

Support the State That Supports You!

THE OREGONIAN'S HOME INDUSTRY PAGE

To Bake Good, Light Bread is simple when you realize

It isn't the Recipe, it's the Flour!

Use "Olympic" Flour

and your bread baking will become a real pleasure. In many homes "Olympic" has become a household word.

Specify "Olympic" to your grocer and save the sales-checks for prizes.

The interest shown in this Home Industry Page and the quick response to the contest have been most gratifying to its editors. Thousands of labels were received and hundreds of essays—all indicating a real and active interest in Home Industry and the spirit to "Support the State That Supports You!"

It's industries and factories form the backbone of every community. Oregon can grow only as its means of giving employment—directly dependent upon industrial activities—develop. Know the products of your own state. Try them—Buy them!

Cash Prizes for Labels from Goods Advertised

To stimulate this interest, The Oregonian has organized the Home Industry Page. The men who advertise their products here are all known to you as men of splendid integrity, men who are building up your state. The goods advertised easily stand upon their merit, but as an incentive to have you request these brands from your grocer, we are offering SIX CASH PRIZES EACH MONTH FOR THE MOST LABELS OR SALES CHECKS SECURED FROM ARTICLES ADVERTISED ON THIS PAGE. If you have not already begun to save the labels—DO IT NOW!

Labels should be brought to the Home Industry Department, Oregonian Office, not later than 6 P. M. on the last Friday of each month.

First Prize $10 in Gold Second Prize $5 in Gold
Third Prize $2 in Silver Three Prizes of $1 Each
$120 to Boys and Girls Under 16, in Oregon

For the best essays on "Why Oregon People Should Do All Their Buying From Oregon Manufacturers, Everything Else Being Equal," cash prizes of $5, $2 and three prizes of $1 each will be given every month, or $120 during the year.

Essays must not be over 200 words in length, and should be in the Home Industry Department, Oregonian Office, not later than 6 P. M. on the last Friday of each month. Mention the things made in Oregon which are used in your home, especially such articles as breakfast foods, coffee, canned goods, etc. Mention the brands by name.

Every essay must be written in the child's own handwriting, and should give the writer's full name, with name, address and telephone number of parents.

It's Different Because It's Best

Columbia BRAND Butter

The special odor-proof package keeps it sweet and clean.

Union Meat Co.

Friends for Life!

The babies who were brought up on Portland Pure Milk and Cream will be the women to use it in their own homes. They know from long experience that it's the purest and safest milk delivered in Portland.

Every step safeguarded by modern scientific methods.

Phone Main 3183 or A. 1465, and our District Manager will call and personally tell you what "Purity" milk is. Save caps for prizes.

FOR A GOOD BREAKFAST

Columbia Pure Pork BRAND Sausage

U. S. Government Inspected.

At Your Dealers.

Union Meat Company.

Just as Easy!

No need to sit up late at night to set Buckwheat Cakes for Breakfast! I use

Albers' Peacock Buckwheat Flour

It makes lighter, better and more easily digested cakes! No milk—no eggs—just mix with water and they're ready in a few minutes!

At all Grocers. Save the Labels for Prizes.

To Brush the Cobwebs From the Moon any sort of broom will do, if the handle is long enough!

But when it comes to sweeping real earth dirt from your rugs and floors, are what you want. They are made from the very best broom corn. The straws are long, strong and firm.

Zan Brooms

At All Grocers. Save the trademark from the wrappers for prizes.

Supreme Biscuit

F. F. HARADON & SON, INC.

The Daintiest Sandwiches for Tea are made from

Haradon's Supreme Biscuits

They are always crisp and flaky—made every day and packed in airtight, moistproof, dustproof cartons.

At all grocers. 5c and 10c packages. Save the labels for prizes.

Good for the Little Folks

All children want "goodies." It's natural. Give them Cakes, Sweets and Pastries made from

Diamond W Baking Powder

They're light and wholesome. The healthful baking powder is Diamond "W"—contains no harmful acid ingredients common to most baking powders.

AT ALL GROCERS. Full Pound Tin 25c. All Diamond "W" labels for prizes.

The Smile of Satisfaction that follows the first taste of chowder or soup made from

"Otter" Clams

grows broader with each spoonful. Only the tender parts of young clams dug from the famous Oregon beaches used.

At All Grocers 15c, 2 cans 25c. Save the labels for prizes.

Will Not Injure the Hands!

So many "bleaching" soaps contain ingredients which bleach the laundry but ruin the hands.

"Van Hoeter's" Bleaching Soap!

--It's White-- is made by a patented formula, and guaranteed not to harm the hands. Goes further than other soap! It bleaches without aid of the sun. Insist upon "Van Hoeter's." At all grocers.

Save the labels for prizes.

Economy at the Expense of Quality is false economy—but for superiority of quality, combined with moderation of price

"Holly" Milk

--It Whips-- is the milk for every table! It whips because it is Richest in Butter Fat!

At All Grocers, the Can, 10c. Save the labels for prizes.

As Sure as 2 + 2 = 4

Given: The best selections of high-grade Coffees.

