JANE NASH'S RELATIVES SOUGHT

The detective headquarters last night received the following message from the coroner's office in San Francisco:

to pay for the better productions, but that there are enough patrons here to enable us to run these attractions the entire week. No theater could pay the price demanded for a mere three or four-day run.

"I am in receipt of a telegram from Mr. Frohman today announcing some of the extraordinary attractions underlined for the next few weeks. We are to get Henry Dixie in 'Chelsea 7760,' Laura Sawyer in 'An Hour Before Dawn,' Charles Hawtree in 'A Message from Mrs. Coelia Loftus in 'A Lady of Quality,' Mary Pickford in Belasco's original 'Good Little Devil,' 'The Sea Wolf' by Jack London, Carlotta Nilsson in 'Leah Klehmet'."

ELKS TO HAVE BIG NIGHT

Members and Band of Local Lodge Go to Oregon City. Tonight will be another big night for the Elks of Portland and of Oregon City. It will be a fairly large night also for about a dozen ambitious and intrepid young laymen who have expressed an eagerness to join the Oregon City lodge. To encourage them in their purpose the Portland Elks' band and about 300 Portland lodgemen will journey to Oregon City on special cars tonight. They will assemble at the Elks Club at 7 o'clock and march to First and Stark streets, where the cars will be waiting.

COLLEGE PICTURES ON BILL

University Quartet to Be Heard at Several Places Today. Moving pictures showing the "pledge day" exercises at the University of Oregon two weeks ago, when students of the institution pledged their allegiance to the state in accordance with a custom inaugurated two years ago by Governor West, will be shown at this week at the Arcades Theater in Washington street, near Broadway. James B. Kerr, of Portland, was the principal speaker at the exercises.

At 3 o'clock each day this week the University quartet will sing at the theater. The quartet has a busy programme in addition to its appearance at the theater, scheduled for today. At 10:30 o'clock this morning, the quartet will sing at Fortland Academy. Later it will appear before the Union Meat Company employees in the plant at Ken-
