SOCIETY TO DANCE FOR CHARITY SOON

Baby Home to Get Benefit Performances of "Jappyland" in November.

Mrs. C. Holt Wilson, Who Has Long Been Friend and Supporter of Institution, Has Charge of Arrangements -- Author Directs.

A mysterious undercurrent of bustle A mysterious undercurrent of busics and excitement which has been agitating the upper strata of Portland's fashionable society for a week past is last night under the auspices of the members of the executive committee.

evonings of November 27, 28 and 29, with Saturday matinee.

From 400 to 600 society folk will sing and dance in the brilliant production, and the receipts are to go to the Baby Home.

Mrs. C. Holt Wilson, who has long been a friend and supporter of the Baby Home, is in charge of the arrangements for the "Jappyland" carnival, and among those on her advisory board are Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. A. J. Barker and W. D. Wheelwright

The singing and dancing talent of Portland's smart set will be drawn upon most liberally to meet the demands of the big extravaganza, into which are introduced all manner of specialties, with many changes of gorgeous costumes and brilliant panoramss of tumes and brilliant panorams of the case of Irene George, arrested on the evening of Monday Catcher 21, here scenic effects. Costumes and scenery are to be brought from the East and the rehearsals and production are to be under the direction of Edward H. Coates, author of "Jappyland." The opera opens with 60 Geisha maids strting in a semi-circle in a sacred cherryting in a semi-circle in a sacred cherry-blossom grove, waiting for the Emper-or, who comes to select a bride. An American yachting party happens along and interesting complications begin, the intricacies of the plot bringing in pagoda dances, "La Tosca" choruses in Louis XV costumes. Spanish love dances, parasol ballets, American beauty marches, "Happy, Jappy Maids," etc.

The song numbers and heavy orchestra music of the piece are said to be tuneful and hauntingly beautiful, of-fering splendid opportunity for the ambitions of Portland's abundant smart set talent. The cleverest dancers among the city's debutantes and young society bachelors will be selected for the leading roles and specialties, and all the various sets and circles of fashionable strata will be brought together by the advisory board in a spirit of co-operation for the hard work that must be done during the next four weeks of rehearsals and preparation. Many liberal contributions have already been accurred, including the use of the Multnomah Hotel ballroom for meetings and rehearsals, which are to be the property of the league.

For pastry there is nothing to Cottolene "creams up" beautifully, always, and every cook knows what an advantage that is. It is always plastic and blends readily with the flour or sugar. This makes Cottolene especially pleasant to use in cakes, pastry, sauces, biscuits and the like.

Have you tried Cottolene yet? If not, do at least test it for yourself. You will then understand some of its many advantages. At the same time, do not forget that food experts advocate this wholesome shortening as reliable, economical and digestible.
