DANCE ECLIPSES PREVIOUS AFFAIRS

Dinners Precede Party Enjoyed by Society Folk at Murlark Hall.

MRS. LEWIS HOSTESS TODAY

Miss Ellen Fitz Pendleton, President of Wellesley College, to Be Guest at Tea and Tomorrow Entertained Again.

The first dance of the New Year of the Monday Night Dancing Club's series was held last night at Murlark Hall, and eclipsed all the prayious affairs from a standpoint of galety and attendance. Several charming dinner parties preceded the affair, among them the large one for about 50 members of the club for which Dr. and Mrs. Otis B. Wight and Mr. and Mrs. Alma D. Katz were hosts at the University Club, and the structure of the club for which the structure of the club for which the structure of the property of the club for the and the attractive one presided over by Mr. and Mrs. George K. Wentworth, Jr.,

Ar. and Ars. George R. Wentworth, Jr.,
at their residence.
Seated around the prettily-appointed table were Mr. and Mrs. Marion F.
Dolph, Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Whitehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Page,
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson Forbes,
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Green, Mr. and Mrs. David Chambers Lewis and

J. F. Twohy and Bert Delano are among Portlanders recently at the Vendome Hotel in San Jose, Cal.

Among the passengers sailing for Naples and Genoa from New York City on January 8 is C. B. Lewis, of Portland.

Mrs. E. N. Wilson has taken apart-

Miss Eugenie Calhoun was hostess Friday at a prett'ly appointed luncheon for Miss Evelyn Hitchcock, whose wedding to Wilbur Pelton Reid will be an event of Wednesday evening. Covers were placed for 12. The color scheme was rose throughout. A mound of Killarney roses, narcissue and ferns adorned the table. The color scheme of Killarney roses, narcissus and ferns adorned the table. The color scheme was further carried out in the favors and hand-painted sachet place cards. The guests included Misses Evelyn Hitchcock, Margaret Porter, Mary Westaway, Angle Owen, Ruth Plummer, Zoia Hitchcock, Marjorie Read, Crystal Hyland, Marie Haller, Mrs. Will F. Smith, Helen Hall and Sally Sterrett.

The Portland Rowing Club will give a dance at Hotel Multnomah on Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Dr. V. D. DeLory will give a series of French lectures on Tuesday and Fridays from 11 to 12 A. M., in Lipman & Wolfe's store, and also will have a class for French conversation on Mondays and Thursdays from 11 to 12 o'clock. These lectures will be interesting and instructive and are on the best French literature, and free to the public. to the public.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Brooks, of Wiseman, Alaska, have gone to Scattle after a month's visit with relatives. Before returning to the most northern camp in Alaska, where they have extensive mining interests, they will visit the principal citie so f the East so that Dr. Brooks can attend surgical clinics.

Mrs. J. Greig and son Humbolt are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Hum-bolt Pracht at Ashland, Or., for a few

The Satellites O. E. S. will give a dancing party at the Masonic Temple on Thursday evening.

Women Will Criticise Stories Tomorrow

and Literary German Club, which met size, have been invited and the list is yesterday afternoon at the Library, room G.

The points of difference between the German and American school systems were explained and "Strandgut" was discussed. The Music and Literary Club is open to anyone interested. Many popular subjects will be taken under consideration at the meetings throughout the coming months.

5. 20. have been invited and the list is to be announced as soon as the acceptances are received, which is expected to be today or tomorrow. At this meeting the annual reports of the president and other officers will be received and the election of officers for the ensuing year will be held. A. H. Averill, president of the chamber, will be toastmaster. Members of the nomination committee are: H. M. Haller, William MacMaster and F. C.

throughout the coming months. The general meeting of the Port- Knapp.

PROMINENT PORTLAND VOCALIST RETURNS FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. David Chambers Lewis and the hosts.

