The Portland Woodmen of the World were granted the free use of the fairgrounds for their celebration July 4. It was reported that the revenue for 1914 from a 6-mill levy will be $4500 and from the water tax $2800. A large number of women attended the organization of the Council.

LARGE WATER MAINS LAID.—A 16-inch water main is being laid tended the organization of the Council. I Large Water main is being laid through Stephens Addition under the charge of Foreman Gray. It starts at Division and East Twelfth and extends to East Ninth street; thence northward to East Lincoln, to East Sixth, thence north to East Market street and to the river. At present the force of men are at work on East Ninth street. Smaller mains are being laid on East Eighth and East Ninth streets south from East Morrison street. Some of these streets in which mains are being laid are to be paved, but the laying of these mains at the present time is to furnish employment. Central East Portland is getting its water system greatly reinforced by these new water mains.

Attorney Says Printed Stories Influence Case.

NEW TRIAL IS DEMANDED

Court Reserves Ruling and Defense Will Begin Offering Evidence in Case Today-Postoffice Employe on Stand.

Stories of the trial of G. M. B. Summerville and A. J. Court, charged with misrepresentations in soliciting members for the Alpha Robert Bruce Lodge of the American Masonic Federation which have been printed in four of the newspapers of the state, have prejudiced the minds of the jurors who are hearing the case, Attorney G. G. Schmitt, of counsel for the defense, announced in court yesterday morning.

Attorney Schmitt asked that the jury now in the box be discharged and the trial begun again.

Judge Kavanaugh advised the attorneys to proceed with their evidence, he reserving his decision in the matter until this morning.

Two Portland papers an Astoria

Two Portland papers, an Astoria paper and a Hillsboro paper, Mr. Schmitt said, had printed articles that would prejudice the minds of the jurors and prevent the defendants from having a fair and impartial trial. Copies of the papers with the articles to which objections were made were

When court adjourned at night Judge Kavanaugh admonished the jurors not to read any publications regarding the County of Multnomah) SS.

I. W. S. Swaggert, being first duly sworn, depone and say.

I am the duly elected secretary of the Linnton Howling Club, an Oregon corporation, I have read in the edition of the Evening Telegram of Portland, Oregon, dated January 10, 1914, a purported conversation which I was quoted as having had with Tom Word, Sheriff of Multnomah County, Oregon, concerning certain county officials of Multnomah County, Oregon, or other Linnton Howling Club, Sald purported conversation with Tom Word, Sheriff, as printed in the Evening Telegram, was untrue and faise and no such conversation ever took place.

On this day I have made due and diligent search of the register of membership of the Linnton Bowling Club and after doing so I say that no elective official or officer of Multnomah County, Oregon, or of the City of Portland, Oregon, is or ever has been a member of the Linnton Bowling Club. The club is still open and ready to receive all bona fide members, who will be granted all of the rights and privileges heretofore enjoyed by them as members of the Linnton Bowling Club.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of January, 1914.
