

BOY'S MURDER LAID TO BAND OF THIEVES

"Ritual" Idea Further Discredited by Further Testimony at Kiev.

MASKED MAN TELLS SECRET

Woman Leader of Criminals Declared to Enjoy Official Protection—Murder of Persistent Probers Planned.

KIEV, Oct. 22.—The former Chief of Police of Kiev, Krasovsky, gave important testimony today at the trial of Mendel Bellis, charged with the murder of the Christian boy, Andrew Yushinsky, 12 March, 1911. He had investigated the crime and declared on the stand that he had found nothing to implicate Bellis. He repudiated the suggestion that he had made no investigation to discover evidence against Bellis.

Disguised as a workman, the police inspector had mingled with the brick-workers and listened to their talk concerning the murder, he said. He learned that the general opinion among them was that the crime had been committed by thieves who feared that if the boy was not gotten rid of he might make damaging disclosures regarding them.

The witness said Bellis had been arrested by the secret police, the head of which body at Kiev at that time was Colonel Kullabko, whose name was notorious in connection with the assassination of Premier Stolypin. He declared that Kullabko told him there was no need to make a domiciliary visit to Yushinsky's house. This testimony was taken as bearing on the report that the Techeberiak woman had been shielded by the secret police.

That great importance attached to Krasovsky's evidence was shown by efforts of counsel representing the anti-Semitic organizations to discredit his reputation. He admitted he had been proceeded against five times in his official career, dating back 20 years. Once he was reprimanded for non-observance of duty in connection with a political prisoner.

Sick Wife Visited by Police.

While Krasovsky was testifying, police visited his home and interrogated his sick wife, seeking information as to his means and mode of life. Krasovsky applied to the court for protection. The president said that the matter was outside his jurisdiction, but recommended him to apply to the government for redress.

Boy Murdered by Band.

Two nights later, said the witness, while sleeping on the outside of a bed at Vera's home, her feet touched a sack at the bottom of the bed containing an object resembling a corpse. She was frightened and woke Vera, who said: "Don't worry; it's only rags." She described subsequent visits to Vera by a mysterious masked man, as related in the indictment. She testified that he asked her to take part in the murder of the boy Yushinsky.

Active Sympathy With Militancy Declared to Exist Among American Women, and Organization Issues Warning.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(Special)—"Mrs. Emmaline Pankhurst, the world's leading advocate of riot and rebellion and destruction of property when necessary, is at least consistent. For this the American public should be grateful, because it knows she is in this country as the impersonation of the suffrage militancy which has outraged Great Britain, and realizing this, the public is in a position to disregard both her preaching and her example."

NORTH PLATTE, NEB., OCT. 22.—Registration for farms in the North Platte forest reserve and the Niobrara military reservation today exceeded 69,300, making the total for all points 62,900. Comparatively, it is the heaviest registration for Government lands in the history of such drawings, there being only about 2000 quarter sections to be drawn.

Today was marked by the registration of a large percentage of women and of old soldiers. Nearly every one of the latter brought with him the proxy of some Civil War veteran or "war widow." One woman was pushed along the line in a wheel chair.

KANSAS, MISSOURI AND COLORADO were represented by hundreds in the registration line today. One man who had stood in line in New York trying for several hours to get to the ticket window before a world's series game, was among those in the long line today. He said his experiences in both instances were much the same.

Many of those coming now are preparing to remain until after the drawing October 28. There is an utter absence of gambling games such as have characterized some past drawings.

WAGE CUT TO BE PROBED

Redfield Warns Employers Who Hide Behind Tariff.

FLINT, Mich., Oct. 22.—Notice was served on employers of labor tonight by Secretary Redfield, of the Department of Commerce, that he had not abandoned his intention under certain conditions to investigate general reductions of wages, made under the plea that the new tariff compelled retrenchment.

When it was suggested, some months ago, he said, that the inquiry powers of the department might be used to learn whether conditions in a general industry were such as to justify a reduction of wages when alleged to be made because of the tariff changes, there appeared general comments on the alleged action, which the secretary said were chiefly for their vigor in dealing with an assumed statement of facts that did not exist.

But, since she is here, it becomes our duty to express in the most emphatic terms our disapproval of her tactics and her doctrine and to point out the danger that threatens the United States because of the hysterical tendency of many suffragists to exploit her to side with her and to emulate her methods.

That there is danger of her having such an effect on the suffragists of this country is indisputable. If the suffragists here do not side with Mrs. Pankhurst and do not approve of her line of action, what is the explanation of the applause which they give her? Is it a desire to exploit for purposes of cheap advertisement a misguided and mischievous woman, or is it merely meaningless hysteria?

There is a vast amount of frank and active sympathy with militant among American women, and the coming of Mrs. Pankhurst has served merely to bring it to the surface and expose it, a danger signal to the country.

"This is why this organization issues a warning and a plea to men and women alike to refuse to endorse either Mrs. Pankhurst or her American followers."

Organized 30 years ago in East Portland, Washington Council, No. 3, Royal and Select Masters, celebrated its anniversary last night in Washington Masonic hall on East Burnside and East Eighth streets.

M. L. Myers, grand master, of Salem, spoke on the subject "The Grand Council of Oregon"; W. A. Dempsey, "Masonic Apron"; Horatio C. Parker, "Royal Arch Masonry"; Walter E. Creighton responded to this address. Music was interspersed with Shakespearean readings. Members of the Royal Arch Masons as well as Council members attended. Washington Council has 250 members. It has members scattered all over the world.

Cheney fired three. Scofield's last shot struck Cheney in the left breast. As he fell he called out, "I'm shot." Cheney fired, for the third time. This bullet struck Scofield in the face, going into the brain and killing him instantly. The men fell almost at the same instant, seven feet apart.

KRYPTOK FAR VISION Without Lines in the Lens

Why Shur-Ons and Kryptoks?

In view of the fact that so many advise SHUR-ONS and KRYPTOKS, there must be a reason for our personal recommendation of these well-known aids to vision.

Chief among these reasons is our added experience and ability in adjusting SHUR-ONS.

Their efficiency may be skinned in the hands of those not skilled in making and placing them properly before your eyes.

Making Kryptoks as they should be made is a careful, delicate and conscientious work.

All this and a vast experience make the KRYPTOKS we make for you the best obtainable in double-vision lenses.

BUDGET TRIMMED AGAIN

CITY COMMITTEE CUTS PUBLIC WORKS FUND $50,000.

Three Thousand Dollars More Is Sliced From Proposed Health Department Portion.

Taking up the proposed 1914 budget of City Commissioner Dieck for the second time yesterday, the city budget committee trimmed out another $50,000 asked for various kinds of improvements and increases in working force.

Twenty-four thousand dollars previously had been cut out of the public works department. Another $3000 was cut from the health budget also.

In the public works department out of proposed appropriations aggregating about $60,000 the committee allowed a total of $21,000 to stand, $9000 to be spent for the elimination of right-angle corners at street intersections.

Provision for total appropriations of $3200 for boiler and elevator inspection service was eliminated.

Provision for a physical laboratory for the testing of all kinds of materials used in city improvements was made by the committee granting Mr. Dieck a total appropriation of $3600.

The committee cut out a proposed expenditure of $3200 for a road roller.

In the health department budget the committee eliminated two proposed additional school inspectors at $1200 a year each, one nurse at $960 a year, created the position of city meat inspector, cut the appropriation for the printing of the health bulletin from $425 to $240 a year. It was decided to continue the free dental clinic.