Colonel and Mrs. C. H. Martin were also dinner hosts last night for about 20 members of the club, the affair taking place at the Hotel Multnomah in the royal suite.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. Curtys Simmons have returned from the East, ing place at the Hotel Multnomah in the royal suite.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell, Major and Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Ball, Dr. and Mrs. Gorge S. Whiteside, Dr. and Mrs. William H. Skene, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Alvord, Captain Howland, of the Army Post, and Walter F. Burrell.

Misses Hattle and Birdie Wine were entertained at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. A. Tilzer for several days. Dr. and Mrs. A. Tilzer for several days. Pr. and Mrs. A. Toter for several days. Pr. and Mrs. A. Toter for several days. Dr. and drs. Albert on Tilzer also were house guests of numerous functions, dinners, support at Hotel Multnomah and rheaker parties being among the compliments paid them.

Complimenting Miss Evelyn Hitchecock whose wedding will be an event of Wednesday, Miss Nelle Bayly was hostess at an informal tea yesterday to the residence the reguests were about of of the younger set, including the maid of honor and bridesmalds and the bride-elect's close friends.

An important event of today is the see for which Mrs. Robert W. Lawis Preparticents to the Royal of Morrow, Will Be Made for Parties and organized the Easts. Prepartice for Span or several documents of the Council chambers of the City Hall, all members and those desiring are requested to attend.

An important event of today is the Easts. Mrs. Simmons.

MRS. J. Curtys Simmons have returned from the East, where they passed the Christmas holidays, Mrs. Simmons on the Library. Mrs. Charles Steele will have charge of the programme and will be assisted with the colon for the colon for the society will be an event of the Council chambers of the City Hall. All members and those desiring are represented to atten

An important event of today is the tea for which Mrs. Robert W. Lewis will be hostess honoring a distinguished visitor, Miss Ellen Fitz Pendleton, Ph. D., president of Wellesley College, who will arrive today to be the house guest of Mrs. Vincent Cook until tomorrow night. Tomorrow a large and elaborate reception will be given in her honor at the University Club by the Wellesley College, who affiliated with the club are cordially invited to meet Dr. Pendleton.

The smallest school, Multiment of action are requested to attend.

Mrs. L. E. Ward and Mrs. J. C. Ellilott King went to Banks on Friday as representatives of the Oregon Congress of Mothers, and organized the Banks Parent-Teacher Association.

Mrs. Ada M. Young, a member of the Banka School Board was elected president. Mrs. W. L. Moore was chosen vice-president; Miss Eltha Schulminth, secretary, and Mrs. Nettle McGraw, treasurer. About 50 residents of the locality attended the meeting and the organization startd with 26 charter members, two of whom are men.

J. F. Twohy and Providence and the organization are requested to attend.

Mrs. L. E. Ward and Mrs. J. C. Ellilott King went to Banks on Friday as representatives of the Oregon Congress of Mothers, and organized the Banks Parent-Teacher Association.

Mrs. Ada M. Young, a member of the Banks School Board was elected president; Mrs. W. L. Moore was chosen vice-president; Mrs. Nettle McGraw, treasurer. About 50 residents of the locality attended the meeting and the organization startd with 26 charter members, two of whom are men.

t of the Central Labrary.

Montavilla Parent-Teacher Association meets this afternoon in room 20, A short programme, followed by im-portant business meetings will be the Shattuck School boasts of a wellconducted orchestra and a girls' chorus that is doing excellent work. At the recent meeting of the Parent-Teacher Circle, the girls sang "Kentucky Babe" and "Homeward Bound." Miss Frances directs the choruses of the

The Peninsula Parent-Teacher Association will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Sanborn, supervisor of sewing, will give a talk. The Rev. Mr. Core will make an address.

THANKS GIVEN RAILROAD Aid in Transporting Oregon Prod-

A resolution thanking the Southern Pacific Company for substantial aid rendered the state in preparing for the Chicago Land Show was passed unaninously by the Oregon State Immigra-ion Commission at its last regular ucts for Shows Is Appreciated.

meeting.
The resolutions specify that thanks are due the railroad, which "by transporting free of charge the state products gave valuable assistance to the efforts of the State Immigration Commission to assemble and install a creditable exhibit for the State of Oregon at the Chicago Land Show and at the International Dry Farming Congress

William MacMaster and F. C.

