

BETROTHAL OF MISS JOSSELYN SURPRISE

New York Girl, Late of Portland, Engaged to Mason Manghum, of This City.

LOCAL SOCIETY A-FLUTTER

Wedding of Fair Favorite of Smart Set to Young Attorney Will Be February Event and Couple Then Will Return Here.

The engagement of Miss Mildred Josselyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benage S. Josselyn, who recently left Portland for New York, to Mason Manghum, of Portland, was announced last Saturday at a party given in her honor in New York, but the news has just reached Portland, and comes as a genuine surprise to the numerous friends of the Josselyn family. While rumors of the engagement were afloat last summer, previous to the Josselyns' departure for the East, the news, nevertheless, has caused quite a flutter in social circles.

Miss Josselyn is a clever musician, charming, vivacious girl, and one of the most popular in the younger contingent. She attended school in Baltimore, her old home; also was a student at Principia School in St. Louis, and has traveled extensively. She is a sister of Mrs. Archibald D. McIntyre, of Joliet, Ill., whose wedding was one of the smart society events in Portland little more than a year ago.

Mason Manghum is the son of Mrs. Thomas Henry Manghum, and came to Portland two years ago from Washington, D. C. He is a graduate of Columbia and Georgetown Universities, and is practicing law in Portland. On both his paternal and maternal sides his ancestors were Marylanders for generations.

Mr. Manghum will leave soon after the holidays for New York, and the wedding will be an event of the early part of February. Miss Josselyn's friends will rejoice in the fact that she will be among them so soon again.

Mr. Josselyn is well known in Portland civic affairs, having been president of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company for several years, and the high esteem in which his associates in Portland hold him was manifest in the many elaborate affairs given to honor him following his resignation from the railway company, and previous to his departure for his new home.

The inauguration of the Saturday evening dances will take place tonight at Hotel Multnomah in the main ballroom, and will be from 9 to 12. Miss Ciddie Wirt and Harry Gray, who are in charge of "The Dancette" on Wednesdays and Saturdays, also will have charge of these evening affairs, and will instruct the guests in the modern dances. The affair is to be informal, and will be by invitation only. Those holding invitations to The Dancette are also invited to the Saturday evening dances, and in addition there will be the patrons of the hotel and their friends.

Miss Wirt and Mr. Gray dance beautifully, and give exhibitions of the tango, hesitation waltz and one-step in all their variations, suitable for the ballroom. The guests are not limited to the modern dances; they can indulge in their much-loved waltz, two-step or any other dance that pleases them and adds to the gaiety of the evening.

Presiding in the Red Cross stamp booth at Hotel Portland today will be Mrs. Isaac L. White, John P. Plagmann, Mrs. Frank Gilchrist Owen and Mrs. Charles Henry Davis, Jr., the latter two taking charge in the afternoon. Tomorrow Mrs. Isadore Lang, Mrs. Julius Lousion and Miss Gertrude Wasserman will take charge of the sales.

Those who will take care of the sales in the various booths around the city today are:

Meler & Frank—Morning, Miss Kate Brase; afternoon, Miss Margaret Bates and Miss Gretchen Kleerman.

Olds, Wortman & King—Morning, Mrs. E. T. Hughes, Miss Catharine Graham, Miss Clementine Lambert and Miss Henrietta Elliot.

Lipman, Wolf & Co.—Morning, Mrs. J. N. Lipman; afternoon, Miss Yona Gutrie and Miss Jeannette Thomas.

J. K. Gill & Co.—Miss Mary Kingsley and Miss Gladys Deaton.

Wells-Fargo—Mrs. E. L. Sanborn and Mrs. W. J. Vincent.

Owl Drug Store—Mrs. Annie Munn and Miss Vera Holt.

Multnomah Hotel—Mrs. J. A. Hughes, Mrs. Frank Kierman, Miss Ruth Kierman, Miss Margaret Sheehy and Miss Agnes Hughes.

Imperial Hotel—Morning, Mrs. James Taylor and Mrs. Samuel Long; afternoon, Miss Alta Cox and Miss Paj Clune.

Oregon Hotel—Mrs. Robert G. Dieck and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman.

Hazelwood—Mrs. P. M. Emerson, Mrs. J. Keho, and other members of the Pan-Hellenic Society.

Miss Edna Minsinger will be hostess today in honor of Miss Thelma Garrett, at an informal bridge tea. About 25 of the younger set will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Nason, who formerly resided at the Woodlawn Annex, wish to announce to their friends that they are now located at Glen Court, Park and Taylor streets.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Society of Ahava Shalom will give a "500" party Monday afternoon, December 8, at 2 o'clock, in Christensen's Hall, Eleventh and Yamhill streets.

