When Juvenile Judge Gatens gave Walter Bollin and Clifford Masson a When Juvenile Judge Gatens gave Walter Bellin and Clifford Masson a chance to clean off the paint which they had liberally spread over the automobile drive of Mrs. J. Knear, of 493 Malden avenue last Halloween, he started another fuss between the boys and Mrs. Knear that brought the party to police notice again yesterday.

The first day of the year, designated as the day when they should clean off the paving, found them hard at work, accompanied by a dozen other boys of the neighborhood. Mrs. Knear, who had them haled into Juvenile Court, came out upon her front porch to superintend the job and her presence was not liked by the boys. So one of them, who she says is Harold Miller, son of J. A. Miller, of 736 Umatilla avenue, turned the hose on her. She called Patrolman Trout.

He reported that the paving was well teleaned, but that the boys vented their anger in shouting and splashing water about the house.

meet the young daughter of the house-hold. The bachelor turns up and is mistaken for the butler. The butler mistaken for the butler. The butler falls enamored of the housemaid, thinking she's the heiress, and the bachelor finds his affinity in the heiress, but thinks she is the housemaid. The second act is a lawn fete, in which all of the nine contribute songs in duos, tries or singly. The star attraction of this is the three Weston sisters, until this season an act in vaudeville. These girls have beautiful voices, and play on stringed instruments. Their work is truly artistic. A brother of Billy Clifruly artistic. A brother of Billy Clif-ord's, Edwin C., also Clifford, with a ich, big baritone volce, contributes a sw solos. Not the least interesting rich, big baritone velce, contributes a few solos. Not the least interesting feature is that the musical director is Mrs. Edwin Clifford, who directs amazingly well, from the stage and from the orchestra pit. May Collins tells some Scotch stories in a nice little way. The songs are all old ones, of which "I'll Get You" and "There's One in a Million Like You" are fair samples. "Believe Me" will end its engagement on Saturday, night. There will be a matinee on Saturday.

A SCHEME FOR UNEMPLOYED TO WORK FOR BOARD DISCUSSED.

Mayor and Members of County Court Consider Proposition for Benefit of Hobos and Loafers

Establishment of a rockpile in or near the city, upon which the so-called unemployed, consisting for the most part of tramps and hobos, can work for board and lodging during the Win-HALLOWEEN JOKE ECHOES ter months, is the plan which probably will be adopted by the city and county floating population of idlers who in-fest Portland and other cities during AIHEIDM 15 KIUIGULEU the Winter.

Mayor Albee has taken the proposition up with members of the Count Court, and it is probable the plan will be worked out and put into operation within a few days. It is proposed to within a few days. It is proposed to have a large quarry where men can work breaking rock for two or three hours each day to pay for meals and lodging which will be furnished by the city. With the establishment of the plan it is proposed to start a police campaign to force the loafers to work or leave the city. The plan is not proposed for legitimate unemployed, the majority of whom are being furnished with work by the city at the present time at a wage of $2 a day.

By arrangements made by Mayor Albee, the city's temporary auditorium, formerly the Gypsy Smith Auditorium. has been thrown open as a bunkhouse for the unemployed. Men are required to furnish their own bedding. Provi-sion has been made also for quarters for men at the police station and in vacant buildings in several parts of the city.

The city is continuing the relief labor work. On the average the va-rious city departments are using 450 men each day at manual labor in the parks and on the streets. The men are being paid off each night after

MASONS HOLD RECEPTION

Scottish Rite Bodies of State Adopt Eastern New Year's Custom.

Following an Eastern custom, the Scottish Rite bodies of Oregon held a reception from 2 to 5 o'clock yesterday in the Scottish Cathedral, to which all in the Scottish Cathedral, to which all the Master Masons in the city were invited. It is the first reception of the kind and it probably will be made an annual event for New Year's day.

The prime object of the reception was to get the members of the different lodges acquainted with each other. Members usually attend their own lodge meetings, but they have little opportunity of becoming acquainted with the members of other Masonic lodges. The

HEARING TO BE EXTENSIVE

Expected Legal Problems Makes City Attorney Careful on Police Cases.

Because of the likelihood of many important legal problems being brought out in the civil service hearings of the 12 policemen recently discharged by Mayor Albee, City Attorney LaRoche has arranged to make the hearing extensive. Deputy City Attorney Tomlinson has been assigned to represent the city and has been in structed to get every detail of the evidence against the men. It is expected that legal complica-tions will develop from the investiga-tion, it being the announced plan of the accused policemen to take the cases into the Circuit Court on appeal. It is expected the policemen will ask the Circuft Court to provide for a special civil service board to hear the cases, inasmuch as the regular civil was instrumental charges being brought against the policemen, and therefore should not have jurisdiction in trying the police-