Surveys Will Be Made for Best Approach Sites on Each Side of Columbia and Opinions of Residents Are Invited.

Contracts with Waddell & Harring-The smallest school, Multnomah, with an attendance of 34 children, has a Parent-Tteacher Circle, with a membership of 37, the largest proportionate membership among the organizations in the city. The meetings are held on the second and fourth Wednesdays.

Contracts with Waddell & Harrington, of Kansas City, for the designing and supervision of the construction of the new Columbia River interstate bridge were returned by Governor West yesterday with his signature, completing the engagement of the engagement of the engagement of the signed Dr. Leah Riker, Mrs. Meta Uthoff and Mrs. Anna Disbrow, members of the Women's Political Science Club, will read papers at the regular meeting hour of the club this afternoon in room H of the Central Library. fourth copy was retained by Governor West.

West.

The contract was signed by Governor West Saturday, after it had received the signatures of the Multnomah and Clarke County Commissioners and Mr. Shaver School Parent-Teacher Circle will meet Friday at 2:30 o'clock. A short programme and a social will be features. Mrs. Jennie Kellogg is president and Miss Bertha Palmer secretary of the organization.

The Parent-Teacher Assertices of the Multnomah and Mr. Harrington, who signed the agreement Friday. The contract was drafted following a conference of the Governor with the Commissioners held at Vancouver Thursday.

Freliminary surveys to determine the location of the new bridge and the approaches will be begun a corps of engineering the location of the new bridge and the approaches of the Multnomah and Mr. Harrington, who signed the agreement Friday. The contract was drafted following a conference of the Governor with the Commissioners held at Vancouver Thursday.

Freliminary surveys to determine the location of the new bridge and the approaches will be begun to the Indian Commissioners and Mr. Harrington, who signed the agreement Friday. The contract was drafted following a conference of the Governor with the Commissioners held at Vancouver Thursday.

Freliminary surveys to determine the location of the new bridge and the approaches will be begun to the following a conference of the Multnomah and Mr. Harrington, who signed the agreement Friday. The conference of the Governor with the Commissioners held at Vancouver Thursday.

Shaver School Parent-Teacher Circle will meet Friday at 2:30 o'clock. A short programme and a social will be features. Mrs. Jennie Kellogg is president and Miss Bertha Palmer secretary of the organization.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Irvington School will meet tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock in room 14 of the school. Mrs. James Beggs will preside. An interesting programme will be given. Among those who have promised to take part are Mrs. A. E. Andrus. Miss Lillian Tingle and Miss Jessie Goddard. Miss Mitchell will have charge of the kindergarten in room 4. A large attendance is desired.

Shattuck School boasts of a welland any other that he may think desir-

All persons and organizations which have any recommendations and preferences as to the sites are requested by Mr. Howard to make their recommendation in writing to Waddell & Harrington, Alinsworth building. Three approach sites on the Oregon side have been proposed—Vancouver, Union and Patton avenue—and three in Vancouver, at the foot of Washington, Main and Columbia streets. The Interstate Commission announced several weeks ago that probably it would approve the recommendation of the engineer. All persons and organizations which

SCOUT SERMONS DESIRED

Pastors Asked to Mention Movement February 8.

A general request has been sent out from the National headquarters of the Boy Scouts in New York asking pastors of churches all over the United States. of churches all over the United States, in their sermons on Sunday, February 8, to describe the benefits of the Boy-Scout movement. Stress is laid on this particular date as being the Sunday preceding the fourth annual meeting of the National Council of the Boy Scouts Woman's Press Club Plans Meeting at Home of Mrs. Nathan Harris, 777 Johnson Street.

The review department of the State United and the home of Mrs. Nathan Harris, 777 Johnson street.