Added: Our method of perfect blending.

Result: "Golden West" Coffee

Superior in cup quality! Steel cut—no dust—no chaff. At all grocers. Save the labels from all Closset & Devers goods for prizes.

BANKERS EXPRESS VIEW

GROUP TWO OF OREGON ASSOCIATION ADOPTS RESOLUTION.

Position on Pending Currency Bill is Forwarded to Senate Committee and Two Senators.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Commending the efforts of Congress to bring about needed currency reform, but urging modifications in the proposed bill in its present form, the bankers of group No. 2, of the State Bankers' Association, have telegraphed to Washington their views of the matter. The group is composed of the bankers of Marion, Linn, Polk, Benton and Lincoln counties.

In the convention of group No. 2, held in this city last Saturday, the currency bill was discussed thoroughly and a committee was named to embody the views of the convention in a resolution and forward it to Washington. This committee consisted of J. M. Poorman, of the Bank of Woodburn; M. S. Woodcock, of the First National Bank of Corvallis; J. H. Albert, of the Capital National Bank of Salem; Ira C. Powell, of the First National Bank of Monmouth; A. Bush, Jr., of the Ladd & Bush Bank, of Salem; Alfred C. Schmitt, of the First National Bank of Albany; C. E. Hawkins, of the Lincoln County Bank, of Toledo, and J. C. Irvine, of the First Savings Bank, of Albany.

This committee met Friday at Salem and drew up a resolution which was telegraphed to the Senate committee on banking and currency and also to Senators Chamberlain and Lane.

Dump Ground Is Costly.

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—The Willamette-Pacific Railroad Company must pay $1200 for less than an acre and a half of land along its right of way between Eugene and Coos Bay, according to the verdict of the jury in the condemnation suit against Mrs. Clara Ferguson. The defendant had set a valuation of $6000 on the tract. The railroad was compelled to acquire the land to provide a place for the dumping of earth and rock debris from a tunnel which must be built.

MAIL CLERK CONFESSES

TRUSTED EMPLOYE ADMITS HE KAS RIFLED LETTERS IN POSTOFFICE.

George W. Boyd, of Boise, Idaho, Arrested by Government Inspector and Held in Jail in Default of Bonds.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 16.—(Special.)—With his pockets packed with letters addressed to local business men and in which there was money and numerous checks, George W. Boyd, for many years a trusted employe of the Boise postoffice, and who previously had been held in high esteem, was arrested here last night by Postoffice Inspector Neal on the charge of robbing the United States mails. When "sweated" he made a full confession. He was arraigned before United States Commissioner Halveston and bound over to a preliminary hearing Monday. He was unable to furnish a cash bond of $2000 and was sent to jail.

In his confession Boyd said that for

POLICE CHIEF IS INDICTED

HEPPNER OFFICER ACCUSED OF PERMITTING GAMBLING.

Bills Returned Against Hotel Keeper and Saloon Man—Giving Liquor to Minor Is Costly.

HEPPNER, Or., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—After the indictment of Chief of Police Smith on a charge of permitting gambling in the city, and the proprietors of a hotel and saloon on charges of selling unwholesome meat and permitting gambling, respectively, the grand jury adjourned here. The cases will come up for trial at the next term of court, the Circuit Judge having just dismissed a session.

Chief of Police Smith has announced that he will not resign from office, and no attempt to remove him before the expiration of his term is likely, as a city election will be held in a few weeks.

Harry Munkers, of Lexington, en-

TROUTDALE WOMEN ASSIST ILL MAN.

TROUTDALE, Or., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—The women gave a benefit supper Saturday night at the church for the relief of Ray Powers, a tuberculosis patient at Multnomah farm, at which a substantial sum was raised to send him to Southern California. Miss Mary King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. King, of this place, was married to Charles A. Bigley, of Denver, Colo., at Vancouver last week. They have gone to San Francisco, where they will make their home.

MEN RESCUED FROM FIRE

Baker Patrolman Drags Two Drunks From Burning Building.

BAKER, Or., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Two drunken men were rescued from a burning barber shop at 3 o'clock this morning by Patrolman Brennan, who dashed into the flaming building and dragged the two men from the frail frame structure just before it became a cauldron of flames.

The building was a total loss and an adjoining dwelling, in which there were eight children and four adults, were also damaged, but the occupants were aroused by the patrolman before the fire reached there.

One of the intoxicated men who was

KALAMA DEBATERS WIN

Kelso High School Students Lose Argument on Immigration Question.

KALAMA, Wash., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—The Kalama High School debating team won a victory over the Kelso debating team at Kelso last night. The question discussed was: "Resolved, That the immigration of unskilled workmen into the United States from Southern Europe should be prohibited."

Kalama represented the affirmative side of the question. The judges were Professor Fred Stuckert, of Woodland; Principal Jones, of the Ridgefield schools, and Attorney Hall, of Vancouver.

Floyd Hoggatt, Anetta Closs and Gladys Skeels were on the Kalama team. Kelso was represented by Victor Staff, Miss Wells and Miss Juchsch.

One can't be agreeable when he is just trying to be.