SOLONS TO STAY HOME GOVERNOR OF IDAHO WILL NOT CALL SPECIAL SESSION. Executive, in Announcing Decision, Bases Refusal on Number of Special Elections Necessitated.

BOISE, Idaho, Dec. 21.—(Special.)—A session extraordinary of the twelfth Idaho Legislature will not be called today as the result of heavy buying by Governor Haines. After giving consideration to the demands from various sections of the state for an extra session, he issued a statement here tonight refusing to act. In part, he says: "I have definitely decided not to call a special session of the Legislature unless some emergency should arise which is not apparent at the present time. The question of calling a special session has been seriously considered by me, and it is no doubt true that there are certain matters of large business importance which might profitably be acted upon by the Legislature at the present time.

Many of the farmers in attendance said the demonstration would be of great assistance to the farmers of this section of the country. Mr. Thom and L. N. Smith made arrangements for experimental farming on the latter's place on Columbia Flats, about 36 miles north of Pasco. Before adjourning, the farmers voted unanimously for the employment of an agriculturist for this county during next summer's season.

Advertisement for Wrigley's Spearmint and Peppermint Gum. Includes illustration of a man and a boy, and a large graphic of a gum pack. Text: "I do my Christmas shopping from my office. I send clean, pure, healthful WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT by the box of twenty packages. My dealer sells it for 85 cents a box!"

CAUTION! The great popularity of the clean, pure, healthful WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT is causing unscrupulous persons to wrap rank imitations that are not even real chewing gum so they resemble genuine WRIGLEY'S. The better class of stores will not try to fool you with these imitations. They will be offered to you principally by street fakirs, peddlers and the candy departments of some 5 and 10 cent stores. These rank imitations cost dealers one cent a package or even less and are sold to careless people for almost any price. If you want Wrigley's look before you buy. Get what you pay for. Be SURE it's WRIGLEY'S.
