

SCHEDULE ADOPTED AFTER LONG STRIFE

Northwestern League Bosses Adjourn in Uproar With Work Unfinished.

M'GINNITY MAKES TROUBLE

Dugdale, Sore Because Seattle Gets Less Than Expected, Gives Veto Threat—Champions to Open 1914 Season in Portland.

After 10 hours of almost uninterrupted wrangling in which "Iron Man" Joe McGinnity, of Tacoma, occupied the role of "Bull Moose," directors of the Northwestern League finally adopted their 1914 schedule at 7:15 last night, adjourned in an uproar, leaving many unfinished details, and departed for their homes on midnight trains.

As a result of this annual convocation at the Oregon Hotel, both Portland and Seattle will have less Northwest League ball next season than in 1913.
Portland was cut from 16 weeks to eight and Seattle from 16 to 12.

D. E. Dugdale, president of the Seattle club, left the city in a highly indignant frame of mind.

"I'm sore," he exclaimed during an impromptu address on the Oregon grill as the guest of W. W. McCredie after the equally session. "I came down here with the promise that Seattle would receive 17 or 18 weeks of ball. Instead my home schedule is cut from 16 to 12 in 1914.

Seattle May Quit League.
"Seattle has been supporting this league for years and we deserve better treatment, and I want to say right out loud here before you all that the Northwestern League will hear more of this."

Whether or not the Seattle owners voiced threat carries any significance of possible secession to an all-Coast circuit within the next year or two, can only be guessed at.

Certain it was that the directors had a stormy day of it, for everybody was so "buffed" and "ruffled" at the adjournment hour that none could be found with the report of the "constitutional committee" named by President Jones to overhaul the old magna charta.

So, Joe McGinnity's hobby measure will have to stick over for another year.

Holiday Dates Announced.
Without more ado the opening and holiday dates as announced by Fielder A. Jones are as follows:

Season opens April 14 and closes September 27, giving Northwestern League patrons 21 weeks of ball.

April 14—Portland at Seattle, Victoria at Spokane; Vancouver at Tacoma.
April 15, 16, 17, 18, Tacoma at Vancouver, April 16, 17, 18, Seattle at Vancouver, Tacoma at Portland, Spokane at Victoria.

May 26 (Queen's birthday)—Seattle at Vancouver, Tacoma at Portland, Spokane at Victoria.

July 1 (Dominion day)—Seattle at Vancouver, Tacoma at Victoria; Portland at Spokane.

July 4 (Independence day)—Vancouver at Seattle; Portland at Spokane; Victoria at Tacoma.

September 7 (Labor day)—Victoria at Seattle; Spokane at Portland; Vancouver at Tacoma.

September 27 (Closing day)—Victoria at Tacoma; Spokane at Seattle; Portland at Vancouver.

Champions in Portland First.
Robert Brown's Vancouver champions will open the Northwestern season in Portland on Monday, May 4, but as the Pacific Coast League will have just finished a three weeks' stand at Recreation Park, that will take most of the edge off the Canby's opening.

All told, the champs will figure in three openings, at Vancouver, at Tacoma and at Portland.

Under the schedule adopted Seattle receives 15 weeks of ball at home in 1914, Portland eight weeks, Spokane 12½ weeks, Vancouver 13½ weeks and Tacoma 12 weeks.

From all that can be learned everybody at the meeting felt inclined to concede a little to Seattle, except Mc-Ginnity. McGinnity bucked and hemmed and hawed on every proposition. He appeared about as popular with his colleagues after the session as the black plague.

But, judging from past reputation, McGinnity cares as much about their friendship as a South Sea islander hankers after sealskin furs.

Not one trade or purchase of players was negotiated during the two days of executive conferring. Bob Brown furnished the nearest approach by announcing yesterday that a deal was on for the purchase of Southpaw Raleigh, of the Venice Coast League club.

No date was set for the next meeting of the league.

OUSTED OFFICIAL ACCUSES

Ex-Superintendent of Cushman School Says Politics Cause.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 23.—(Special.) —"Politics, pure and simple," is the statement of H. H. Johnson, ex-Superintendent of Cushman Indian Trade School, concerning his removal from office. Johnson is just back from Washington, D. C. He says he was given no chance to see or disprove the allegations, which included a charge that he had hugged Indian girl students.

"When I arrived in Washington," said Mr. Johnson, "I asked Cato Sells, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, to be allowed to see the evidence against me. This was refused. I asked to be allowed to go over it with a member of the Department and this was refused. I asked Sells to let me go over it with him and he refused."

"Our conference lasted half an hour a few days later I was formally dismissed."

