Largest Attendance of Week Sees Poultry Aristocracy in Smartest Attire.

PAGE TROPHY IS CAPTURED

Lovers of Fancy Birds Declare Exhibits Notable in All Breeds and Ribbons Are Presented for Winning Entries.

The show of the Oregon Poultry and Pet Stock Association got into full swing yesterday. The judging was finished, the marked catalogue was out, and visitors could take a catalogue, go along the aisles and find for themselves the winning birds and the names of their owners. The attendance was double that of any previous day.

One of the most notable exhibits will be found along White Wyandotte alley. Here was finished a long continued struggle among fanciers of this variety for the Page trophy, a massive piece of silverware, representing a greater value than any other single prize ever offered by this association.

In Barred Rock alley the competition was keen also. H. W. Krupke, who first appeared on the Barred Rock horizon as a winner last year, proved his staying qualities by coming back this year and taking the first on cock birds. M. J. Myers got a big share of the prizes. R. F. Kenney, who has been exhibiting for 15 years, came up from Eugene and took the first and third prizes on hens. Lad & Bauer, Kegley Bros. and H. J. Hamlet and J. C. Murray had prize birds. Along Rhode Island Red alley there was a hot fight for supremacy. E. F. Batten, of Hood River, came down with his trained array of Reds and carried off first, second and third cockerels; first, second, third and fifth pen in first on breeding pen and first on collection. Mrs. H. G. Kimball, from Seattle, and L. D. Elliott were on hand when the prizes were awarded. The White Plymouth Rock class has a long list of entries. Winnie Braden got the first on cock. Judge Miller Purvis took second money for cock and hen.

In White Leghorns the entries were declared exceptional. David Trout was awarded first honors. Warren Gray also took several ribbons.

Winnie Braden got the president's trophy for showing the best bird in the show, a magnificent White Rock cock, which won first last year. The Feldenheimer cup for the best parti-colored bird in the show fell to S. E. Jackson, and the oil painting offered by Mrs. J. C. Murray for the best pen in the Mediterranean class went to George W. Speight.

The officiating judges were: George W. Holden, Owatonna, Minn., and Oscar Nelson, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Ashland Plans Aquaria for Parks.
ASHLAND, Or., Dec. 2.—(Special.)—Ashland is taking steps to install aquaria to supplement park attractions. It is planned to place one at the exhibit building, a second in city park and perhaps a third in one of the business houses. They will be stocked with fish, the finest specimens of trout which Ashland sportsmen can procure. These improvements will be made upon the suggestion of Superintendent Metcalf, of the Shasta division, who has been instrumental in placing the fine one at Dunsmuir which attracts so much attention from travelers.

FOWLS OF HIGH DEGREE ARE ON DISPLAY AT THE POULTRY SHOW.

1—Pen of Barred Plymouth Rocks, M. J. Myers, of Portland. 2—Sillitown Cockerel, Owned by J. A. Hollingsworth, of Portland. 3—Muscovite Duck, One of the Oddities at the Show. 4—Trio of White Wyandottes, Owned by J. R. Hamilton, of Portland.

BERG TO HEAD CLUB

George L. Baker Will Be Vice-President of Admen.

ELECTION IS DECEMBER 10

Announcement Made That Addition of Rose Festival Directors Brings Membership to 500 and Waiting List Starts.

Charles F. Berg will be president of the Portland Ad Club in the coming year, George L. Baker first vice-president, and W. D. Whitcomb, secretary-treasurer, for these three men received the only nominations for those respective offices at the meeting of the Ad Club yesterday at the Portland Hotel. There will be contests for the office of second vice-president; and for the directorship, in which seven men are to be chosen, there is a full field.

Mr. Whitcomb, who was renominated and will have no opposition in the coming year, was the first man to be re-elected to any office. Nominating speeches were limited to two minutes and speaking speeches to one minute. A semaphore, placed on the table beside President Moore, raised the danger signal as the speaker approached the limit and the instant his time was up a roar of electric auto horns was touched off to put an end to his oratory. The nominations were made in flowery speeches by the beginning, but when the directors' names were being put up in rapid succession oratory was sacrificed for the sake of speed.

