CHANCE TO RULE IS GIVEN FILIPINOS

Natives Will Be in Majority on Board, Four More Being Appointed.

MEN ALL WELL-EDUCATED

Designation Marks First Step in Policy of Administration in Direction of Self-Government for Islands.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15. - President Wilson and Secretary Garrison today selected the following Filipinos to be members of the Philippine Commission: Victoriano Mapa, Jaime C. d'Veyra, Vicente Ilustre, Vicente Sigson. Mapa will be Secretary of Finance and Justice. The fifth Filipine Commissioner will be Rafael Palma, who since 1908 has been the only native on the Commission. His resignation was not accepted.

Natives Now in Majority. The designation of five natives gives majority control in the Commission of nine and marks the first step in the policy of the Wilson Administration aiming at self-government and ultimate independence for the Philippines, Governor-General Harrison recommended the native Commissioners, saying they were among the most prominent and best educated of the Islanders. The War Department made today the following sketches of the new Commissioners, whose names will go to the Senate tomorrow:

Victoriano Mapa — Born in Calivo,
Province of Capiz, Island of Panay; Province of Capiz, Island of Panay; about 59 years old; has been an attorney-at-law since 1877; has occupied the positions of register of deeds of Holio and Mayor of the City of Holio, and since 1901 has been Associate Justice of the Supreme Court in the Philippines. He visited the United States in 1904 as a member of the honorary board of commissioners to the St. Louis Exposition. In politics he is a Progressivista.

Editor Among Appointees. Jaime C. d'Veyra—Born in the Prov-ince of Leyte in 1873 and educated in Manila; is a journalist and has edited newspapers in Cebu, Leyte and Manila. He has been Governor of the Province of Leyte and a member of the Philip-pine Assembly from that province. In Politics he is a Nacionalista.

Vicente Hustre—Born in Balangas

Province; has practiced law in the City of Manila since 1904. He never has held office under the American Government. He is a Nacionalista in politics.

Vicente Sigson—Born in Vigan, in the Province of Hocos Sur, in the north of Luzon, in 1875; took his degree of bachelor of arts at Manila in 1894 and is a graduate of law of the University of Santo Tomas. He is the president of the Progressivista party and its lead-n the Assembly. Majority Party Recognized.

Rafael Palma, who continues in of-fice, was born in Manila in 1874. Durbly from the Province of Cavite. He was appointed a member of the Philip-pine Commission in 1908 and is a Nacionalista in politics.

In the appointments to the Commission three members have been selected from the Nacionalista, or majority party, and two from the Progressivista or minority party. Two have been appointed from the Visayan Islands; Manila and the neigh-boring provinces have two members, and one is from Hocano Province, in the north of Luzon.

SALEM WEDDING BRILLIANT Chester Moores, of Portland.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 15.—(Special.)— Probably the most brilliant wedding that has been solemnized in Salem for years was that tonight of Miss Lucen Moreland, youngest daughter of J. C. Moreland, Clerk of the Supreme Court, and Chester Moores, of Portland. The Moreland home on Summer street was beautifully decorated, and more than the ceremony was performed as Miss Marjorie Marvin, of this city, sang "Because." Judge Moreland gave his daughter away and the Rev. R. N. Avison, paster of the First Methodist Church of Salem, performed the ceremony. The bride was beautiful in a white charmeuse gown with lace trimming. Her bridesmaid was Miss Althea Moores, a cousin of the bridesman Moores, a cousin of the bridegroom, and the best man was Merrill Moores, a brother of the bridegroom.

A supper was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Moores went to Portland. After passing their honeymoon in California Mr. and Mrs. Moores will be at home to their friends in Portland. The bridegroom is a son of C. B. Moores, formerly in the lumber business in this tion of the Order of the Eastern Star in Chicago.