The second of the The's Dansants at Hotel Portland will be given Saturday afternoon from 4:30 until 7 o'clock under the auspices of the board of directors of the People's Institute, who have planned to introduce special features each afternoon during the month. Miss Katharine Taylor is in charge of the Dansants, but the specific details are under the direction of the institute. Tomorrow's feature will be Miss Barbara Crocker, who will repeat her brilliant success at the recent "Jappylund," in the adorable costume worn in that production. Other attractions will be the Spanish dance in costume by Misses Jeannette Thomas and Genevieve Butterfield, who also distinguished themselves in the Spanish fandango in "Jappylund," and Mrs. Henry F. Metzger will contribute to the elaborate program with several of her usual charming selections.

Mrs. Ira Mahon (Verda Wells), is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wells, for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. De Schweinitz are being felicitated upon the arrival of a son, born Wednesday.

FORMER PORTLAND GIRL ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT AT LUNCHEON IN NEW YORK, HER PRESENT HOME.

MISS MILDRED JOSSELYN.

Tuesday at a "Wagnerian afternoon," which was one of the most delightful affairs of the week. The event was given at her home. Many delightful solos were played by prominent artists and the guests, representing smart society, were charmed with the diversion.

Local railroad men and their families are looking forward with pleasure to the next regular Transportation Club dance and card party, which will be given at the Multnomah Hotel, Wednesday evening, December 17. N. C. Soule is in charge of arrangements, and the music for dancing will be furnished by the club's seven-piece orchestra, led by Thaddeus Bacon.

One of the prettiest affairs of the early part of the week was the luncheon presided over by Miss Lillian Morgan at her home on Tuesday in honor of Miss Thelma Garrett, who is planning to leave shortly to make her home in Seattle.

In addition to Miss Garrett, the guests were Miss Grace O'Neil, Mrs. Frank Watkins, Miss Edna Minsinger, Miss Florence, Mrs. Owen Sumner, Miss Viola Barensteecher and Miss Edna Finamore.

Miss Edna Minsinger will entertain for Miss Garrett on Friday at an informal tea.

An informal dancing party will be given at Multnomah Hotel this evening, beginning at 8:20 o'clock. The patronesses for the affair are Mrs. J. C. Costello, Miss Dagmar Korell, Mrs. George McDonald, Mrs. W. S. Carter and Mrs. Robert S. Farrell. The committee is composed of Walter H. Korell, S. S. Whitman, George McDonald, Jr. and Theodore G. Williams.

PARENT-TEACHER BODY HOLDS LARGE MEETING

Work and New Plans of Portland Organizations Are Discussed at Session in Library—Superintendent Alderman Speaks.

YESTERDAY was memorable in Parent-Teacher circles, as it witnessed the largest and most enthusiastic meeting of the Portland organization. Luncheon was served in the Young Women's Christian Association at noon, and the afternoon meeting was held in the library. Mrs. F. S. Myers presided. Superintendent Alderman, guest of honor at the luncheon, gave a short address of welcome to the new organizations.

Mrs. M. M. Chittenden, of Vernon circle, reported on the work being accomplished in the Vernon district, where the School Board has rented a house for which the boys are making furniture in the manual training department and the girls are planning curtains and linen and soon will be able to learn practical housekeeping. A winter garden also will be a feature at Vernon.

Mrs. W. A. Laddlaw, of the emergency committee, told of the practical manner in which that committee has arranged to co-operate with the Associated Charities by supplying clean, mended garments from every district. These will be sent to room 412, Commercial building, and the distribution to those in need will be made by the committee, assisted by Mrs. M. Thorman, of the Charities.

It was decided to give an entertainment in January to bring out school talent. Mrs. Arlene Fetis, president of the Oregon Congress of Mothers, welcomed the new members and suggested ways in which they could help.

At the conclusion of the reports Dr. C. P. Hodge gave an address on "Fly Swatting" and outlined the plans that will be used in the early Spring, with the parents, teachers and children combining against the fly.

Among the meetings of the near future of interest to parents and teachers are: Albina Homestead this afternoon at 3 o'clock; Sunnyside next Monday night, a mass meeting for playground charters; Sunnyside, December 16, entertainment; Creston, December 16, meeting and candy sale; Irvington, December 12, evening meeting, folk dancing, entertainment and candy sale; Richmond, next Thursday night, State Superintendent Churchill to speak; Jonesboro, December 16, meeting; Glencoe, December 12, Miss Valentine Prichard and Mrs. Margaret Thoroman to speak; Shaver, December 19, evening meeting; Kerns, Mrs. Alva Lee Stepp, president, December 19, entertainment in evening.

Mrs. L. A. Ward, of Arleta, reported excellent progress with the hot lunches and predicted that Arleta soon would rival Woodlawn in garden work. A demonstration of playground work will be given December 12, under the direction of Professor Krohn at Arleta School.

