Woodruff to Make Investigation.

The investigation will be in charge of Mark Woodruff, publicity agent for the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railly agent for the Portland and Puyallup. Wash, At the latter place, Senator W. H. Paulhamus will be interviewed, as to the methods used in organizing the co-operative association, which has brought much profit to the growers of that section. Individuals will be hunted up to find out exactly in what degree they have profited or lost by the establishment of marketing organizations, and the truth will be told concerning organizations, and the truth will be told concerning organizations, and the truth will be told concerning organizations that have failed.

At Seattle an inspection will be made of the public market and the interest the Portland public may have in the extending the murder of market and the interest the Portland public may have in the extending and rewinding; all work guaranteed and forgotten. Citrus Regien to Be Visited.

Returning to Portland the California trip will be arranged. The citrus fruit growers of California have astoniashed the world by the output they have stimulated and by their method of feeding in their product to the market. From a study of these operations it is believed that plans may be suggested which will be applicable to Oregon and the Willamette Valley.

President Strahorn believes that modern raliforais must work for the development of the soils and the prosperity of residents along the colonization of uneccupied lands, the plan of activity herein outlined being only one of many he has in mind for the future.
