THE MORNING OREGONIAN, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1913.

city, Doans having preceded the squad home. Walter is temporarily employed

Not Be Recognized.

Oregon. But, it's a pretty safe wager that Washington will not smother

The University of Washington has a biggor and more powerful eleven, and ought to have defeated the Oregon Aggies Saturday. By this same token Washington, too, should win over Whit-man, over Washington State and over udge Gatens' court. Trainer Schmieder goes to work imme-diately as trainer at the Multhomah Club, but the others are still in search Club, but the others are still in search of Winter employment. Ty Lober had intended remaining in Southern California and may not stick here long.

American

"This is my third pennant-winning berth," remarked Bill Spens. "When I was with Akron, O., in 1908, we won the pennant of the Ohio and Pennsyl-

Oregon team Saturday and went down to defeat, 27 to 0. On their return the players were met at the station by almost 100 students, whose greetings were as hearty as if the score had been the other met.

the other way around. Virtually every man who entered the Oregon game brought home evidences to do vaudeville up and down the Coast, tawa College of Ottawa.

watched it from the sidelines admit freely that the Idaho team was outclassed, although not to the extent that a 27-to-0 score would indicate. Quarterback Purdy did not enter the game until after the first half. His absence from the commander's post sent the team into the fight without the vim which it possessed in the first game of the season. Idaho boys predicted the Oregon team will give the Dobleites the hardest fight that the five-year champions will have this Year

VOLLEY BALL PROGRESSES

Y. M. C. A. Teams Not Approaching

Championship Point.

The Business Men's Volley Ball League of the Y. M. C. A. has progressed so that followers are beginning to pick the teams of championship material. There are 18 teams in the league, divided into three sections. E. J. Mun-nell leads the Tuesday Thursday and nell leads the Tuesday, Thursday and Friday teams. His lineup has scored 102,50 points. E. H. Watson's team leads the 5:30 division with a score of 77.50, and the band captained by F. S. Shaw is at present in the lead of the Monday, Wednesday and Friday play-ers with 48.75 points.

Burns Will Not Be Tried.

CALGARY, Alberta, Oct. 28 .- Tommy s, who promoted the fight last between Luther McCarty and Arthur Pelkey, will not have to face trial in connection with the death of Mc-Carty, which occurred in the prime-ring during the bout. This was announced today by Crown Prosecutor

St. Louis Nationals Sign Suggs.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28.—Announcement was made today that the St. Louis Na-tionals have signed Pitcher Suggs, of the Cincinnati Nationals.

Yokel Regains Mat Honor.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 28.-Mike Yokel, of Salt Lake City, regained the world's middle weight championship tithe pennant of the Ohio and Pennsylvania League, and in Portland I have been a member of the 1910 and 1913 in six years is pretty good fortune."

DAHO TEAM BATTLE-SCARRED
Players Predict Oregon Will Give Doble Run for Goals.
MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 28.—(Special)
—The varsity football squad returned Monday from Eugene, where Coach Griffith's eleven met the University of Oregon team Saturday and went down said Smith. "It is exceptional for him to have more than two assistants. With CINCINNATI. Oct. 28.—August Herr-mann, chairman of the National Base-Aggies trampled over Whitman less past two years. less than a fortnight at the beginning of the season to prepare for his open-ing contest he cannot devote as much time to elementals as an Eastern coach.
CONDT DOT DOT DOT DOT ID DT

mann, chairman of the National Baseball Commission, today said he could see little that is inequitable or impersent of the players and second from the demands feeently made by the players through David Fultz, president of the Players' Protective Association, and he thought the trouble complained of by the players could be adjusted without need of spychology to understand that in statement follows in part:
"Most of the players' requests really could be adjusted without need of spychology to Oregon.
"Most of the players' requests really could be adjusted without need of spychology to Oregon.
"Most of the players' requests really could be adjusted without need of spychology to the players' requests really could be adjusted without need of spychology.
"Most of the players' requests really could be adjusted without need of spychology with a 30 or 40 to 6 score against of oregon-Washington band, to Portland for the Oregon-Washington band, to Portland for the Willamette University, weakened as Dr.

BEZDEK MEN TO PLAY TWICE

Oregon Coach Kneading Squad for Final Gridiron Struggle.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON. Eugene. Oct. 28 .- (Special.) - Coach Bezdek is kneading his squad into shape for two games this week. The Oregon Agri-cultural College and Oregon second teams will play here Friday, and Saturday the varsity team will go to Salem to meet Willamette in the last preliminary before the big games of the year.

