

HOPS AND QUARANTER

Twenty-Five Cents Paid for 200 Bales Yakimas.

OREGONS SELL AT 24 CENTS

Market Strong and Advancing With Orders Received for Eastern and Foreign Shipments - Stocks Left in First Hands.

The week opened with a decidedly stronger feeling in the hop market. Prices are fully half a cent better on all grades than at the close of last week, and show a gain over the prices of a week ago.

The most important deal of the week was closed at Yakima, when C. S. May paid Guy Grayson 25 cents for 200 bales of choice Yakimas.

The Kola Nels Hop Company bought 350 bales from T. A. Lively & Co. at 34 cents.

Louis Lachmund was offered 25 cents for a block of hops, but declined to sell. A 34-cent offer was also turned down by H. K. of St. Paul.

There were orders for choice hops in Western Washington at the same price. W. W. Perceval's 200 bales at independence was bought by Louis Lachmund at 23 cents.

The California market was active, the day's sales including the Sanford Bros. crop of 850 bales of Sonomas at 23 cents.

Hop shipments from Oregon up to November 10 amounted to 75,000 bales. Several dealers yesterday figured the stock left in growers' hands at 25,000 bales.

There was a firmer tone in the country wheat market yesterday, with sales on the basis of 50 1/2 cents.
