The great attraction at the Pacific International Livestock Show at the Portland stockvards vesterday was the sale of several pens of pure-bred hogs in the morning and the afternoon sale of the Minor, Dunn, Brown and Cornett the display to the bors and the sales was that the animals auctioned were so widely scattered over the entire Northwest, although Oregon stockmen, with an evident appreciation for thoroughbred stock, bought the best offerings.

The bog sales totaled $1282 for any

The hog sales totaled $1263 for one The hog sales totaled $1262 for one pen of grades, Poland Chinas, Berkshires and Chesters mixed; a pen of poland Chinas and a pen of Duroc Reds. In all there were 41 hogs auctioned, exclusive of three litters of sucking pigs. The hogs were sold to buyers from all three of the Northwestern states, Washington and Idaho being well represented.

The first pen of hogs auctioned was raised by C. W. West, of Oawege, Or., and consisted of eight boars and three sows, each with a litter of pigs. They were grades, Poland China, Berkshire and Chester. The eight boars brought $184.50, an average of better than $23 each. The three sows, one with a litter of ten pigs and two with seven pigs each, brought $155.50.

A pen of Duroc Reds, 20 in number, in which were hogs raised by G. M. Harver, of Salem; W. L. Sheard, of Dayton; C. A. Hoover, of Gervals, and L. G. Swales, of Salem, brought a total of $123.50, an average of $21.20. The best hog in this pen was a junior champlon boar, a winner of the first prize at the State Pair, for which W. J. Ball, of Salem, paid $70.

A pen of Poland Chinas raised by Herbert Willard, of Dayton, Or., brought a total of $473. This pen, numbering 13, made the best average, $34.50 each.
