Series of Southerly Gales Which Have Been Sweeping Coast End

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 6 .- (Special.)-

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 6.—(Special.)— The series of southerly gales which have been sweeping along the coast during the past five or six days are spparently at an end. Reports from the mouth of the river today were that only a light breeze was blowing, but the bar was envi-oped by a thick vell of fog and mist and not a one of the weather-bound fleet lying in the lower harbor at-tempted to cross out. The steamer Bear, which has been in the harbor since last Thursday night, came to her dock this afternoon to secure addi-tional provisions and she expects to sail at high tide tomorrow morning.