Nominees for second vice-president are: E. S. Higgins, R. W. Edwards and Harvey O'Bryan. Candidates for directorship are: H. D. Carpenter, R. W. Edwards, Frank Tebbetts, M. N. Dana, Dr. John Beaumont, G. D. Lee, A. G. Clark, George W. Kleiser, Fred Spoor, C. H. Moore, W. J. Hofmann, R. L. Stewart, E. W. Mossosohn, W. W. Campbell and E. D. Timms. Several of the former directors were renominated, but declined to run again. Fred T. Hyckell, chairman of the membership committee, announced that with the addition of the club of the entire board of directors of the Rose Festival Association, the membership had been brought up to the limit of 500 and that now for the first time in its history the Ad Club has developed a waiting list. More than 200 new names were added during Mr. Hyckell's term on the committee.

The regular election will be held at the Portland Hotel, next Wednesday. Polls will be open from 11 A. M. to 1:15 P. M. and the final result of the balloting will be announced before the luncheon adjourns.

EX-PORTLAND-CITIZEN DIES

W. H. Glover Passes Away at Sandown, Isle of Wight, England.

A letter was received by The Oregonian from W. H. Glover yesterday announcing the death of his father, Harry Beckey Glover, at Sandown, on the Isle of Wight, England, on October 23, Mr. Glover was 82 years old.

Mr. Glover was born in England and came to America when he was young and worked as a saddler in Philadelphia. Later he joined the United States cavalry as a saddler during the Indian uprisings. Buffalo Bill was scout for the regiment and a warm friendship sprang up between the two. Later Mr. Glover became a jewelry salesman in California.

SHOW CATTLE COME

Two Phoenix, Ariz., Herds Portland Contestants.

COMPETITION TO BE KEEN

Breeders of Guernseys and Ayrshires of Washington and Oregon Enter Prize Stock—Nevada Professor to Attend.

Two carloads of cattle arrived at the Portland Union Stockyards yesterday from Phoenix, Ariz., for exhibition at the Pacific International Livestock show next week. One car contained a herd of Guernseys and the other a herd of Ayrshires.

F. R. Sanders, one of the most successful and best-known stockmen of the Southwest, is the exhibitor. He will come to Portland within a few days and take charge of his herds. The Arizona entries will have keen competition in either class. J. W. Clise, of Seattle, whose stock farm is considered a model in that part of the country, has entered a herd of Ayrshires. A. P. Stockwell, of Aberdeen, Wash.; W. Davies, of McCoy, Or., and A. G. Dawes, of McCoy, Or., have herds entered in the same class.

E. L. Thompson has entered a herd of Guernseys from his "Deer" Island farm. The University of California, the Hughes brothers, of Oregon City, and A. L. Gill, of Chinook, Wash., also are competing for Guernsey honors with a full herd each.

The Arizona entries are excellent specimens, however, and judges of good cattle at the stockyards yesterday were of the opinion that the herd that beats those from Arizona will come near winning the championship in its class. Samuel B. Deten, director of animal husbandry at the University of Nevada, notified O. M. Plummer, general manager of the show, yesterday that he will arrive in Portland Monday. It is probable that a number of students will accompany him to compete in the students' judging contests.

The railroads have made liberal concessions to the exhibitors. While the full freight rate will be charged on all stock coming to the show, no charge will be made on the return trip. The passenger fare will be one and a third fare for the round trip from all points on the Pacific Coast and Northwest generally.

More than 1500 employees of the O. W. R. & N. Company, the Southern Pacific and the Portland, Eugene & Eastern, with members of their families will attend the show in a body next Wednesday afternoon, which has been designated "Railroad day." A parade through the principal business streets will precede departure for the show grounds from the Union Depot. Many forms of novel entertainment will be provided to attract public attention to the show.

