BEHAVIOR OF HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS DRAWS COMMENDATION.

Conductor Jeffery, of Symphony Orchestra Declares Object Is to Inspire Better Thoughts. Several clergymen and students from Washington High and St. Johns High IDLE DECLARED PROTECTED School filled the Heilig Theater yesterday morning to hear rehearsed the music that will be played by the Portland Symphony Orchestra at that theater, in its regular concert tomorrow. So admirable was the behavior of the young folks, so wrapt was their attention to the rendition of the highin decorum for the attention of an adult audience. George Jeffery was conductor, and he said:

The meeting was announced about a week ago by A. H. Averill, president conductor, and he said:
