While there are many different opinions in Wall street as to the ultimate effect of the changes to be made because of the currency bill, the trading element took the view that passage of the bill would be a distinctly bullish influence. Recent changes in the bill were construed as favorable.

An unofficial report from Washington that the Interstate Commerce Commission was disposed to regard favorably the potition of the Eastern roads for higher freight rates helped to etrengthen railraad stocks. Success of the Lehigh Valley bond offering was another influence in that direction.

Another favorable bank statement was indicated. Forecasts, cased on known movements of currency during the week, suggested a gain of $7,000,000 or more in cash holdings.

Bonds shared in the strength of the market for stocks. Wabsash-Pittsburg certificates slumped five points to 16, Total sales, par value, $2,050,000, United States 2s advanced ¼ on call.