Although more than $15,000 will be distributed in cash prizes, no admission will be charged and no entry fee or yardage will be collected. Stock that is sold on the grounds will be charged the usual yardage, however.

"St. Jacobs Oil" is harmless and doesn't burn the skin. It's the only application to rub on a weak, lame or painful back, or for lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, sprains or a strain.—Adv.

Lebanon to Sell Bonds.

LEBANON, Or., Dec. 2.—(Special.)—The City Council of Lebanon last night directed the Recorder to advertise for the sale of improvement bonds amounting to nearly $20,000 to cover the amount of the recently completed paving of the business part of the city under the Hancock bonding act. The bids will be received and opened at the next meeting of the Council, held December 17. About 75 per cent of the owners of the property abutting on the improvement have taken advantage of the installment plan.

S. P. FIREMAN TELLS HOW HE WAS HELPED

Astoria Man Says He Will Always Have a Good Word for Plant Juice, the Tonic.

Mr. E. Swenson, who resides at 470 36th-Harrison avenue, Astoria, is another Plant Juice convert. Mr. Swenson, who is a fireman on the S. P. & S. R. R., says: "I have been afflicted with a bad case of stomach trouble for the past three years, and also suffered greatly from constipation. My stomach was in such bad condition that I felt miserable all the time. Everything I ate disagreed with me, and I do not suffer any longer. I have been full of life in my stomach that caused me great distress, so much so that I could not sleep. I frequently suffered from headache and dizzy spells. I heard no much comment about Plant Juice I thought I would try it too. I have now used three bottles and it has been in my benefit to me, my stomach is much improved. I am now eating most anything I want and the food seems to agree with me. I do not suffer any longer. In fact, my whole system is much improved. My mother has been taking Plant Juice, too, she suffers from bladder trouble and is very much better since she began taking it. She has only used one bottle and was both very enthusiastic about Plant Juice and glad to recommend it to others."

The one who suffer from ailments of the digestive system, such as indigestion, sour stomach, bloating, gas, etc., with poor appetite, impoverished blood, biliousness and constipation, who are run down generally and feel in bad shape all over, should try Plant Juice at once. The results are quick and permanent. For sale at the Owl Drug Company's stores.—Adv.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES DISAPPEAR

Chronic Sufferers Always Find Relief From Few Doses.

If you are bothered with backache or rheumatism, have disagreeable, annoying bladder or urinary disorders, contend with—or suffer with—any other of the many miseries that come from weak kidneys, here is a guaranteed relief that is sure to do you good. It is a positive fact that Croxone promptly overcomes such disorders. It soaks right in, cleans out the stopped up kidneys, makes them filter and sift out the poisonous waste matter from the blood. It neutralizes and dissolves the uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder. More than a few doses of Croxone are seldom required to relieve even the obstinate, long standing cases. You will find Croxone entirely different from all other remedies. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it without results. An original package costs but a trifle, and your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time.—Adv.

Coffee Drinking

Coffee isn't a food. Anything not a food which is taken into the system makes the eliminative processes work overtime to throw it off. Often the unprofitable thing, when taken regularly, accumulates faster than it can be eliminated, and becomes a destroyer.

Besides, coffee contains caffeine, a subtle, poisonous drug—about 2 1/2 grains to the cup. It is well known that caffeine frequently causes heart trouble, nervousness, sleeplessness and biliousness—serious handicaps to progress and comfort.

If something is hindering your efforts, try the simple test of leaving off coffee ten days and using Postum.

If after a few days you begin to feel better—sleep well, nerves steady up and brain gets clear, you will know how to avoid that kind of trouble.

Postum, made only of prime wheat and a small per cent of New Orleans molasses is a pure food-drink—wholesome, nourishing and delicious. It is absolutely free from caffeine or any other drug.

Postum now comes in two forms.

Regular Postum—must be well boiled to bring out its delightful flavour and food value.

Instant Postum—(the new form) is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful stirred in a cup of hot water makes a delicious beverage instantly. Add sugar and cream to taste.

"There's a Reason" for POSTUM

Sold by grocers everywhere.