Willametto has been the strongest non-conference college in football in the Northwest, and, with the clever Dr. Sweetland as coach, this year's team is sure to be formidable. Sweetland was an interested spectator at the Ore-

Duke Schaller, the hard-hitting out-fielder of the San Francisco Seals, is to be a member of the globe-circling New York Giants and Chicago Ameri cans. Callahan has telegraphed Schaller and he will join the barnstormers in cans. Caliahan has telegraphed Schaller and he will join the barnstormers in California. Carl Morris, the Oklahoma giant, is one of those fellows who forgive and forget Morris, while stopping in Chi-cago recently, met an apparent stranger, who slapped him on the back and exclaimed: the stopping in Chi-stranger who slapped him on the back

The three first-team cripples who were on the sidelines Saturday—Par-sons, Jones and Grout—are convales-cing. Farsons ran through light sigpractice with the first team last night

HIGH SCHOOLS WILL BATTLE

Bonfire and Parade to Follow Salem

Albany Contest.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY, Salem. Or. Oct. 23.-(Special.) - The Salem High School football team will play its Arigh School football team will play its big annual game here Friday with the team from Albany High School. Much preparation has been made for this contest, and these preliminaries will be continued Thursday evening, when a parade and a big bonfire will take place. Dark material with white or gray

Coach Brink has developed what looks to be the strongest and fastest team that has represented Salem High School within the past three seasons. stripes-also checks. We have 'em-have you?

Within the past three seasons. The game will be played on the Wil-lamette University athletic field. While indications seem to point to-ward a Salem victory, a hard contest is resurred. Mile indications seem to point to-fashion's favorites—all here.

For a change-to brighten up a bit-suits in odd mixtures that are sure Harvard "Touted" as Consistent. winners.

Suits $20 to $35. Overcoats $20 to $40.

Buffum & Pendleton 311 Morrison, Opposite Post Office. CITY TICKET OFFICE of the conflict. Lockhart has a poul-ticed nose. All who participated in the game or watched it from the sidelines admit freely that the Idahe team was met may be among us a few fortnights ning, without interference-rather for-

THE

So far as McArdle is concerned, if eign to the 11-man teams of America. the theatrical folk can induce him to sing a song, the patrons will get their money's worth. But, as usually the case, Mac may want to try his hand at dan-cing or real acting.

Hallinan is a San Francisco boy and cans. Callal has been offered a juvenile turn in vaudeville, Eddle is California.

a clever thirdsacker and probably can act as well as most actors play ball. But-ball. But-Anyway, bring 'em all on. In the reflection of the 47. 0 football score at stranger, who slapped him on the back ha and exclaimed: "Hello, Carl, old sport; have a drink." "No." thanks," remarked the big ighter. "Tm not drinking." "Well, have a cigar." "Much obliged. Tim not smoking." "It that so. Well, can't you shaks swith the fellow who gave you in Jim Flynn." "Flynn? Why, I didn't know you in street clothes. How are you?" And Morris threw his arms around Flynn and hugged him in fond embrace. William C. Vallencourt, giant of, the second division of the United States busi-ness in San Francisco: Dutch Klawitter with Juwels backknitter William C. Vallencourt, giant of the second division of the United States Army, now encamped in Texas City, Tex., is looking for a trainer to groom ness in San Francisco; Dutch Klawitter him for a white hope. He stands six feet nine, weighs 284 pounds and is juggie beerkegs in Milwaukee; any Williams plans to get married Johnny Williams plans to get married in Los Angeles and will head toward Honolulu on his wedding tour; Jack Lively will heed the call of Alabama, while Harry Wolverton is filrting with a beefsteak shop in Sacramento; at present nursing a lame lamp. Bill Leard is to be traded to Sacra-Bill Leard is to be traded to Sacra-with Madden hors de roundup, Jack

With Madden hors de roundup, Jack King abould investigate.

Bill Leard is to be traded to Sacra-mento for Kenworthy, according to a rumor at Oakland. Devlin has an-nounced, at any rate, that Leard is through at Oakland. He is in bad with the crowd as a result of his crab-bing and wants to go elsewhere. Plowden Stott, manager of the Multwith the crowd as a result of his crab-bing and wants to go elsewhere. Dad Meek, the famous Victoria slug-ger, is Wintering in Portland and will be found in the bowling statistics, no doubt. Meek, Speas and Casey are all great pin-smashers. The merits of rugby and American The merits of rugby and American is assured.

SPORT POT POURRI Portland theater-goers, prepare for he worst. Jimmy Johnston, of the icals, has refused a $200-a-week offer when St. Lawrence University plays Ot-