Between Ourselves
This Store
Is a Public Servant

—It collects meritorious goods only and prices them fairly.
 —It uses the world for its field to obtain its merchandise.
 —It refuses to accept anything within its doors that will not add credit to the name that guarantees it.
 —It strives to serve the public that seek desirable goods rather than a cheap price.
 —Dependable, serviceable, worthy merchandise.
 —The Turkish families do not use finger bowls after their dinners, but they do not have sticky fingers either. The servant passes from one member of the family to another with a brass pot of perfumed water and a large brass bowl. He pours the water gently over the fingers and lets the water drip into the bowl. We have some of these novel finger bowls, in our Sixth Floor Art Department. Made of hammered brass in antique design. Complete with brass tabouret to match. On the same floor will also be found a large number of novel objects from almost every country under the sun. A visit to this floor will solve your gift-giving difficulties.

—Most young women love brilliant colors, and now it is possible to revel in bright colors without being thought crude. The brighter hued the plumage, the more in keeping with Dame Fashion's dictates. The small women and junior girls will find a feast of color in our Junior Shop that outrivals nature in her Autumn garb. The new sport coats in soft chinchillas are responsible for this, as they flaunt emerald greens, burnt orange, American Beauty, golden browns and royal blues among their numbers, as well as many two-toned shades in brilliant effects.

—Fascinating fur trimmings are being shown in the trimming department. Fur trimmings in such glossy smoothness and soft warm fluffiness that they fairly compel a caressing pat. One of the pattern experts was in from New York this morning and made the statement that more dresses were spoiled by the wrong trimming, than from any other cause. One cannot go wrong on a piece of fur this season; it adds richness to the plainest costume, and there are enough styles and prices to make it easy to find something for a plain serge frock, or your very dearest dressy-up dress.

—Bead Tunics make the most practical evening dress for the woman who cannot afford to pay the extravagant French prices for this style of gown all made up. And they are things of real beauty. Glittering sparkling beads in all colors, jets that glow like black diamonds, opalescent beads that look like shreds of captured moon beams, and scattered among the elaborate embroideries are the cunningest little French roses of maize, blue or pink chiffon. They would harmonize with any color that is your favorite, and come already made up, just ready to be stitched to a plain slip. Best of all are the prices, which range from $10.00 to $45.00.—First Floor.

—One of the most convenient articles a nurse can have is a bracelet watch. A nurse's dainty little watch with extra timing hand comes in sterling silver adjustable wristlet with sterling silver case. Imported Swiss movement guaranteed to be absolutely accurate, at the almost unbelievable price of $15.50.—First Floor

Extraordinary Transactions Yield
Rare Suit Offerings at $25.00

—The art of being well dressed is to make your individuality stand out above that of the other ninety-nine in the hundred. Women of Portland are finding this easiest accomplished in our strictly tailored models, whose effectiveness depends on up-to-the-minute lines and excellent construction.
 —These smart three-button cutaway suits are of men's wear serge, with belted back, finished with braid, buttons and blind button holes. The coat is supplied with dress shields. Side gores of the skirt are gathered into the broadened front panel, giving the extremely new peg-top effect. Colors black, navy, and brown.
 —Another model shown, a four-button cutaway style, finished with slot seams and self-covered buttons. Excellent quality men's wear serge, in brown, navy and black. Coat is Skinner satin lined and provided with dress shields. The skirt is draped to the side front with dart tucks and finished with self-covered buttons.

Clever New Coats at $16.50
That Combine Style and Economy

—Style and economy do not often get within speaking distance, but we think you will admit we have combined the two in these stunning coats. They are made of the new two-toned diagonal boucle, with deep velvet inlaid collar and wide revers. Sleeves with smart deep cuffs are set into wide armholes. Fastened with two fancy buttons at the top of a wide fold, which deepens in the back to form a panel in pointed outline, trimmed with art buttons. A model that is very unusual to find in a garment at this price. Third Floor.

The Advantages of Purchasing Your Linens
at Home Instead of Abroad

—Said one of the season's brides in the linen department recently: "These Madeira linens are as fine and cheaper than anything I found abroad." As a matter of fact, our imported linens are bought by connoisseurs of linens. Every thread of the linen and every stitch of the embroidery is closely scrutinized. And, best of all, the immense quantities we import enable us to offer you fine linens at practically the same prices you would pay in the "old country."