CHAMBER TO ELECT SOON Speakers for Banquet on Thursday Inght at 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nathan Harris, 777 Johnson street. Manuscripts of playlets and short stories by various members will be read and criticised.
Mrs. Harris has written several clever plays, one of which will be produced in the near future by a coterie of fifted clubwomen.

Mrs. Harris also directs the Music and Literary German Club, which met yesterday afternoon at the Library, room G.

The points of difference between the efforts of the State Immigration Commission Commission to assemble and install a creditable of Oregon at the Chicago Land Show and at the State of Oregon at the Chicago Land Show and at the Scout programme has upon boys, and to make a special appeal to the men of their congregations to take not only a passive interest but an active part in the Boy-Scout work. Scout officials, who, understand better than others what scouting is, are asked to explain it to the pastor of their church, also friendly interest in a troop. It is asserted that there are $,000,000 boys of the scout age in the United States, but that, despite the rapid spread of the movement in all the states, only a small percentage of these boys have been invited and the list is to be announced as soon as the acceptances are received, which is ex-

Powers'

Third and Yamhill

Powers'

Come Again Today

-and Tomorrow, and Every Day for Many Days, to the Powers' $30,000

SUNDAY MORNING FIRE COSTS CHINAMAN'S LIFE.

The Ira F. Powers Furniture! Co.'s Warehouse Seriuosly Damaged by Water.

Originating near a stove at the rear of the Pioneer Paint company's store, 186 First street, the fire spread to the First street warehouse of the Ira F. Powers Furniture company, the retail store of which is at Third and Yamhill. A disused elevator shaft near the origin of the biaze became a vent for the angry flames, and caused the fire to spread rapidly to the buildings on either side of the Pioneer company's store.

store.

Insurance examiners estimate the damage done as follows: Powers Furniture company, around $25,000; Pioneer Paint company, $35,000, and Kaufman Hat Factory, which occupies a portion of the second floor in the Standard building, $1000. With the exception of the bat factory the loss is well covered by insurance. Others who sustained losses were Charles Wing, proprietor of the New Republic grill, books and money, and Young Woon, a Chinese apothecary, whose stock was damaged.

Engine companies 1, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13, 16, 21, 22, 23 and trucks 1, 2, 3 and 4 responded. Chief Dowell, assisted by Assistant Chief Lauderklos and Battalion Chiefs Holden, Young and Stevens, was in charge. out of the building by kicks and blows Two Chinese, still-under the inf

The fire and water damaged stock from our warehouse will be brought to our store from day to day as the sale progresses and display space permits. Thousands of eager buyers took advantage yesterday, thousands will take advantage until the damaged stock is disposed of.

Store Opens Today at 9:30

It's a sale event that stands unparalleled. You profit by this great outclearing of Furniture, Carpets, etc. Yesterday's response to our announcements proved the appreciation and interest centered in this great sale

Again

We wish to remind you that this sale is being held in our Retail Store at

Third and Yamhill

See!

Tomorrow Evening's Papers for Further Particulars of this Great Disposal.

date to be decided as soon as possible to organize for the support of a cam-paign for the deepening of the bar channel at the mouth of the Columbia River. The date probably will be Fri-great dredge for service at the mouth of the Columbia. A bill calling for such a dredge has been prepared by Senator Lane and the local effort will be to organize and show a definite and well-developed sentiment throughout the Columbia River basin calculated to convince the authorities at Washingconvince the authorities at Washingon of the importance and urgency of the project.

The movement to be launched contemplates not only the development at the mouth of the river but the commer-cial welfare of the port as a whole. Besides business men at large, it is in-tended to have at the coming meeting representatives of all the commercial rganizations and official bodies of the Ritual Committee Reports.

