LOT L, PEARCE, OF SALEM, IS SE-LECTED PRESIDENT.

Members of Oregon Association Have Interesting Programme at An. nual Meeting Here.

At the second day of the Oregon Retail Hardware and Implement Dealers' convention yesterday in the Imperial Hotel officers were elected, with the exception of a secretary and treasurer, who will be slected by the new executive committee today.

The new officers are: Lot L. Pearce, Salem, president, and George T. Baldwin, Klamath Falls, Or., vice-president.

The new executive committee is composed of A. F. Stearns, Cakland, Or.: F. M. Sexton, The Dalles, Or.; R. J. Willis, Goldendale, Wash.; F. E. Chambers, Eugene, Or., and A. L. Jameson, McMinwills, Or. The first three named will serve for two years each and the others for one.
An interesting address was given

Yesterday by Frank D. Blake, director of the John Deere Plow Company, Moline, III., on "Advertising," Mr. Blake recommended to the dealers the use of the home papers of Oregon as adver-tising mediums. A. L. Jameson read a paper on "Credits and Collections as Viewed From a Retailer's Standboint." Much interest was taken in the "question box," into which any of the dealers who wished information on points connected with their business placed their questions, which were an-swered by some authority on the sub-fect and discussed generally after-

Columbia,

HE "Mutual Girl" made her initial how in Portland yesterday at the Columbia and was given a most cordial reception. The women were enthusiastic over her because with her they simited the famous establishment of Lucile, in New York, and saw many mag-nificent gowns displayed on living mod-

Although only the first chapter in her areer was disclosed, it was sufficient o create much anticipation of her fuure. First she was seen as a coun-ry girl in her humble home in a small fillage. An invitation from her wealthy aunt to visit the latter in the Ameri can metropolis opened the way for her to enter an entirely new life.

"The Primitive Call," a Domino release, tells the story of how a wealthy young New Yorker is mastered by the call of the primitive.

One of the funny Keystone comedies

'entitled "The Flirt's Mistake" is shown, in which Mabel Normand is featured. Another Keystone film is "Russian Wolf Hounds." Miss Dora Morton entertains with her songs.

Peoples.

T THE Peoples Theater, Cecelia Loftus in "A Lady of Quality" is trawing fine crowds, while the dancing pictures of Sebastian are proving quite a pleasing revelation to society folks. he attractive feature of the work of Miss Loftus as Clorinda is her emotional power. She is also a remark-able fencer and in the duel scene with her recreant sweetheart she unhands

m quite nattily. Miss Loftus has told her camera experiences. She said that there was at rehearsals an almost overpowering de-sire to look at the camera. This is an unpardonable sin among film acan unpardonable an among film ac-ture. There is not one scene in which Miss Loftus has shown guilt in this direction. The result has been a mighty fine piece of work. This was the sin of Bernhardt, Hackett, Nat Goodwin and a host of others who earlier possed.

New Star.

presented as its feature the third installment of the "Adventures of Kathlyn," entitled "The Temple of the Lions." It is a remarkable tale of adventure among the wild animals of the jungles of India. It contains new and novel situations and shows that Miss Williams is not only a splendid actress, but a fearless woman. In the climax she is saved in the nick of time climax she is saved in the nick of time from the claws of beasts of the jungle.

"The Masqueraders" is also a multiple reel dealing with denizens of the underworld. They are captured and one of them pays the penalty and when released from prison tries to redeem his unsavory past. "When Billy Proposes" is one of the best laughmakers the New Star has ever exhibited. A female impersonator who gets a silly female impersonator who gets a silly man to pop the question creates con-tinuous merriment.

Arcade.

FOR real harmless sensation and thrilling excitement nothing better has been shown in a long period than "The Clew of the Broken Finger," which is now enjoying a good run at the Arcade Theater. A man with a broken finger commits a crime and upon his release from jall is suspected of having been guilty of another. The officers begin the chase for his capture and hound him through every conceiv-able situation. weekly. "The Mystery of the Talking Wire