RANCHER ADMITS GUILT

BODY OF ANOTHER BURNED TO GET LIFE INSURANCE.

Sentence Imposed for Conspiracy and Grave Robbery—Wife to Be Tried on Bigamy Charge.

FORSYTH, Mont., Oct. 16.—Arthur P. Hughes, the Forsyth rancher arrested in New York on the charge of conspiring to rob an insurance company and also of robbing a grave, appeared in District Court here today and was sentenced to two years in the state prison. He pleaded guilty to both charges and also made a confession of burning the body of John Kirn, who was killed in a railroad accident. In his confession Hughes said he robbed the grave of Kirn the next day after the body was buried and that he took it to his ranch, where he buried it in the snow for six weeks before taking it to his home, where he set fire to the building, leaving his knife and a few other trinkets near the burned body. From his ranch home he walked to Miles City, where he bought a ticket to Chicago, afterward going to South America, and at the time of his arrest was about to start for Central Africa. Hughes exonerated his wife as to both charges. She and her husband, Thomas Elliott, to whom she was married after Hughes disappeared, are still in the County Jail at Forsyth and will be tried on a charge of bigamy.

Gold production in the Philippines increased from $189,933 in 1911 to $370,212 in 1912, and is expected to be three or four times that amount this year.

ONE HURT IN HOTEL FIRE

FIRE DESTROYS HOSTELRY AND HOME IN PRESCOTT.

Descending by Rope on Which Wife Escaped, Man Crashes Through Glass, Suffering Lacerations.

PRESCOTT, Wash., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Fire early today destroyed the Empire Hotel and the Lee Temple home. Nothing was saved from the hotel. Mr. Temple was able to remove all his household goods before the house was burned. The loss is estimated at $10,000; insurance, $5,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. The hotel was wrapped in flames when the fire was discovered by Mr. Hennessy, the proprietor. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were sleeping on the second floor and in the part of the hotel that burned first. When awakened they barely had time to escape without saving any of their effects. Mrs. Jackson was lowered safely to the ground, but when Mr. Jackson attempted to descend by the same rope, he crashed through a plate-glass window, sustaining a severed tendon in his right leg just above the heel and painful lacerations of the left leg. He was rushed to Walla Walla in an automobile and his wounds dressed at St. Mary's Hospital. He probably will recover. Other guests of the hotel escaped without injury.

BULGARIAN BRIGADIER SENTENCED.

SOFIA, Oct. 16.—Colonel Peteff, a brigade commander, was sentenced by court-martial today to four years' imprisonment for deserting his post in an engagement against the Greeks.

CLERGYMAN FILES SUIT

PARISHIONER ACCUSED OF "UNLOADING" ON PASTOR.

J. D. Bassett, of Spokane, Charged With Selling Rev. B. C. Preston Stock at Inflated Price.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Alleging that J. D. Bassett traded on the "mutual and peculiarly restorative" existing between the pastor of a church and a prominent member of the congregation, and unloaded on him 15 shares of stock at a price alleged to be three times their value, the Rev. Bryant C. Preston, pastor of Plymouth Congregational Church, today in the Superior Court brought suit for $2100 damages against the Connecticut Investment Company and Mr. Bassett, its president. The Rev. Mr. Preston says he bought 15 shares of stock in the Granger Land Company, of Granger, Wash., paying $120 a share to the investment company and Mr. Bassett for them. He says that among other false representations Mr. Bassett declared the shares worth at least $180, when, as a matter of fact they are worth only $40 each, or a total of $600 instead of $2700 as represented. He sued to collect from Mr. Bassett the difference, $2100. Mr. Bassett is a member of the City Charities Commission and was formerly State Senator. He declines to make a statement regarding the case. Bishop O'Reilly Reaches Boston. BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Bishop Charles J. O'Reilly, of the diocese of Baker, Or., who arrived here yesterday, is the first of more than 80 prelates expected to come to Boston to participate in the Roman Catholic Missionary Congress, which opens Sunday in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross. Five hundred priests and several thousand laymen will attend.

LIBRARY CONTRACT GIVEN

Caldwell Plans Approved After Lapse of 18 Months.

CALDWELL, Idaho, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—A contract was let today for the construction of a Carnegie library. The specifications call for the expenditure of $12,000, and work will be commenced at once. The matter has been in abeyance for the past year and a half, because the board of managers of the Carnegie library had refused to sanction the plans as originally drawn.