Mrs. Marshall Dana gave an interesting report from Ockley Green; Mrs. W. G. L. Buland, from Hawthorne; Mrs. W. B. Hinson, from Ladd; Mrs. White, from

BAZAARS HELD TODAY

SUNNYSIDE CONGREGATIONAL AID SOCIETY DIRECTS EVENT.

Women's Guild of Grace Memorial Episcopal Church Holds Sale of Fancy Articles in Irvington.

The Sunnyside Congregational Church will hold its annual bazaar today. Fancy needlework, candles and cooked foods will be on sale. One booth will be devoted entirely to the sale of patch bags by Mrs. Boardman and Mrs. L. Espenham.

Mrs. J. A. Pettit is president of the Aid Society, under whose auspices the affair is arranged.

The Women's Guild of the Grace Memorial Episcopal Church will hold a bazaar of useful and fancy articles, and home-made and home-baked dainties this afternoon and tonight at the church in Irvington. A candy booth will be an attractive department. Lunch will be served from 9 until 3 o'clock.

The annual bazaar of the Parent-Teacher Association of Concord School will be held at the schoolhouse Saturday.

The children will give a short musical and literary program at 2:30 P. M., under the direction of the teachers, Mrs. Keeland, Miss Lee and Mrs. Hays. Frank K. Wells, Assistant State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will address the assembly at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Irene Yercx and Miss Charlotte Banfield will sing a vocal duet. Mrs. Prentiss will play a piano solo.

Lunch will be served between 5 and 7 o'clock and tea will be served during the afternoon.

Mrs. Powers has charge of the needlework booth; Miss Mamie Outfield, the candy booth, and Mrs. Ella Risley, the refreshment booth.

Mrs. James Wallace is president and Mrs. George C. Brownell vice-president of the association.

A unique feature of the Centenary Methodist Ladies' Aid bazaar, to be held this afternoon and evening at East Ninth and Pine streets, will be a programme in two parts, one for the children at 8:15, Mother Goose pantomimes, and one by adults at 9:15, Mrs. George O'Bryon, reader; Mrs. J. S. Miller, soloist, and Mrs. Bert Elliott, pianist. Useful and fancy articles, handkerchiefs, dolls, grabbag curios, etc., will be on sale, with cake and coffee and ice cream booths for the hungry.

A New England dinner will be served by the women of Good Tidings Universalist Church, Broadway and East Twenty-fourth street, this evening. In connection with their Christmas sale today, Mrs. M. E. Meade, Mrs. J. D. Corby, Mrs. M. C. Winters, Mrs. K. Sherman, Mrs. O. Watson, Mrs. J. Davenport, Mrs. W. Williams and Mrs. J. Simmons, with a corps of assistants, are in charge.

Tonight the young people present their play, "The Sleeping Car," and a fine musical programme will be given. Among other taking part will be Miss Marjory Lachmund, pianist; Miss Marjory Trotter, violinist; Miss Evelyn Snow, soprano; Will Bradley, tenor, and Miss Anita Lachmund in recitations, with a musical accompaniment.

For Dry Feet people all say the use of the well-known Webfoot Shoe Dressing is most satisfactory. This wonderful shoe grease prolongs the life of leather by keeping it soft and pliable and makes shoes absolutely waterproof. Can be found at most dealers.—Adv.

The Cornetts Club will meet with Mrs. Sarah Clark, 495 East Ash street, on December 16. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. Cornell, 644 East Sixty-second street North, and an attractive programme was given by the committee, assisted by Mrs. M. Jefferson, Mrs. Alice Shorno, Miss Mildred Simpson and Mrs. Martha Moore.

The regular monthly meeting of the Patton Home will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home. Business will be the order of the session.

Kennedy School Parent-Teacher Circle was organized Wednesday by Mrs. R. E. Bondurant with a membership of 25. The school is meeting in portable houses, but is looking forward to having a new school in the Spring. Mrs. Harry Coleman gave a short address.

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club will meet Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Miss Ives, at the Hill, 741 Washington street. All Pi Phis are cordially invited.

The biology department of the Portland Women's Club will meet at 2 o'clock today in Women of Woodcraft Hall. Dr. H. B. Terrey will speak on "Growth."

The art department of the Portland Women's Club will meet at 1 o'clock today in Women of Woodcraft Hall, with Mrs. George Weister as leader.

A called meeting of the Portland Shakespeare Study Club will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. Allen Todd, 591 East Twentieth street North.

APPLYING THIS PASTE MAKES HAIRS VANISH

(Toilet Tips)

The popularity of the delatone treatment for removing hair growths is due largely to the fact that it is quick in action and does not mar the skin, and since its introduction many beauty experts use it in preference to the electric needle. To remove the hair or fuzz, you mix some powdered delatone with a little water and apply to the objectionable hairs, then in 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs have entirely vanished. Excepting in rare instances, one treatment is sufficient.—Adv.
