Injured Man Is Rushed on Handcar to Stevenson, Wash., Where He Lies in Critical Condition. Officers Find Money Orders.

STEVENSON, Wash., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Axel Smith, a well-known resident of Home Valley, five miles east of here, was shot in the base of the akull by a stranger, who endeavored to rob him, between 7 and 8 o'clock last night. Early in the evening Smith was accosted by a stranger who demanded his money.

The stranger declared that Smith had The stranger declared that Smith had $700 on his person, and upon the lat-ter's refusal to give up his money, he was forced to a small lake nearby. Here, according to Smith, another demand was made for his money, and when he again refused, he was forced into the water and bound. When Smith finally attempted to reach the shore, a difficult test. difficult task on account of his bind-ings, he asserts, the stranger shot him in the back of the head and escaped.

Upon investigating the officers found little cash on Smith's person, but in his possession $541 in checks, $500 of which was in postal money orders. Under Smith's direction they found $40 under the Smith house.

HARRIMAN BALL SUCCESS Nearly Six Hundred Persons Attend Club Affair.

The Harriman Club ball at the Armory last night was one of the largest affairs given by this organization Nearly 600 persons assembled to en-joy the dance. The spacious ballroom presented a bright and attractive scene with the walls banked with palms and the ceiling studded with hundreds of electric lights. The multi-colored gowns of the fair guests gave a gay kaleidoscopic effect as the dances were southern Oregon and farmers through the Valley participated in the first participated in the had seen the dictaphone in the of-fice of Martin Welsh. Judge Wright instructed the jury on the law of conspiracy at some length.

Prosecutor Hewen in his argument, asserted that the defendant, Jackson, was a tool of the higher-ups and that the guilty persons were the city offi-cials of Raymond. His argument took several hours, Attorney Lockerby made the first address in the interest of J. W. Jackson, arguing that Jackson had acted in good faith, and the only evi-dence against him was the unsupported evidence of Mrs. Rose, who had perfured herself.

Councilman Culver was represented by Attorney O'Phelan, who explained that his client had nothing to do with the conspiracy case.

At the night session John T. Welsh, a brother of Martin Welsh, bitterly assailed the prosecution for the class of witnesses it relied on.

Assessments in Polk Less.

DALLAS, Or., Oct. 17.—(Special.)— The assessment rolls of Polk County, just completed, show a decrease over last year's rolls of over $1,000,000. This, however, is principally due to the fact that household goods this year were exempt. A material increase is shown on the assessments of improved lands and farm implements.
