Democratic Senators Simply Will Not Hold Night Session on Thanksgiving Day.

LANE NOT IN CONFERENCE

Oregon Senator Says People of Oregon Do Not Like Idea-However, He Is in Sympathy With Proposed Legislation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 .- The lure of the Thanksgiving turkey tonight made the first break in the Democratic Sen-atorial programme devised to rush the Administration currency bill through that body before the holidays. After working all day on the measure with a slim attendance the conference of Senate Democrats flatly declined to hold tonight's scheduled session. The conference will meet at 10 Clock tomorrow, however, to begin another day of hurried consideration of the bill. More than one-third of the bill, as reported by Senator Owen and the five other Administration Democrats on the banking and currency com-mittee, was gone over at today's ses-sion. Several amendments of a minor nature, altering the phraseology of the bill, were adopted. Republican Amendments Left Out.

In the absence of Senator Hitchcock no one presented the amendments he and the five Republican members of committee had framed and the conthe committee has framed and the con-ference sped through section after sec-tion, indersing the Owen-Glass bill practically without change. Senator O'Gorman, who aided Senator Owen in presenting the bill to the conference, predicted that with the exception of the section fixing the number of re-gional reserve banks, the bill would be completed before tomorrow night. The number of banks has not been decided on and was passed over at the request of Georgia Senators, who feared that Atlanta might be handicapped if a regional bank were created in some other Southern city, probably New Or-Lane Stays Out of Caucus

It was understood that an attempt might be made to pass a resolution binding the Democrats in the conference to support the Administration bill. Senator Hitchcock was expected to refuse to support the conference bill. Senator Lane, of Oregon, has so far declined to go into the conference and Senator Newlands, while attending the nference, has an original plan, which he intends to press on the floor of the

The defection of three Democrats might imperil the majority in the Sen-ate, if the Republican lines hold. Senator Explains Objection.

Speaking of his refusal to attend the caucus Senator Lane said today: "Caucus legislation is not approved by the Oregon people, and I don't in-tend to be bound by caucus rule, I am not wholly satisfied with either the Hitchcock or the Owen bill, but be-lieving speedy currency legislation is lleving speedy currency legislation is essential, I will support either measure when properly amended, regardless of the source of the amendments. I am in sympathy with the proposed legislation, but believe it should be enacted in public, not in caucus."

Senator Lane will speak on the bill in the Senate, after it has been presented there for open debate.
