WANT LAST WEEK'S LIMIT

Regarded as Sound by Grain Holders-Possibility of Shortage Before New Crop Comes.

There is some demand for wheat, but farmers are not interested in the prices indicated by dealers this week. The latter are quoting club at 85 cnts, forty-fold at 85 cnts and bluestern at 95 cents. These prices do not compare with those offered by a few speculators last week and as the extreme bids are not repeated, trading has bearly come to a stop sgain.

The temperary luli in operations has caused no uneasiness on the part of holders. The supply of wheat left in the part ton.
