cleeton asked Woon if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed on him he replied that he was not guilty of killing his native countryman, and had, he thought, suffered sufficiently and asked the court to show him any mercy pos-sible. Judge Cleeton replied that it was impossible for him to do anything for the prisoner; that the law had in-dicted him, tried him, found him guilty and the pronouncing of the death sen-tence and the naming of a date of exe-cution was a duty the court must perform even though it be a sorrowful

NEAL

Liquor Treatment

Is Guaranteed

No matter what your opinion or prejudice may be, the fact remains that the NEAL DRINK TREATMENT does the work thoroughly eliminating every vestige of the stored up alcoholic polson from the system in just three days, leaving the patient in the condition he was in before taking his first drink. This result is guaranteed at the end of three days or no charge.

Instead of taking a four to seven weeks course of hypodarmic injections the worst cases are entirely restored to normal condition by the NEAL THEATMENT in exactly three days. If, at the end of that time, the results are not entirely satisfactory to the patient and his friends the treatment will not cost them a penny. This guarantee of satisfaction is backed by a responsible concern with $1.000,000 capital.

The NEAL LIQUOR TREATMENT is highly endorsed by Eankers, Clergymen, Public Officials, Judges and Professional Business Men. Thousands of leading physicians in Chicago and elsewhere have investigated and are co-operating with us.
