Methodist Coach, Working Under Big Handicap, Builds Up Winners of Light Material—Salem Score Not Altogether "Fluke."

Feldom does it fall to the lot of a 128-pound athlete to play the hero role under modern football conditions...

Small's nimble footwork, nerve and keen perception together with his ability to "fall on the ball," that enabled Willamette to defeat big brother Oregon last Saturday in the memorable upset at Salem.

The score was 6-3 in Willamette's favor and Halfback Small was responsible for the win.

The 128-pound wonder, who should more properly have been decorating the kindergarten row in the grandstand...

Small is reputed to have scored one or more touchdowns in every game he has played, exactly as he did against Oregon, as a result of fumbles by the defensive backs.

At any rate, Coach Sweetland quite naturally is jubilant for the victory puts Willamette on a par with other big universities of the Northwest in a football sense.

Coach Works Under Handicap. The defeat of Oregon calls attention to the wonderful eleven that Coach Sweetland has been turning out year after year under handicaps.

Two years ago the Methodists battled against the Oregon Aggies at Corvallis in one of the fiercest games of the Fall and the Aggies won out by only the narrowest margin.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—With the construction of a new walk from the end of Lyon street to Athletic Park arrangements will be complete for the big University of Oregon-Oregon Agricultural College football game in this city next Saturday.

All of the bleachers are up and 305 feet of walk laid inside the park. This new walk inside the park will enable the spectators to reach any seat in the bleachers without walking on the ground.

There is considerable wrath felt here over the misstatements printed in a Portland paper concerning the race at Salem. There is no disposition to disparage the Willamette team, nor to detract from the credit due Coach Sweetland, who has made a wonderful showing, considering the football material which is his disposal.

It is freely admitted that a mistake was made in playing substitutes and men who had taken part in a hard fight the day before, in view of the unexpected strength which Sweetland's eleven was showing. However, the fact remains that Oregon was not at any time represented by her first lineup.

It is freely admitted that a mistake was made in playing substitutes and men who had taken part in a hard fight the day before, in view of the unexpected strength which Sweetland's eleven was showing. However, the fact remains that Oregon was not at any time represented by her first lineup.
