Burns match is off again, and this time it seems for good.

Because of his inability to obtain a definite statement from Eddis Graney, holder of the Thanksgiving boxing permit in San Francisco, as to whether he would sanction the match as the main event of his card, Jimmy Rohan, who has been serving in the capacity of matchmaker for Graney, today notified Dick Donald, manager of Anderson, that so far as he was concerned, the match was off. Donald immediately left for Medford, Or.

A dispute has arisen as to the method of counting the votes cast by outside alumni. Seventeen associations, have cast their ballots in favor of return, while nine associations have voted no. Proconference men want the individual ballots counted.

Final action on the question is in the hands of the Board of Regents, which will meet November 14. What effect the vote will have on their decision is unknown. Jim Flynn and Sam Langford. The place was also the scene of the > heavyweight battle between Tommy Burns and Marvin Hart. That brings out a story which Tommy Burns him self does not even know.

Burns did not want to fight Hart. Hart was then an extremely big-looking individual. Tommy was at the time a middleweight, growing too heavy for his class. Hart was just enough of a joke to make the pro-moters feel sure that Tommy would not have any trouble disposing of him. But when the match was suggested to Tommy, the latter went straight up in the air.

"Fight that big guy?" he snorted.
"Not on your life!" He's as big as a house!" That settled it and no argument could move him.

Burns knew nothing of this. A few days later he was at his training quar-ters when Hart strode in. "What's that fellow doing here?" he "He's come to fight you," they told

In the meantime a boy named Billy Woods was secured to act as his training partner. Billy was coached to drop to the floor and take the count whenever Burns hit him a good one. This he did to perfection, and Burns became real confident.
