Five Arrested in Rain.—Deputies from the Sheriff's office early yesterday morning raided the Oxford Hotel, 66 Sixth street, and arrested five persons. They carried 11 warrants, sworn out before District Attorney Evans, but most of the persons wanted were not in the hotel when the arrest came. several returned when the arrest came. Several returned when the expedition was in progress, but made hasty exits when they saw the situation. John Parker, who has been one of the central figures in most of the vice mixups in Portland in the last three years, was one of those arrested. Others were: Bessle Day, George Simpson, Bessle Wise and Elsie Warner. All were charged with vagrancy, under the Howell Charge Dismissed,—District Judge Jones on Saturday district Judge Jones on Saturday dismissed the charge of larteny by embezziement against Joseph Howell, exsecretary of the Labor Temple Building Association. The dismissal was made after Howell had reimbursed the complaining company and repaid the state the expense of his return from Los Angeles, where he was arrested. Howell disappeared from Portland leaving what was thought to be a shortage in his funds of $686, but accurate checking showed this amount to be about $200. The dismissal was consented to by Deputy District Attorney Deich.
