Case Echo of Recent Conviction of Man for Fraud.

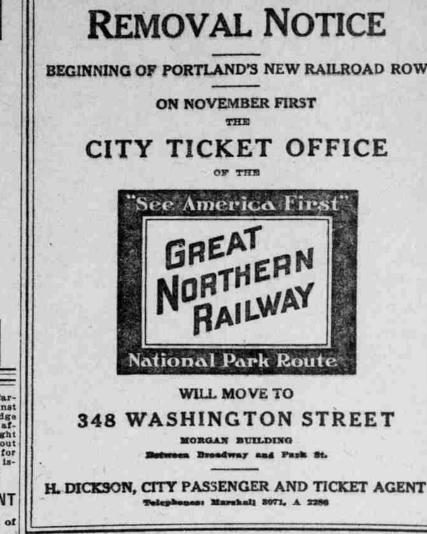

Sut was begun in Judge Davis' court yesterday by Dr. M. J. Denny and Mrs. E. R. Denny to collect $8000 alleged to be due them from O. M. Smith and T. J. Leonard for a 50-acre tract of Clackamas County land, sold to the defend-ants last year. Mr. Leonard was con-victed several weeks ago in Judge Kavanaugh's court for frauds in the same transaction on which are based the facts alleged in support of the present civil action. Dr. Denny alleges that he sold the Clackamas tract to Smith and Leonard for $15,000, the purchasers to assume a $7000 mortgage, and that the balance is still due. Leonard and Smith answere that they gave mortgages for $7000 to complete payment, but Dr. Denny dis-putes the value of the mortgages.

Penitentiary Inmate Stabbed.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—P. Edmonson, a negro, committed to the state penitentiary from Baker on a charge of burglary, was stabbed twice today by Joseph Marinos, also serving a term for burglary, having been con-victed in Douglas County. The wounds, which are in the man's left shoulder, are not serious. Superintendent Laware not serious. Superintendent Law son says the men have been bitter enemies for some time. The stabbing was in a part of the prison set apart for insane and dangerous criminals Superintendent Lawson says the weap-on was a dirk, and he believes it was manufactured by Marinos, but where the obtained the material is a mystery.
