NEW CLASSES AT ARLETA SCHOOL.—
Classes are to be formed in millinery and German at the Arleta school if sufficient number desire to join such classes. Mrs. J. Higgs has been secured by the Board of Education to give instructions in millinery. She will have the women who join this class bring old material and she will teach them how to freshen it up and make it look like new material.

ROBERTSON'S IMPRISONMENT DELAYED.—
Because of the pressure of naturalization proceedings which are under way in Judge Kavanaugh's court, the case of D. H. Robertson, set for yesterday morning was continued until tomorrow.

TOLESTOY TO BE MARRIED.—
A meeting to commemorate the third anniversary of the death of Count Leo Tolstoy, the eminent Russian novelist, will be held Thursday night at the Central Library. Dr. George Rebec, of the University of Oregon, will preside. The meeting will be public without charge.

TWO PRONOUNCED INSANE.—
Mrs. Elizabeth Vanhook, of 350 Madison street, who was taken to the County Jail Sunday was examined yesterday by Dr. E. D. Johnson, and pronounced insane. The 12-day-old baby which was brought to the jail with Mrs. Vanhook, was taken by Mrs. Frank Taylor, 786 East Seventy-sixth street North, who will care for it until the mother is released from another hospital.

TOBACCO SOLD BOYS IS CHARGED.—
Three complaints, charging Leslie Clement, John Evers and Fred Dees Flisberger with selling and giving tobacco to boys under the age of 18 were issued from District Attorney Evans' office yesterday. The complaints were sworn to by S. B. Sandefer and issued by Deputy District Attorney Robinson. Clement, Forney and Flisberger conduct stores in the Mount Scott district. They are charged with having furnished tobacco to Walter Strates and Harold Ellis.

CITY LEAGUE TO MEET.—
The Oregon Civic League will meet Thursday night, November 20, at 8 o'clock, room A of the Public Library, to discuss the approaching taxpayers' meeting, which will be held November 25 to fix the tax levy for school district No. 1. R. H. Thomas, clerk of the School Board, will explain the law and members of the School Board have been invited to attend and tell about the tax levy and how the money will be expended.

REED LECTURE IS TONIGHT.—
The Voice and the City of Portland, one of the Reed College extension courses, will be given at 8 o'clock this evening at the Central Library. The subject of the lecture is "The City's Money: How It is Raised and Spent." It will be given by Professor Osburn and will be illustrated by lantern slides. The same lecture will be given at the Albina Branch Library. These lectures are open to the public.

MISSIONARY CRY.—
The Young People's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Twelfth and Taylor streets, has engaged Mrs. J. Harrison, a returned missionary from South America, to give a stereoscopic lecture on that country tonight at 8 o'clock in the church. Native costumes will be worn by members of the society. The "Glory" song will be sung in Spanish. All interested are invited.

WEAVER TO JUDGE CATS.—
The Cat Show, December 11, 12 and 13, will be held in the Yamhill Sanitary Market, on the First-street side. Mrs. R. E. Weaver, a cat fancier of San Francisco, will act as judge. Mrs. Weaver is owner of Argent Brilliant, Champion Kee Kee Vita and other prize winning cats and has had a great amount of experience in judging cats.

MATHEW ESTATE TO BE PROBATED.—
Petition for the probate of the estate of John Mathew, who died November 15, was filed in County Clerk Coffey's office yesterday by Nellie Ballou. The petitioner asks that John Burgard be named as administrator. The estate is valued at $210, for board and lodging for ten and one-half months.

PAVING DISTRICT TO BE RENAMED.—
The address paving district of Hancock, East Fourteenth, East Sixteenth, East Seventeenth streets has been formed, and the work will cost $25,276. The foundation of macadam on the streets will be retained as the foundation for the hard-surface address.

DR. WILLIAMSON TO SPEAK.—
Dr. W. T. Williamson, official lecturer of the Oregon Social Hygiene Society, will speak on "Popular Fallacies." Tuesday, November 18, 12:30 to 1:15 at Pantages Theater, for men only. No admission will be charged.

YOUTH SHOOTS HIMSELF.

AFTER THREAT OF SUICIDE VERNON EMMICK FIRES SHOT.

Diet of Lurid Literature Makes 13-Year-Old Boy Think He Prefers Death to Education.

Vernon Emrick, the 13-year-old son of Warren Emrick, a carpenter living at 48 Roselawn avenue, attempted suicide yesterday morning when his mother insisted on his going to school. A continued diet of lurid literature, fostering a spirit of adventure, lured him away from his studies and he had refused to go back to his work in the seventh A grade of the Highland school. An abnormal physical condition, in the opinion of Dr. D. O. Webster, who examined him, is also partially responsible for the act.
