

HIGHER GOVERNMENT OF JUDGE BENSON Jurist of Klamath Falls Becomes Candidate Subject to Republican Primaries. 16 YEARS PASSED ON BENCH Aspirant Also Has Record as District Attorney and Residence in Oregon Covers Many Years of Public Activity.

Judge Henry L. Benson, of Klamath Falls, who has been visiting friends in Portland for the last few days, has decided to become a candidate subject to the decision of the Republican primaries in May, for Supreme Judge and his friends will conduct a quiet campaign in his behalf.

Judge Benson now resides over the Thirteenth Judicial District, comprising Klamath and Lake counties, and is serving his third consecutive term in that office. He is known all over the state, especially in Southern Oregon, where he has lived for many years.

Previous to becoming a District Judge, he served two terms as District Attorney in the Thirteenth District, which comprised Jackson, Josephine, Klamath and Lake counties. He has been on the District Court bench now for 16 years and has been elected each time with decisive pluralities.

When he first came to Oregon in 1889 he taught school in Douglas County and afterwards became the first principal of the school at Normal School at Drain, now abandoned.

When first elected to office, he lived at Grants Pass, but when he was chosen a judge of the old First District, the late Judge Hanna was an associate judge in the same district. The law required that one of the two judges should live in the county of the court, and as Judge Hanna also lived west of his residence at Klamath Falls.

Development of Town Aided.—Klamath Falls then—16 years ago—was a village of 300 or 400 inhabitants. It has a population of more than 6000 now. Judge Benson has had an active part in the growth and development of his home city.

With the nomination by President Wilson today of John Skelton Williams as Controller of the Currency, it became possible that the full reserve bank organization committee might make the Western trip. The controller is ex-officio a member and if the nomination of Mr. Williams were determined by the Senate before the committee leaves Saturday, he probably will make the trip.

"Bill" Hanley and Members of His Family Have Reunion, But Deny Political Bee Is Present—Other Picturesque Characters Found.

"BILL" HANLEY, of Burns, denies that yesterday's family reunion at the Hanleys in Portland had anything to do with the rumors that he will be a candidate for Governor, it having been suggested to him that he had called a conference of the state's chief before deciding to shy his broad black Stetson into the gubernatorial arena.

He is registered at the Oregon, and has been in the city since he was hanting around, telling his friends about the sagacity of the bluejays who steal the corn from the hogs on his Cape Orange ranch, or the great commercial possibilities of juniper timber and the berries thereof, and other things of greater or lesser moment from conservation to cauliflower pickles.

"Ed" Hanley, "Bill's" brother, registered at the Oregon yesterday with Salem, and, while just across the street "Mike" Hanley, the third brother, scrawled his angular signature across the register of the Imperial.

"Hia!" said Assistant Manager Thigpen, recognizing the possible political significance of the meeting.

"But all three Hanleys protested that their coming together in Portland was a mere coincidence.

"Ed" Hanley was going to Seattle with his family for a visit, and "Mike" Hanley had just come in from Helena, where he bought a carload of purebred Herefords, which will be shipped to him and "Ed" at Medford about February 1.

"RICHELIEU," By Sir Edward Blore Lytton—Presented at the Helig Theater.

It is a very excellent thing, and a fortunate one, that a wide difference of opinion exists as to the requirements of drama and as to just what should be held the essential constituents of a great play.

Role One of Greatest.

The role of the Cardinal, Richelieu, is one of the greatest acting roles and character studies in all the range of drama. Mr. Mantell does it feelingly and with full authority.

The figure of the cardinal is an essentially human one. He is great soldier-priest, whose motive of inspiration is patriotic devotion.

tation of the role is notable for its infusion, artfully done, of the French quality of temperament. He is supreme and incomparable and his embodiment rises to actual grandeur.

Mr. Mantell's company gives him competent support in this play of Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton's. Fritz Leiber, magnetic of presence and glorious of voice, is Adrian de Mauprat.

Walter Gibbs to the role a fiery vigor and an overwhelming power which is so prominent and right in the performance.

MORE EQUIPMENT NEEDED

JUDGE CLEETON EXPLAINS GIRLS' SCHOOL PROBE.

Jurist Says He Had No Intention to Criticize Governor West or His Prison Policy.

Circuit Judge Cleeton, who has been holding court in Salem since January 5, was back on his bench yesterday and busy during the morning session cleaning up probate matters that have accumulated since Judge Kelly left Saturday.

"I called the grand jury in session to investigate conditions at the Girls' Industrial School," he said, "because I think conditions there warrant an investigation. I acted just as I would have acted had I been in my own court.

"I believe present conditions are not so much the fault of the management as for the need of more equipment. I did not mean to criticize Governor West, or the policy of his prison policy, but believed the attempted tragedy, regardless of who was in charge, should be investigated.

The grand jury was recalled after the members had scattered to their homes, and I instructed them Monday as to what particular lines of investigation they should follow to make their report back to Judge Kelly.

Get a small package of Hamburg Breat Tea, or, as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour it through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Adv.