KANE'S SUCCESSOR NAMED

Acting President of University of Washington Is Professor Landes.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 23.—Professor Henry Landes, state geologist and dean of the School of Sciences at the University of Washington, was elected acting president of the university, to succeed Dr. Thomas F. Kane, removed, at a special meeting of the Board of Regents today.

There was no discussion preceding the election, the committee's report recommending the choice, and Professor Landes was voted on at once. Regent John A. Rea voted no, and then asked to have his vote changed to yes. He said he wished to record his disapproval of the policy of removing a president in the middle of the college year.

When the board met this morning, two hours were devoted in the transaction of routine business. Then Regent John C. Higgins moved that the board go into executive session. This motion was debated at some length, some members saying that the newspapers could not be depended on to suppress certain proceedings of the board that should not be published, and others declaring that the papers always secured a report of what was done in executive session, but sometimes an inaccurate report, and it would be better to have all discussion open.

The motion for the executive session was defeated 4 to 2. The regents voting "no" were Rea, Hazeltine, Walker and Rogers. Those voting yes were McKwan, Higgins and Wheeler. Mr.
Wheeler's vote occasioned surprise. He was recently appointed by Governor Lister, who had asked the board to discontinue the executive sessions which had been so much criticized. The board adjourned immediately after electing Landes acting president.

Professor Landes will serve until the end of the college year. In the meantime the regents will seek a permanent president for the university, which has 2000 students and the largest endowment of any school in the world, including 10 acres of land in the heart of Seattle and great areas of timber land in Western Washington.

CRABBE DEFENDS RUGBY

CALIFORNIA UNIVERSITY STUDENT SAYS GAME WILL STAY.

Preparatory and Grammar Schools of State Beginning to Play and College Expects to Have Strong Team.

That Rugby football is in California to stay, despite the agitation against it at times, is the statement of Earl H.
Crabbe, president of the Big C. Society, the athletic governing body of the University of California, who is visiting at his home in Portland.

There has been talk of Rugby still being on trial; that the fans did not like it and that the players themselves have not been heartily in favor of it.

The only trouble has been in the management of the game by the Rugby Union of California, which assumed more than its share of legislative power, according to the University of California officials.

"There have always been a lot of people who hated to see Rugby getting along as well as it has. These have caused all the trouble," said Crabbe.
"Each year when the trivial matters of differences of opinions come up, these 'knockers' get in their work."

"San Francisco and California in general are aware of the sentiment and pay little heed to the explosions of these people, but outside of the state, where American football still is a novelty, these things are looked upon as sure signs that Rugby is losing ground."

"The preparatory schools and grammar schools are all taking up the game.
That means that in a short time the California colleges will no longer be subject to such treatment as was accorded them by the All-Blacks from New Zealand, in their annual pilgrimage."

Former Oregonian, 86, Dies.

COLFAX, Wash., Dec. 23.—(Special.) —Emanuel H. Brannon, aged 86, died at his home at Colfax Tuesday. Mr.
Brannon was born in Indiana, crossed the plains to California in 1859, residing in California a short time, and moved to Benton County, Oregon, locating near Corvallis, moving to Whitman County, Washington, in 1893, homesteading near Wilcox. For the past 15 years he has resided in Colfax.
He is survived by his widow and ten children, Mrs. W. L. Lee, Portland; Mrs.
J. B. Wilcox, Portland; Mrs. J. P.
Brannon, E. E. Brannon, C. E. Brannon, of Colfax; Mrs. Edie Burnett, Ban-don, Or.; T. S. Brannon, Walla Walla; M. E. Brannon, Pullman, and Mrs. Mae Hendrix, Hudson, Or. Twenty-eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren survive. Funeral services will be held from Brannon's undertaking parlors Wednesday at 1:30 P. M.

Minneapolis Accepts Call.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Dec. 23.— (Special.)—Rev. Frank Newell White, of Minneapolis, has accepted a call to the First Congregational Church, of this city, and will be here to take up his work March 1. The church has been without a pastor for months, as a result of the resignation of Rev. R. C.
Brooks.

Canby High Whips Molalla Reds.

CANBY, Or., Dec. 23.—(Special.)—The Canby High School basketball team downed the Molalla Reds in a fast and exciting game at Molalla 23 to 12 Saturday night.

BOTTOM PICTURE—MURHOLDT, TACKLE; WELLMAN, GUARD; M'DONALD, CENTER; LIAFFLE, GUARD,

ST. JAMES IS LIGHT

Multnomah Team Is 10 Pounds Heavier Than Visitors.

BORLESKE TO BE IN GAME

City Teams to Play Curtain Raiser on Winged "M" Field—Vancouver to Hold Old-Fashioned Rally After Christmas Contest.