Dr. E. A. Pierce, Frank McCrillis, Phil S. Bates, R. H. Thomas and J. A. Currey were appointed on the nominating committee of the Royal Rosarians at a meeting held yesterday at the Commercial Club. The section of officers of the Royal Rosarians at a meeting held yesterday at the Commercial Club. The section of officers of the Royal Rosarians at a meeting held yesterday at the Commercial Club. The section of officers of the Royal Rosarians at a meeting held yesterday at the Commercial Club. The section of officers of the Royal Rosarians at a meeting held yesterday at the Commercial Club. The section of officers of the Royal Rosarians at a meeting held yesterday at the commercial Club. The section of the Royal Rosarians at a meeting held yesterday at the suit proceedings.

Matthieson is alleged to have incurred a bill of $48, at the Portland Hotel, $38 at a saloon owned by J. C. Elder, and a bill of $57 at the Frank-lin Hotel. He was charged with "defrauding an innkeeper."

His previous experiences.

or not the white full dress should be adopted was temporarily postponed The ritual committee presented the completed ritual, and rehearsals for initiations at the annual meeting will iam Matthieson, Scattle Contractor, but Once Portland Citizen, In Under Arrest Again.

ATTENDANT AT GERLINGER CASE ACCUSED BY HOTELS.

His attendance at the Gerlinger-Frank breach of promise suit, with the attendant expenses of $143, cost Sam Matthieson, ex-Portland contractor, nov of Seattle, his liberty, last night, when Detectives Hyde and Vaughn arrested him for the alleged failure to pay his hotel and saloon bills, amounting to that figure.

Matthleson, who came into notoriety a year ago here when he was arrested twice in one day on charges of issuing bad checks, came to Portland to testify

Phil S. Bates, R. H. Thomas and J. A. Currey were appointed on the nominating committee of the Royal Rosarians at a meeting held yesterday at the Commercial Club. The annual election of officers will be held in February.

The offer of E. L. Thompson to donate material for white full dress suits in case the Royal Rosarians adopt this plan was received and a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Thompson. Action on the matter of determining whether or not the white full dress should be

SALMON PACKERS TO MEET Columbia River District Delegates to Go to Baltimore Next Week.

Citizens to Meet Under Auspices of Chamber of Commerce.

A. H. Averill, president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, will call a meeting of citizens this week, on a prominent merchant of this place.

Professional Nurse Stricken.

GRANTS PASS, Or., Jan. 12.—(Special.)—Miss Flo Holcomb, a professional nurse, while engaged at her duties at the residence of ex-Councilman Clark, was suddenly stricken with apoplexy. She remained unconscious until death, the day following. Miss Holcomb, a professional Nurse Stricken.

Many Northwestern salmon packers will leave next week for Baltimore to attend the annual convention of the National Canners' Association.

Among those who will go from Portland and the Columbia River cannery district are J. J. Reynolds, secretary of the Oregon-Washington-California Packers' Association; W. E. Comb was a sister of Asa Holcomb, a professional Nurse Stricken.

tion of vision, a campaign for the amelioration of defective eyesight and Salmon packers already have started active work in preparation for the annual "Salmon Day" celebration, which will be held this year Friday, March 13. It is held annually the second Friday in March. A salmon dinner will be one of the events in connection with the observance in Portland. A committee from the Transportation Club is working out other details. number will go from Seattle and the

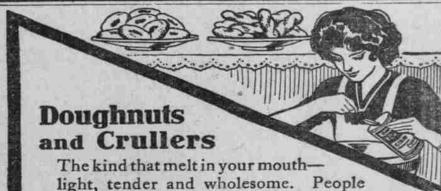

BAD SIGHT TO BE FOUGHT Committee of Doctors Will Make

War on Diseases of Eyes.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Jan. 12 .-(Special.)-Christmas trees by parcel post opens a new door for Western in-eye injuries and their prevention and the proper illumination of schools, halls, homes and other buildings.

Parcel Post Opens New Door Here.

light, tender and wholesome. People with impaired digestion will find that doughnuts and crullers raised with Rumford cause no discomfort. They will be delicious, wholesome and free from a baking powder taste.

UMTOPO BAKING POWDER