Although handicapped by a difference of 10 pounds in the weights of the teams, St. James Club, of Vancouver, is prepared to give Multnomah one of the warmest times of the winter in the annual Christmas day football spread on Multnomah field tomorrow. This game will be the second part of a double-header, and starts promptly at 2:30 P. M.

The Frank E. Watkins and Arleta teams will play the curtain-raiser. The Watkins are champions of the Archer & Wiggins Football League and the Arleta team is a conglomeration of all of the other stars of the league.

Red Rupert, ex-guard, will play quarter for the Multnomah team. This will bring a bit more weight into the backfield. The team will average about 135 pounds and St. James will be just 10 pounds lighter.

Multnomah Club football officials have offered the objection to the playing of Vincent Borleske and the ex-star halfback of Whitman probably will be in the St. James lineup.

Borleske has shown himself to be a capable instructor of football in the past year. He has not played with any organized team, but remained in practice as coach of Lincoln High. This work gave him an insight which will make him one of the most dangerous men the club could have as an opponent.

Vancouver is showing much interest in the game. The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company is taking special pains to handle the crowds expected to attend from the Washington side.

A real old-time rooters' rally, with music and a street parade, will be held in Vancouver after the game.

The St. James team and substitutes are: Ends, Gionelli, Cook and Donaldson; Hunter and Hertel; guards, Pederick and Piaple; center, McDonald; quarter, McCarthy; Wellman and Altdorfer; right half, Borleske; left half, Lacka; fullback, Clark, with Oscar Woods, substitute.

ELKS PLAY SANTA CLAUS

for 308 Children.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Dec. 23.— (Special.)—Three hundred and eight have but a poor Christmas otherwise, have been put on the list of the Elks' lodge of this city and will be entertained in the Elks' clubhouse. They will be collected in automobiles, given a big dinner and an afternoon of freedom and games. Before the children will be returned to their homes again they will be taken into the lodge-room where, from a big Christmas tree at one end, a Santa Claus will give each girl a doll and a dress, and each boy will get a knife and some warm clothing. They are returned to their homes, to each family will go a big box of provisions, enough not only for a Christmas dinner for a whole family, but to furnish food for several days.

YAKS WOULD PLAY BALL

TOWN PROBABLY WILL HAVE A WESTERN TRI-STATE TEAM.

Six-Town League Considered and Four New Towns Mentioned as Possible Holders of Franchise.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Dec. 23.— (Special.)—That North Yakima will stay in organized baseball if the Western Tri-State League continues, and that it will do all it can to keep the league in existence, was settled definitely last week when the board of directors of the North Yakima Baseball Association took up the question of finances.

A deficit of $2300 remained from 1913, Yakima's first season in organized baseball. About $450 in uncollected subscriptions probably is available. The real question decided was whether the nine directors should pay the $1300 from their own pockets and drop out or whether they would stay on the team and try to pull even on the coming seasons.

Since Boise is to apply to the Union Association for a franchise, North Yakima, Walla Walla and Pendleton must find a fourth and possibly two more towns to complete the circuit.
Baker fans are said to want a franchise. Baker was dropped in the middle of the season last year when La Grande dropped out and no town could be found to replace it. Lewiston, Idaho, which is closer to the other towns in the circuit than was Boise, is agitating the question of getting a franchise.
A circuit composed of Walla Walla, Pendleton, Lewiston and North Yakima probably would be as compact as could be secured.

North Yakima fans are talking the advantage of trying to get Ellensburg into the game and a delegation of Yakima directors will make a trip to Ellensburg immediately after the holidays.

A smoker, at which baseball matters will be discussed, will be held in North Yakima in the first part of January, before Yakima's member of the Tri-State League's directorate goes to Walla Walla on January 29 to attend the meeting, at which plans for 1914 will be made.

BASKETBALL PLAYERS FEAST

League of Christian Brothers' College Ends With Banquet.

The basketball league of the Christian Brothers' Business College was brought to a successful and joyous end at a banquet in the college clubroom yesterday. The hosts, captained by Ide Siebert, winners of the league pennant, were the guests of honor. A college pennant was presented to each member of the successful aggregation.

Brother Fabian, president of the basketball league, acted as toastmaster. Speeches were given by each of the team captains and by several members of the faculty. Professor Dooling, Charles Winters and Brothers Gabriel and Andrew also spoke.

KLAUS KNOCKED OUT BY CHIP

Middleweight Issues Challenges to All Comers After Victory.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 23.—Frank Klaus, of East Pittsburg, claimant of the middleweight championship, was knocked out in the fifth round of his fight with George Chip, of Madison, Pa., here tonight.

Chip outfought Klaus in the first round, held his more experienced opponent even in the next three rounds and knocked him down for the count in the fifth round. It was the second time in three months that Chip has knocked Klaus out. After the fight Chip issued a challenge to all middleweights.
